...LAMES TREATY FAILURE TO WILSON OBSTINACY.

...lihu Root Declares America Would Have Been Member of League but for President.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Elihu Root, in his first address on ...e League of Nations during the Presidential campaign, asserted ...ight that the treaty of peace with Germany would have been ...ified and America would have been a member of the League ...President Wilson "had been willing."

"Mr. Wilson, however, was not willing. He insisted upon the treaty absolutely unchanged," Mr. Root said, adding:

"I do not question Mr. Wilson's belief that the disposition of the treaty for which he was contending on May 31, 1919, were just and fair, but, without disrespect, I do question Mr. Wilson's infallibility; I do question the complete control of abstract justice in the processes by which the four men who dictated those treaties, which undertook to make over Eastern Europe, reached their conclusions.

GIVE AND TAKE.

"I have an impression that there was the accommodation of conflicting interests, the giving of something here to get something there; the yielding of some things in order to avoid losing others; the shading of justice by expediency which has characterized such conferences since history began. I have a strong impression that some of their concerns were mistakes.

"And I think it most objectionable that the American people shall enter into a solemn and positive agreement to guarantee and maintain by force of arms for all time the dispositions of territory and sovereignty which these four men made in the year, 1919.

"That is part of what Article X undertakes to do. It is an alliance to enforce perpetually through the operations of the League the decisions of Mr. Wilson and his associates in the year 1919. It is a throw-back to the old discredited alliances of the past. It speaks a language of power, and not the spirit of progress. It is an attempt to do what the Holy Alliance sought 100 years ago (with just as noble expressions of purpose) and impose by force the judgment of the rulers of the present generation upon all future generations."

SHOULD ELECT HARDING.

Mr. Root declared that "we shall promote the peace of the world" by electing Senator Harding, Republican candidate for President, whose stand on the League, he said, was unchanged from the time he voted for ratification of the peace treaty and League of Nations with the Senate reservations. The election of Gov. Cox, Democratic Presidential nominee, he said, meant the effort to have the United States join the League of Nations without change, as it was brought back from Europe by President Wilson.

After "restating the situation" of the League, Mr. Root declared that it was well understood in 1919 and "is well understood now, that the other parties to the treaty would have been content to accept" the Senate reservations, adding:

"Several European nations already have given notice of half a dozen changes in the covenant which they propose to urge at a meeting of the Assembly of the League next month. The only reason why the changes necessary to meet American objections have not already been considered is that Mr. Wilson simply would not negotiate for them."

OPENING OF ADDRESS.

At the outset of his address, Mr. Root said:

"I think a large majority of the American people earnestly wish for an organization among civilized nations through which the nations shall co-operate to prevent future wars and that the United States shall do her full share in that or-

Two Infantry Regiments of South Russian Force Are Entirely Destroyed

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Russian Bolshevik forces have defeated the army commanded by Gen. Baron Wrangel which has been operating in the Nikopol and Kakhovka sectors, northeast of the Crimean Peninsula, according to a wireless dispatch received here from Moscow.

The soviet troops took large quantities of booty and entirely destroyed the Smolensk and Alexaieff infantry regiments of the South Russian Army. Gen. Babineff, commander of the Kuban division, is reported to have been killed and it is said Gen. Barbovitch, commander of a cavalry corps, was severely wounded.

Gen. Wrangel's troops have been thrown back into the Taurida area behind the Dnieper, which they still control.

Leon Trotzky, the Russian soviet War Minister, is said to be personally directing the Dnieper campaign.

Gen. Wrangel's ten-day offensive against the Kakhovka bridgehead at the outset was successful. His troops forced the bridgehead's first defenses by bayonet charges, but the soviet forces rallied Thursday, last, and drove out the Wrangel troops, who are retreating in disorder which borders on confusion and are abandoning tanks and cannon. The soviet forces have assumed the offensive on both fronts.

ALL MISSIONS QUIT VILNA.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Oct. 19.—All the missions, military and civil, including the mission of the League of Nations, have left Vilna, according to reports received in official circles here.

Former Premier Paderewski of Poland has been asked to attend the sessions of the executive council of the League of Nations, which will meet at Brussels beginning tomorrow, at which it has been forecast the question of Vilna will be considered. M. Paderewski will leave Paris tonight for the Belgian capital.

FIRM NOTE TO POLAND.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A note regarding the Vilna situation was handed to the Polish government Sunday by the French and British representatives in Warsaw. The note declared the Allied governments considered the occupation of Vilna contrary to the armistice with Lithuania concluded through the mediation of the League of Nations and contrary to the assurances given by Poland to the Allies and the League of Nations.

The note is friendly, but firm in tone.

Both governments expressed the opinion that Poland should completely disavow Gen. Zeligouski's action and thus give satisfaction to the League of Nations, whose authority, it was pointed out, had been shaken. The note said if the situation were not quickly cleared up the British and French governments would have to consider what further line of action might be necessary.

RESTAURANT PROFITEER WAR BEGINS.

Federal Grand Jury to Hear All About the 30-Cent Ham Sandwich.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—The Federal grand jury was ordered in special session October 27, by U. S. Attorney Daniel Gallagher today to decide whether present high prices for food at hotels and restaurants involved criminal profiteering. As an exhibit for its consideration he indicated the grand jury would be shown a ham sandwich which cost 6 cents to make and was sold for 30 cents.

The announcement followed a conference with hotel proprietors and restaurant keepers who said there was no way in which they could cut prices and make their dining rooms pay. Although profits running to 3000 per cent on vegetables and into hundreds of per cent on certain dishes were admitted, they said that in most cases their eating places were being run at a loss.

"Overhead expenses" were blamed for the conditions by most of those heard, and this reason Gallagher declared to be humbug.

To Examine Haiti Records Before Witnesses Called

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The court of inquiry appointed by Secretary Daniels to investigate charges of illegal executions by marines in Haiti announced today after its informal organization meeting that it would examine all documents relating to affairs in Haiti, before summoning witnesses.

It was thought this would permit hearing of testimony to begin on Friday, the date set for formal convening, should the court determine to conduct its first session here.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, stated in Parliament today that since January 1 100 policemen and eighteen of the military had been killed in Ireland and 160 of the police and sixty-six of the military had been wounded. Police barracks to the number of 667 had been attacked and most of them destroyed.

Sir Hamar said he could not detail the steps being taken to deal with this campaign of murder and outrage, but he assured the House that the means of dealing with the situation were rapidly improving.

COX TRAP A FIASCO.

His Trick to Catch Harding Fails.

Republican Headquarters Explains the Reference to French Humorist.

Declare DeKobra Failed to Get an Interview With Senator.

MARION (O.) Oct. 19.—An unsuccessful attempt by Gov. Cox to trap Senator Harding was charged in a statement issued from Harding headquarters tonight in response to suggestions by the Democratic nominee that Harding had conferred with Maurice DeKobra, a French journalist, regarding the French attitude toward the League of Nations.

The statement, issued over the signature of Judson C. Welliver, headquarters director of publicity, said that Senator Harding never had heard of DeKobra until today, though the latter had made an unsuccessful effort to see him in Indianapolis last Friday. It was asserted further than DeKobra, who said he had been traveling with the Cox party, was evidently expected by Gov. Cox to secure an interview with Senator Harding and to say certain things to him.

"Therefore," continued the statement, "when Senator Harding on the next day at Greencastle, Ind., made his casual observation about France having sent a spokesman to him informally, Gov. Cox assumed that the DeKobra mission had been successful and that Senator Harding had taken the bait."

SENATOR SILENT.

Senator Harding himself declined to discuss the Governor's references to DeKobra or to say anything in regard to his utterance at Greencastle. He indicated that with his reply to President Wilson's letter on the subject last night he was inclined to regard the incident as closed, and that he did not intend to reveal the identity of his informants or any other details of the informal advices he received from them.

Senator Harding will leave at 7:30 tomorrow morning on his last speaking trip outside his own State. Traveling on a special train, he will reach Jackson, O., in time to make an afternoon speech at a Republican barbecue there, and on the following day will speak at Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y.

WELLIVER'S STATEMENT.

Welliver's statement follows:

In his speech at Rochester, N. Y., last evening, Gov. Cox is reported as saying in reference to Senator Harding's statement that 'spokesmen of France' had informally asked that America should lead the way for an association of nations: 'I dare Senator Harding to tell America publicly whether or not the representative of France was Maurice DeKobra of Paris. If this be true, and I have strong reasons for believing it is, I wish to remind you of Senator Harding's oft-repeated assurance that he intended to take counsel always with others. We have here an instance of the kind of counsel he will seek in connection with international affairs. Mons. DeKobra appears to be a fine gentleman, but he is a humorist and in his own behalf I doubt if he would say he is profound in international affairs.'

"Gov. Cox has fallen into a neat little trap that had been set for Senator Harding. Senator Harding never saw M. DeKobra and never heard of him until today. The facts about this pleasant little conspiracy are briefly these:

DIDN'T GET INTERVIEW.

"On Friday evening last, a few minutes after Senator Harding's train had arrived at Indianapolis, M. DeKobra came to me at the Severin Hotel, introducing himself as the correspondent of La Liberte of Paris and asked that an audience with Senator Harding be arranged. I declined and DeKobra became insistent. He said he had been traveling with Gov. Cox's party and having secured the Cox viewpoint on international matters, was now desirous of an interview with Senator Harding, in order that he might present the Republican side of the matter. He was very insistent upon seeing Senator Harding and seeing him immediately. I finally told him it was impossible.

"M. DeKobra did not, at that time or any other, even speak to Senator Harding. Senator Harding was not informed of M. DeKobra's importunities, indeed, never saw or met him at any time. M. DeKobra was evidently expected by Gov. Cox to secure an interview with Senator Harding and to say certain things to him. Therefore, when Senator Harding on the next day at Greencastle, Ind., made his casual observation about France having sent a

OPPOSITION FOR CANAL.

Great Lakes-Ocean Route Fought.

Inference that Canada is "Putting It Over" on America is Resented.

Marine Exposition is Given Pleas for Foreign Trade from Noted Speakers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Criticism of the proposed deep-sea waterway from the Great Lakes through the St. Lawrence River as impracticable, unsound and injurious to the barge canal of New York State, was massed by its opponents as a hearing today before the International Joint Commission.

Tomorrow, eastern proponents of the project will place their views before the commission, which was appointed by the governments of Canada and the United States to investigate the feasibility of the plan.

Among the arguments today were several references to the expenditure of great sums by the United States to improve waterways in another country, and several times opponents pictured the plight of the government in case of war between Great Britain and America. One speaker declared he could not see why the United States should start another Panama canal in a foreign country.

INFERENCES RESENTED.

These remarks brought a reply from the American chairman of the international commission, former Senator Obediah Gardner of Maine. "Several times today I have noted inferences, some deliberately erroneous, that this project is an attempt on the part of Canada to inveigle the United States into building a waterway for Canada," he said. "This project originated in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States."

Public Service Commissioner Lewis Nixon asserted "it would seem the benefits of this project are entirely assumed." Taking cognizance of the strong support it has in fifteen Western States, he thought many cities are dreaming of being ocean ports, naming Duluth and Chicago as two of them. He predicted at least twenty locks would have to be built on the lakes and pointed out the slow time that the boats would make, compared to a trip to an Atlantic port. Also he continued the argument of other speakers that the route would be closed half of each year because of ice, fogs and other hazards.

HARD TO NAVIGATE.

This line of opposition was supported by a sea captain, M. N. Proctor, who told of his many difficulties in piloting vessels through the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes. He described the river as one of the worst places in the world to navigate, and characterized the project as impracticable. Others spoke of it as Utopian.

New York commercial and steamship organizations are against the project, "not because they are selfish, but because they do not desire Western States to saddle upon the people of New York State 20 per cent of the cost of the proposition," several speakers said.

Much of the cargoes which would be furnished ships in the proposed route could more easily come through the barge canal, on which New York State already spent almost $150,000,000, and the expenditure of $100,000,000 in improving New York's harbor and dock facilities, it was asserted in a paper by Charles M. Chadwick, commissioner of the New York Board of Water

Labor Members Urge Settlement to Avert Spread of Mine Trouble

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The House of Commons tonight discussed the coal strike with great moderation and an absence of vindictiveness, but without arriving at a nearer prospect of a settlement. Premier Lloyd George explained his unemployment scheme as he outlined it yesterday to a deputation which visited him, but added little to his previous statement, except that the scheme would embrace the building of new arterial roads around London.

The Premier contributed nothing to the coal discussion, which was largely confined to the Labor members. The latter emphasized the urgency of arriving at a settlement before the dispute grew to graver proportions.

UNION LEADERS SPEAK.

William Brace, Labor member and president of the South Wales Miners' Federation, suggested that the 2 shillings the miners demanded should be granted temporarily, pending the creation of a permanent wage board, and the whole matter reviewed by the end of the year. He asserted there was evidence that the miners had purposely restricted the output and declared that if it was to be a fight to a finish every man must be withdrawn from the mines regardless of the damage and loss involved.

James Henry Thomas of the National Union of Railwaymen, supporting Mr. Brace's suggestion, said it was no secret that seventeen days ago a special meeting of the railway delegates decided by only one vote not to strike forthwith, after he had made the utmost efforts in favor of peace. He begged the House not to minimize the danger, but to remember that the same people were meeting tomorrow and that the spirit of the workers was such that, even if they felt a mistake had been made, there existed a feeling of comradeship which drew them together.

PREMIER REPLIES.

After Mr. Brace's speech, a Cabinet council was held to consider the situation. Hence it was late when Premier Lloyd George rose to reply. He began by complimenting the House on the moderation and absence of bitterness with which the question had been discussed. He then referred to Mr. Brace's suggestion which, he complained, was in many respects obscure. He said if a settlement was to be attained it must be on something more definite, which would not merely postpone the dispute to the future and sow the seeds of further trouble, not only in the mining, but in every other industry.

Reviewing the history of the dispute the Premier reiterated the desire of the government to listen to all arguments. He contended that any settlement should include some inducement to increase the output.

TOKIO BACKS DOWN FROM OLD DEMAND

Problem of Countries Being Considered on Basis Japs Formerly Refused.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The statement of Japanese Vice-Foreign Minister Hanihara to the Kenseikai party, cabled here, that the American government is willing to consider the conclusion of a new treaty with Japan for protecting acquired rights of Japanese nationals in this country, confirms reports that have been current here the past month, but which have not been officially sanctioned.

Mr. Hanihara omitted to mention the fact that the Japanese immigration question is being considered together with that of a new treaty, marking a distinct departure by Japan from her position in 1919, when the Tokio government refused to consider the two issues together. It was learned authoritatively here today that the two problems are being treated in the negotiations, although State Department spokesmen declined to affirm that satisfactory principles on which to base the new treaty and a new gentleman's agreement, the latter respecting Japanese emigration to the United States, have been agreed upon, although there is a belief here that such an agreement will be reached.

IDLENESS IS INCREASING.

BY ARTHUR S. DRAPER.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The miners' strike tonight is no nearer settlement than before, despite a day of parleying and discussion. In the House of Commons the debate that began late in the afternoon and continued until far into the night helped to clear the air, but developed no plan of action.

Meanwhile the paralysis incident to the miners' strike was spreading over the country, with railway and steamship service being affected along with other industries. Unemployment has been suddenly and widely increased.

As the debate wore on, it reached no definite end.

JOBLESS PROTEST.

Sporadic rioting in widely separated parts of the city today formed the aftermath of yesterday's disorders in Whitehall street, where the police clashed with a mob of unemployed men and women.

There was a sinister feeling of unrest in the air, and the presence of a large number of policemen in the streets and around public buildings added to the tension.

Although the parades of unemployed had no direct connection with the miners' strike, many of those in the crowds, which were kept moving by the police, were men and women who had been forced into idleness by the closing of factories because of the coal shortage.

This morning a crowd of Jews said to have been incensed by a printed suggestion that they caused the disorders yesterday, threw mud and stones at the mounted police outside of the labor exchange at White Chapel in the East End. One man was arrested.

Another procession of unemployed and their followers formed in Trafalgar Square this afternoon and started for the Bow-street police station, where the persons arrested in yesterday's outbreak were tried. The mob intended to raid the station, but before it had gone more than half way from the square it was stopped by a strong police force.

Channel steamers stopped this morning, as well as most of the lines running to North and South Ireland, the Dublin line being the only one operating.

Unemployment is increasing rapidly. Thirty thousand iron workers and 10,000 shoemakers were paid off this morning and 130,000 other workers will be thrown out of employment tomorrow. Some of the miners' unions have small balances and consequently they will pay the strikers for only a fortnight at the most.

Throughout the strike area there is plenty of evidence that a large minority would prefer to return to the mines and leave the basis of a settlement to a tribunal.

The government has made no attempt to take advantage of a flock of volunteers who are anxious to help break the strike, and no troops have been moved into the mining districts.

COX BITTERLY ATTACKS LODGE.

Hisses Greet the Candidate's Vituperation.

Governor Makes Ten Speeches in New England.

Dr. Eliot, Former Head of Harvard, for League.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—Scathing attack upon Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and sarcastic criticism of Senator Harding were made today by Gov. Cox during his New England tour, embracing Massachusetts and New Hampshire cities and ending with a large meeting tonight on Boston Common.

Here, as well as to other audiences today, the Democratic candidate denounced Senator Lodge as "the arch conspirator of the ages" because of his fight against the League of Nations. Reiterating that Lodge headed a conspiracy to strangle the treaty to death through the round robin, Gov. Cox urged his Boston audience to repudiate Lodge's leadership and retire him to private life as soon as possible. To his New Hampshire audience Gov. Cox urged defeat of Senator Moses, Republican, because he signed the round robin.

HEAPED WITH SARCASM.

Senator Harding was heaped with sarcasm and ridicule by Gov. Cox in virtually every address of the day, with the incident between President Wilson and the Senator regarding the latter's statement of French overtures for a new association of nations as the basis.

"The facts justify the conclusion that Senator Harding has supidly, though deliberately, attempted to deceive the people of the United States," Gov. Cox declared.

Reciting Harding's explanation of his Des Moines speech "rejecting" the League, Gov. Cox added:

"He must think the American people very stupid. He continues to say they don't understand him."

Gov. Cox's address tonight made a total of ten speeches delivered today. The Governor's denunciation of Senator Lodge was followed by blasting form his audiences at Concord and Manchester, N. H.

HEIGHT OF ATTACK.

The height of his attacks upon Senator Lodge was reached tonight. Expressing happiness over speaking on "the first forum of America dedicated to free speech and free assemblage," Gov. Cox said he desired to remove doubt and confusion regarding the League. These, the Governor asserted, were set up in a partisan plot, instigated and led by the arch conspirator of the ages, Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts.

Stating that Gov. Coolidge had introduced Senator Lodge in Boston as "famous everywhere," Gov. Cox continued:

"I have just completed a pilgrimage from the Atlantic to the Pacific and back again. I can testify to the truth of the Governor's statement. Senator Lodge must be known in every city and village in the land, for wherever and whenever I mentioned his name it has been recognized—and greeted, not with cheers, but with jeers; not with applause, but with hisses and loud cries of 'Shame!' 'Shame!' Judging from this continuously repeated experience, I should be disposed to suggest, even to a Boston audience, that it would have been more accurate to have said that the Senator is 'notorious' everywhere, rather than that he is 'famous everywhere.'

"Why have the people risen in condemnation of Senator Lodge? The reason is clear. Our people are quick to recognize insincerity."

APPROVED CHANGES.

Reiterating that President Wilson, before returning to Paris in March, 1918, had conferred with Senate and House Foreign Affairs committees and approved League covenant changes, Gov. Cox said that Senator Lodge formed the base conspiracy to stab the treaty in the back.

"Malicious falsehoods have been scattered like autumn leaves and the hypocrisy of Lodge himself is one of the outstanding black crests in American history," the Governor continued. "In the light of his earlier recorded pronouncements he has been forced to stultify himself over and over again. He has libeled and slandered no man more than himself. He is supporting a candidate who voted for the Knox resolution for a separate peace with Germany and who has since publicly advocated the same unworthy act."

Citing Senator Lodge's statements in 1918 against a separate peace and the Senator's Union College address for world peace, Gov. Cox said:

"In view of the present attitude of Senator Lodge, as the acknowledged leader of treaty wreckers, it is certain that he has neither honesty of purpose nor sincerity of mind. It is up to the State of Massachusetts right now to repudiate his leadership and at the earliest possible moment retire him forever to private life."

Gov. Cox was delayed in his arrival at Harvard Union, Cambridge, today, and the meeting was opened with an address by the presiding officer, Dr. Charles W. Eliot, who for forty years was president of the university.

Dr. Eliot defended the League with a vigor that belied his nearly 87 years. He declared that the statement recently signed by thirty-one distinguished Republicans and friends of the League misrepresented both the Democratic platform and its candidates.

How the thirty-one gentlemen could have signed the statement was a mystery to him, he said.

"I must confess that I am unable to understand how any believer in the American sort of liberty with security can hesitate about his choice," he said. "And yet a few days ago I read a carefully drawn statement signed by thirty-one men, with most of whom I have been associated, who give the opposite advice to their countrymen. These men seem to be unanimously in favor of a League of Nations, but at the same time recommend their countrymen to put into the Presidency a man who rejects the only League of Nations which has been actually brought into existence and is functioning."

CHEERS AND HISSES.

President Lowell of Harvard, was one of the thirty-one signers of the statement attacked by Dr. Eliot and the speaker's reference to the motive for the statement, as something mysterious to him, evoked both cheers and hisses.

The audience, as usual, at the Union, was made up of students and a few guests.

When finally Gov. Cox appeared a din was raised that continued several minutes.

He immediately launched into an appeal for the League of Nations.

Gov. Cox was nearly two hours behind his schedule when he arrived at the Union and he cut his remarks short.

It was after 10 o'clock when he started for Boston Commons, where a crowd long had waited for him.

The Irish question was emphasized by Gov. Cox to all audiences today. Reiterating his friendship for the Irish cause and arguments that Ireland would be aided by the League, the Governor scored Senator Harding's position, asserting that he had opposed self-determination for Ireland, and all other peoples upon every occasion.

Articles of Incorporation for League of Protection Are Filed at Sacramento.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 19.—Articles of incorporation for the Save the Redwood League, formed for the purpose of protecting redwood forests of California, were filed today with the Secretary of State.

Directors of the league are given as Washington E. Creed, Joseph D. Grant and Charles F. Stern of San Francisco, Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur of Palo Alto and J. C. Sperry of Berkeley.

TROUBLE AHEAD FOR JUG-TOTING DIPLOMATS

STATE DEPARTMENT TO KEEP A WATCHFUL EYE ON ITS EMPLOYEES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—If a diplomat boards a train in New York with a jug of whisky for his Embassy or Legation at Washington he will be reported to the State Department by Treasury officials, and the carrier that brings him here will be indicted for transporting the intoxicating liquor in violation of the Volstead Act.

No attempt will be made to arrest any representative of a foreign government if he violates the prohibition laws, but the Secretary of State will notify his government that he has ignored the dry statutes.

There is some difference of opinion as to whether a dry agent has the right to open a diplomat's bag in search of wet goods. State Department officials assert that Internal Revenue Bureau agents have no legal right to search the official or personal baggage of a diplomat. The Treasury Department under a ruling from the Department of Justice holds that a diplomat "violates the Volstead Act when he transports intoxicating liquors across United States territory in a common carrier or other public conveyance.

If he should take a jug of whisky on a foreign ship and bring it by hand, or private motor car to his office at Washington he is within the law. But if he is brought here in an American-owned automobile or is driven by an American citizen, the owner of the machine or the American driver is guilty and will be prosecuted.

MAIL AND BAGGAGE LOST IN SHIP FIRE.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SAN SALVADOR (Republic of Salvador) Oct. 19.—Capt. McKinnon of the Pacific Mail steamer Newport, notified the postoffice here today that 348 bags of letters and parcel post packages from Europe and the United States were destroyed by fire aboard his vessel soon after it left San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua, October 16, for Corinto. When the Newport arrived at Corinto the fire was still burning.

Most of the passengers' baggage was burned, but there was no loss of life.

OKLAHOMA MINERS GO BACK TO WORK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

McALESTER, Oct. 19.—With the return to work today of vacationist coal miners at Gowen and Bache, and the indicated return tomorrow of miners at two other mines in the McAlester field, miners' officials said they believed every mine in the field would be in operation Thursday.

FRENCH CHARGE ANSWERS WILSON

Denies Spokesman Sent to Senator Harding.

Foreign Office Also Denies Any Communication.

Undersecretary of State Davis Makes Statement.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

PARIS, Oct. 19.—The French Foreign Office stated today that it had not yet received any demand from Washington for information regarding the subject referred to by President Wilson in his letter to Senator Harding, telegraphed to the press of France from the United States.

The only statement authorized by the Foreign Office so far is that no official communication of any nature had been made by the French government regarding a substitute for the League of Nations.

DENIAL BY CHARGE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Calling attention to an official denial issued by the French Foreign Office yesterday, the French charge told Undersecretary of State Davis that he was assured that the French government had delegated no spokesman to act for it in negotiations with Senator Harding either "formally or informally, officially or unofficially."

The announcement of the visit of the French charge to the State Department yesterday afternoon was made today by Davis, who said that while Count Daeburn had delivered no formal reply to the American note of inquiry to the French government dispatched yesterday, he supposed that the assurances given by the charge were the result of previous communications with his government.

Davis said he did not know whether the French government would content itself with the denial issued formally yesterday at Paris and the assurances given the State Department through the French charge or whether a formal reply would be made to the formal note of inquiry sent by the American government at the direction of President Wilson.

spokesman to him informally. Gov. Cox assumed that the DeKobra mission had been successful and that Senator Harding had taken the bait.

"The Governor proceeded to expose his own part by daring Senator Harding to say whether his French informant was DeKobra.—Gov. Cox has merely overreached himself in his attempt to trap Senator Harding.

"As already stated, M. DeKobra was denied any interview with Senator Harding and Senator Harding never heard of the gentleman until his attention was called today to Gov. Cox's speech.

"The incident is peculiarly illuminating as to the methods of the Democratic campaign, but the joke is on Gov. Cox, who has thus exposed the cheap methods his campaign is employing."

WANTS RETURN TO SELF-GOVERNMENT.

MIDDLESBORO (Ky.) Oct. 19.—Gov. Coolidge demanded a return of self-government in an address here tonight at the start of the Old Wilderness Trail, near Cumberland Gap.

"We emphatically condemn," he said, "invasion by one branch of the government of the powers and duties of another branch."

Discussing foreign relations in general, he said:

"We demand adherence to those principles of right and justice and unselfishness in our relations with other peoples which shall assure their friendship and their co-operation in the working out of the destiny of all humanity."

QUESTION WOMAN IN MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

CAMDEN (N. J.) Oct. 19. — A woman, whose identity was not disclosed, was questioned today by Prosecutor Charles A. Wolverton of Camden county, in connection with the mysterious robbery and slaying of David S. Paul, the bank messenger, who disappeared October 5 and whose body was found last Saturday buried in the Jersey pines.

It was reported the woman was one of several with whom Paul was alleged to have been friendly. This could not be confirmed. Neither would the officials say whether she was the "western woman" they have been seeking. Two weeks before he disappeared with $70,000 in cash and checks, Paul is said by the police to have met the "western woman' and they claim he was seen with her several times afterward. The bank runner was friendly with at least three other women, all of whom are under surveillance, according to the authorities.

TAFT SAYS COX IS "SHIFTY POLITICIAN."

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Former President William Howard Taft, in an address at Northwestern University tonight, said that Senator Harding had made it clear that this country should help in an association of nations to prevent war and that only by electing a "Republican nominee could real progress be made toward bringing the United States into such an association. He then denounced the Wilson administration, saying the President "had destroyed his own League through jealousy for power" and termed Gov. Cox, the Democratic nominee, "a shifty politician."

TRY KANSAS MAN FOR MURDER

LYNDON (Kan.) Oct. 19. — The trial of Rufe King, charged with murder of John Woody, was on today's calendar in the Osage County District Court. Three skeletons were found on premises formerly occupied by King at Maple Hill, Kan., alleged to be those of Woody, Reuben Gutshall and William F. Ringer.

NEW YORK RENT LAW IS VALID.

Supreme Court Says Protection of Home Within Police Powers.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Supreme Court Justice Edward R. Finch, in the Bronx, today handed down a decision holding that New York's new rent laws are constitutional. He said that protection of homes is within the police power of the State when a public emergency exists.

The decision was reached in an ejection proceeding brought by a landlord who desired use of premises upon which the lease expired October 1.

Once Slave, Now Wealthy, Negro Against Equality

ATLANTA (Ga.) Oct. 19.—Born a slave and now reputed to be one of the wealthiest and most respected negroes in the South, David T. Howard, 71, today celebrated his golden wedding anniversary and made it the occasion to give some advice to members of his race.

Beginning on a legacy of $150, left by his former master, Howard now owns a business rated as the fourth largest of its kind in the city, and financial institutions readily make loans on his name.

"I never wasted time; never went in for wild cats; never saw a baseball game, and never danced a step—but always attended to my business," said Howard. "No social equality for me; no sane-thinking negro wants it."

The negro today, said Howard, wants better justice in courts, better accommodations on railway trains and more schools for his children.

"Too many silk shirts and too much good time," said he, were the causes of racial unrest.

DEAD MAN RUNS FOR SUPERVISORIAL JOB.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—The people of San Mateo county are to ballot November 2 for a dead man for Supervisor. Joseph P. Francis, merchant of Halfmoon Bay, having died within twenty-five days of election day, his name must go on the ballot for the position for which he was a candidate, under provisions of the law.

Francis's widow and his brother will conduct a "write in" campaign for Supervisor, and the Governor will be asked to select one of them after the election.

WOMAN WHO KILLED DAUGHTER INDICTED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Katherine Mikulic was indicted today for first degree murder for slaying her 5-year-old daughter, Eva, whom she drowned in the lake last month when she tried to take her own life and did not wish to leave the child to the charity of friends.

A jury of women will be demanded for the trial, her attorneys said.

SNOW HALTS ROAD WORK IN OREGON.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SALEM (Or.) Oct. 19.—Road work has been virtually suspended in parts of Southwestern and Central Oregon owing to snow. In other sections of the State, rain has been falling for several weeks. Unless there is a return of fair weather within the next few days, many of the highways under improvement will not be completed until next year.

LEAGUE DAY IS REFUSED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Oct. 19.—Gov. Beckman declined today to proclaim next Sunday as League of Nations day for the study of the League of Nations, as requested by the League of Nations day committee. In his opinion, it is said, the matter did not deserve consideration at this time.

Mail Planes Hunt Lost Pilot.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Oct. 19.—United States mail planes were sent from here today to search for Pilot James P. Murray, who has not been heard from since he left Salt Lake City yesterday afternoon and was due here last evening. Air mail officials fear he met with an accident while crossing the mountains.

ROOT EXPLAINS PACT FAILURE.

ganization. I certainly desire this very strongly."

The plan of the League of Nations relied upon "the effect of four things taken together to prevent war," Mr. Root asserted.

"First, upon delay to afford time for investigation and for passions to cool, and sober judgment to prevail.

"Second, upon having the facts ascertained and determined and made public to all the world, so that the misunderstandings and deceptions under which the people of a country are so often led to consent to war may be obviated.

OPINION OF THE WORLD.

"Third, upon having a fairly representative body not a party to the dispute express publicly a responsible and matured opinion as to how the controversy ought to be settled, and thus bring to bear upon the action of the parties the well-informed opinion of the civilized world.

"Fourth, if any party to the agreement were to violate it by making war without the stipulated delays necessary for arbitration or investigation and report, or were to make war in violation of the unanimous opinion of the other nations, then upon the practical outlawry of that party from the advantages of trade, commerce and customary intercourse with the members of the Society of Nations, with all the consequences flowing from such an outlawry."

MAIN OBJECTIONS.

The principal objections to the League, Mr. Root said, "may be roughly classified as follows:

"First, objections to the general defensive alliance with all members of the League established by Article X.

"Second, objections to submitting to the Council of the League questions of purely American policy, such as the Monroe Doctrine, or questions of immigration, upon which the European countries approaching that subject from an entirely different point of view and with opposing or different interests, would almost necessarily differ from the American policy.

Third, that the scheme practically thrust aside the whole system of development of international law and of arbitral decision which had been the settled policy of the United States for many generations, and depended for the treatment of questions of right as well as questions of policy upon a Council, which would be composed not of judges, but of diplomatic representatives of the powers.

A SUPERGOVERNMENT.

"Fourth, that the scheme created a supergovernment which would destroy the independence of the United States.

"Fifth, that the working of the plan under the covenant was not so arranged as to participate with the constitutional government of the United States; that under it the President alone could practically carry on the entire foreign affairs of the United States by agents of his own selection to the practical exclusion of the popular branch of our government."

Mr. Wilson, in "being unwilling to accept reservations" to the peace treaty and League of Nations, has left us "practically where we stand today," Mr. Root said.

"Mr. Cox declares," he continued, "that he will insist upon the treaty just as Mr. Wilson negotiated it, and upon that understanding Mr. Wilson is supporting Mr. Cox for the Presidency. The Democratic platform says substantially the same thing.

"On the other hand, Mr. Harding, who voted for the ratification of the treaty with the Senate reservations, declares that he would do it again under the same circumstances."

WHAT IS THE ISSUE.

Mr. Root said it is plain that the issue is not between a League of Nations and no League of Nations. "The question is whether the agreement creating the League shall be accepted absolutely unchanged, or shall be modified to meet the American objections. . . . I would be glad to have the provisions of the agreement changed so as to obviate these objections. Then would follow an ordinary common-sense negotiation as to the best way to obviate the objections. Regarding this process I have to say:

"First, I think the American objections can be met and obviated without interfering with the scheme of the League or impairing its usefulness.

"Second, without pretending to any special knowledge, I think there are clear indications that the other nations concerned are willing to make such changes as are necessary to meet the American objections.

"Third, I think the objections ought to be met and obviated. The covenant contains some provisions which are unnecessary, unwise and injurious, and they ought to be changed.

"Fourth, there is nothing unusual or distressing about negotiating the necessary changes. If the other parties are willing—as they seem to be—it will be a simple matter."

BRITAIN SEES RAY OF HOPE.

and criticised Mr. Brace's suggestions. He argued that if, at the end of the year, it was found that the output had not been increased, and an attempt was made to withdraw the increase in wages, there would be another strike.

READY FOR ISSUE.

The government was not entitled to keep the country in suspense all that time, he said, and the government sincerely desired to find an issue to the dispute and was prepared to examine any scheme giving an increased output for increased remuneration.

At the conclusion of the Premier's speech a discussion ensued between Mr. Lloyd George and the labor leaders on William Adamson's proposal that the government summon a meeting of the miners' executive and coal owners.

Arthur Henderson, who was chairman of the Labor party in the Commons for several years, thought the Premier could not have a more favorable moment for bringing the parties together again. Mr. Lloyd George replied that he wanted to consult his colleagues and did not desire another premature conference.

DEBATE DISAPPOINTS.

The Parliamentary debate on the coal strike tonight, although it disappointed hopes of any immediate settlement of the dispute, nevertheless, owing to its extreme moderation and the conciliatory tone of the Premier's speech, has left much brighter prospects that a settlement will be reached before long.

The Premier especially emphasized that no question of amour propre would prevent the government from honestly, fearlessly and sincerely examining any project promising a settlement having due regard for public interest, and he expressed perfect willingness to consider increased remuneration for the miners provided it meant a larger output.

While the Cabinet was discussing the suggestion of William Brace that the 2 shillings demanded by the miners should be granted pending the creation of a permanent wage board, and the matter reviewed by the end of the year, the Labor members of Parliament held an important conference in the committee room of the House. Mr. Brace and other members identified with the mining industry attending, and there is a general belief tonight that negotiations will speedily be resumed.

GOVERNMENT FIRM.

Home Secretary Shortt, when questioned with regard to the possible release of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, declared the government had not altered its policy that convicted men or those awaiting trial for serious offenses would not be released because of hunger strikes. All the men striking came within this category, the Home Secretary said.

Michael Fitzgerald, who died in Cork Jail, Mr. Shortt added, was charged with murder, and there was decisive evidence against him. The Home Secretary asserted that none of the prison authorities had fed Lord Mayor MacSwiney.

supply, which was read at the hearing.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Plans for the development of foreign trade through the American merchant marine as means of securing the peace of the world and returning the country to a stabilized condition were made at the National Marine Exposition tonight by Admiral W. S. Benson, chairman of the shipping board, and E. N. Hurley, chairman of the board during the war. Both speakers characterized the merchant marine as a promoter of peace.

Mr. Hurley advocated an international credit plan patterned after existing co-operative marketing associations, with the American merchant marine as the nucleus of the plan and an international bond issue of from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 to finance it.

Admiral Benson saw in the merchant marine a means of uniting the nations of the world and holding them into closer contact, thus stimulating better relations and promoting peace.

"If the social and economic conditions of the world are to become more stabilized it will be possible only when the nations of the world have worked out their economic and financial problems," said Mr. Hurley.

"Most of the nations of Europe will work out these problems in the next few years and we, who are abundantly able, should be the ones now to supply them with credits and materials, that we may have them on our books as permanent customers.

"A plan could be adopted whereby marketers of the diverse products could co-operatively work out a system of credits and with its paralleling some of the existing co-operative marketing associations in this country.

"Through the medium of a corporation a collateral bond issue from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 could be created to bear interest at 5 per cent and to run three years, possibly five."

Admiral Benson, after reviewing the work of the merchant marine and pleading for its support by Americans, said:

"Commercial intercourse promotes peace. Increased overseas trade facilities mean increased opportunities for peace promotion. Commercial contact spreads intelligence, spreads the gospel of honest communication overland, over the seas, through the air and under the sea. Each of these are modern weapons against world ignorance, the cause of many wars.

"Our merchant marine was created to meet a world emergency. It is today equipped to promote world peace."

Charles Piez, former director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, urged that our foreign trade and the merchant marine should be developed hand in hand, but that America's fleet should, for the time being, at least be under control of the Shipping Board.

BANKERS TALK TAX REVISION.

Agricultural Relief Also at Front in Convention.

Meredith Calls for Fair Deal Toward Farmers.

Crops of Year Must Sell for Billions Less.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Discussion of Federal taxation revision and financial relief for the agricultural interests was pressed to the fore today before the convention of the American Bankers' Association. Suggested changes in tax laws, however, were indefinite, although some of them probably will be dealt with in resolutions to be considered Thursday.

Secretary Meredith's speech pleading for a square deal for farmers by the banking interests opened the way for several informal meetings by rural bankers. While none of these crystallized into a settled plan, representatives of bankers in the cotton States decided upon a general mass meeting for tomorrow night at which their particular difficulties and those of the producer-customers, will be taken up.

Robert Maddock, Atlanta banker, declared that the South was not nearly so broke as it has been made to appear.

EXPORT CORPORATION.

Mr. Maddock said, however, he appreciated the situations said to be facing the cotton growers, and that there appeared to be no hope for help from the government. He suggested the formation of a great cotton export corporation, proposed for the southern states by Gov. Harding of the Federal Reserve Board a year ago, saying that this seemed to be the only practical solution.

The tax question came up in the sectional meeting of the trust company bankers where Lynn V. Dinkins, New Orleans, president of the group, said he believed present tax laws placed a handicap on commercial pioneering and acted as a brake on business.

"It is, of course, necessary," Mr. Dinkins said, "to raise by taxation sufficient income to pay the current expenses of the government, interest on the public debt, and provide a reasonable sinking fund to be used in liquidating the public debt. There can be little discussion about that, but the sources from which this income is derived is a different subject.

DEVELOPMENT RESTORED.

"In the judgment of the most able men the method in use at present, discourages investment in new enterprises, and therefore retards the development of our country. It discourages the efforts of adventurous men, endowed with initiative and self-reliance, who would otherwise and under other conditions be inclined to undertake engagements which would result in an increase in the country's wealth. Of course, such undertakings would pay in taxes a portion of their earnings, but the amount taken should be so graduated that a consideration of it would not chill enthusiasm."

Mr. Dinkins said he believed there was a widespread disposition among both bankers and merchants to co-operate in an orderly liquidation of outside credits.

Savings bankers, who also met as a sectional group, joined with members of the section from New York in adopting a resolution urging changes in the savings bank laws of that State to permit the free purchase of railroad securities by such banks.

CROP VALUES DROP.

Shrinkage in the value of farm products so far this season will result in American farmers receiving $2,500,000,000 less than they would have obtained under 1919 prices, Secretary of Agriculture Meredith told delegates to the first general session of the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association here today.

He classed the situation as one which demands the best thought and sympathetic consideration of the bankers of America, and, in fact, of all the people of the country.

Mr. Meredith estimated that the fall in corn prices had involved a billion-dollar loss to producers.

MUST HAVE CREDIT.

"The American must see to it that farmers obtain credit sufficient for their needs," Mr. Meredith continued; "only thus can they continue to supply the nation's need for food. I think you gentlemen fully realize that if the farmer is to continue to produce and to meet the food requirements of the nation he must have adequate prices for his products.

"The farmer is not the only one who would be adversely affected if he fails to secure a reasonable return for his efforts. I do not think you can fail to see that the farmers' problems are your problems, and that your ultimate prosperity depends upon a right solution of the difficulties confronting the farmer."

MARKETING PROBLEM.

The marketing problem, Mr. Meredith said, is the greatest one facing the agricultural interests. He urged that bankers assist co-operative farmers' enterprises and acknowledged that bankers already had given great aid to agriculture.

The Secretary announced that he would ask Congress for an appropriation of $10,000,000 more than the previous estimate to increase the salaries of technical employees of the Department of Agriculture.

A committee headed by F. H. Sisson of New York to draft a reply of the American Bankers' Association to the recent attack made by Comptroller of the Currency Williams on the banks of New York City was named today by Richard S. Hawes, president of the association.

Hawes had said in his annual address: "We want to challenge the attack on the integrity of the bankers of America."

COURT WILL RECEIVE INDIAN CHIEF'S CASH.

IF WIFE SIGNS DEED, RANCH WILL BE SOLD, AND SHE CAN COME WEST.

Mrs. Standing-Bear wife of Luther Standing-Bear, chief of the Sioux Indian tribe, may have funds with which to come to Los Angeles from New York if a proposition agreed to by Judge Jackson yesterday is carried out. Chief Standing-Bear complained he was earning about enough to live on.

Some time ago the court ordered him to pay his wife $150 to cover her fare from New York. It was suggested yesterday by his attorney, Samuel A. Crawford, that if Mrs. Standing-Bear would sign a deed so that 160 acres of land in South Dakota could be sold, the money from the proceeds could be placed in the court's hands to cover expenses.

The court, accepting the proposition, continued the alimony proceedings until November 8. Chief Standing-Bear, in divorce proceedings, charges his wife with cruelty. He declares she hit him with a washboard and tore his silk shirt.

SACRAMENTO'S WATER SUPPLY ENDANGERED.

OAKLAND, Oct. 19.—If contentions of the rice growers of the upper Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers are upheld, the city of Sacramento will be without fresh water and all of the rights in the two valleys will be endangered, was a declaration today of John S. Partridge, attorney for the town of Antioch in a suit for a temporary injunction against the water diversionists.

Partridge maintained that the rice men had polluted the river by using so much water that salt water from the bay flowed up the river and declared that the one important question at issue was whether men could use water far above Sacramento on lands away from the river for the growing of rice, when such use would destroy the rights of farmers having prior rights.

OIL TANKER ON REEF OFF TAMPICO, MEX.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—The United States Shipping Board tanker Dillwyn, under operation of the Standard Oil Company, went on a reef near Tampico, Mex., according to advices received here. Three steamers were reported standing by and it was not believed that the tanker was in any immediate danger.

The Dillwyn, a vessel of 7400 tons, is carrying a cargo of 75,000 barrels of oil for New Jersey.

ADMIT ARMY SALE GRAFT.

Charges Allege Favorite Dealers Have Reaped Enormous Profits.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Admission was made by the War Department today that some irregularities have occurred through the sale by the government of surplus property on hand at the close of the war. The admission was made in connection with a statement following disclosures in New York that favorite profiteers were reaping harvests through army sales, particularly in clothing.

On the heels of the department's admission that there had been some irregularities due to the enormity of the business, came other charges that private dealers who had obtained vast supplies of army candy at the rate of 8 and 10 cents a pound were reaping enormous profits through the sale of the candy at 80 cents and $1 a pound.

NEW YORK PROFITEERING.

Profiteering in New York, it is declared, has been made possible to favored dealers who purchased surplus army stocks at ridiculously low figures and sold them at tremendous advances, the profits in some cases being reported as high as 1000 per cent. One case cited is that of a concern which purchased 300,000 raincoats from the government at 25c each and resold them to a chain of raincoat stores at ten times that amount, or $2.50 each, thus making a profit of $675,000, or 900 per cent on their investment. Another incident called to the War Department's attention was the purchase by the same concern of 1,000,000 yards of olive drab shirting at a loss to the government of from 12 to 17 cents a yard or from $120,000 to $170,000 on the lot. The report is that the head of this concern is so well known to a high official in Washington that he can enter his office here without knocking at any time.

BROKERS BECOME RICH.

From New York also came reports that certain brokers whose names were unknown to the candy trade eighteen months ago have acquired fortunes mounting into hundreds of thousands of dollars by purchasing from the army the surplus candy and selling it at from 500 to 1000 per cent profit.

When these incidents, said to be only a few of many similar cases throughout the country, were called to the attention of the department, an official statement was issued calling attention to the fact that upon the total sales of surplus stocks materials of which cost originally $1,000,000,000 the government had recovered 63 per cent.

A small quantity of uniform clothing of large sizes being in excess of the needs of the army after the armistice had been sold as surplus material, said the War Department statement. To provide uniform cloth of the required size it was found necessary to manufacture it from material on hand, and in some instances small amounts of small-sized underclothing were purchased in the open market.

WAR DEPARTMENT POLICY.

The policy of the War Department in selling surplus and reclaimed property is to advertise extensively in business and daily papers throughout the country a sufficient time in advance of the sale to enable all interested to compete. Every effort is made to allow the public at large to purchase whatever articles are placed on sale, and as far back as August, 1919, the War Department issued instructions that, in so far as practicable, the surplus material be disposed of to the ultimate consumer, and that no firm, corporation, jobber, etc., should be considered until all other channels had been exhausted.

"Up to date the War Department has sold surplus property which originally cost over $1,000,000,000 at a recovery of 63 per cent. For instance, textiles were sold amounting to about $113,000,000, with a recovery of 73 per cent. The War Department takes every precaution to protect its interest by not allowing any purchaser to obtain the articles bought unless a substantial amount is deposited with the order.

"SMALL IRREGULARITIES."

"In as large an organization as that engaged in the disposal of surplus property it is inevitable that small irregularities will occur. Whenever these are brought to the attention of the War Department proper corrective measures are immediately applied."

The whole subject of army sales, it is reported, is to be taken up again for investigation by Congress when it reconvenes in December. A preliminary investigation was made by the House special committee on war expenditures, but the charge that the whole system of sales has proved a financial failure and of no avail in reducing the cost of living has led to a determination on the part of members of this committee to resume the investigation.

WAR IS STARTED ON COMMON BARBERRY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—A farm survey to eradicate the common barberry as a defensive measure against wheat rust has been started by the Department of Agriculture in portions of thirteen States in the West and Middle West.

Thirty-one counties in North and South Dakota and Minnesota already have been surveyed, it was announced today, for the purpose of locating and weeding out "cultivated and escaped bushes" on farms.

PLAYING HANGING IS REALISTIC TO BOY.

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Oct. 19.—Playing hanging proved fatal yesterday to Charles Weiss, 11 years old, son of Samuel Weiss of Eudoro, Ark.

A rope placed under the boy's arms by several companions as part of a game of cowboys and highwaymen slipped, caught under his chin and strangled him. The victim's parents were attending a funeral.

MORE GRACE FOR DRAFT EVADERS

War Department Again Delays Publishing List.

Comparison With State Records is Urged.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19. — The War Department has again delayed publication of the names of draft deserters which it served notice several months ago would be disclosed. Reasons for this delay, it was announced today were several, the principal one being that more time should be given to correct the lists in order that no injustice should be done. But insistence of governors of several States that the lists be compared with State records, it was disclosed, was a primary cause for the delay.

The Governor of Wisconsin was one who insisted upon a careful comparison of the War Department records and the records of his State before the names of draft deserters were published. In his request to the War Department, Gov. Philipp said:

GOVERNOR'S LETTER.

"I am very anxious to avoid any wrong being done to men who have fulfilled their military obligations and to this end suggest that in case any publicity or any arrests are to made of Wisconsin men who are charged as deserters, that before this is done the list be submitted to Adjt.-Gen. Orlando Holway, Madison, Wis., in order that the same may be compared with the records in his office."

Information has been received within the last few days from two of the smaller States that enabled the department to eliminate forty names from the list of deserters, the War Department reported.

One of the reasons for giving publicity to the fact that the list of deserters was to be published was to cause all those persons in whose mind there existed doubt as to their final status to write to the War Department in order that their records could be investigated and the names eliminated from the list if warranted by the facts, the War Department announced. This has resulted in the elimination recently of a number of names.

TAKE EVERY PRECAUTION.

"Whatever delay has occurred is attributable to the fact that every necessary precaution is being taken to insure the elimination from the list of all names that do not properly belong on it. To publish the name of an individual who actually served his country honorably during the World War would do him irreparable injury as no subsequent announcement by the department or the individual, himself, could completely remove the blemish from his name or mend his damaged reputation."

Latest figures in the Adjutant-General's office give the total number of draft deserters as 498,033.

An examination of the records prior to July 15, 1919, resulted in the determination that 151,354 of the number reported as deserters had enlisted in our armies or those of the Allies or had been erroneously inducted so that the total of net desertions was reduced thereby to 337,649.

Of the last number, 163,738 had been apprehended prior to July 15 1919, and their cases disposed of by the military authorities, leaving an actual balance of outstanding desertions on that date of 173,911.

DARING BANDIT HAS POOR LUCK IN HAUL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SPOKANE, Oct. 19.—A bandit entered the Union Park Bank, in an outlying industrial district of this city, shortly before closing time today, ordered Casher E. R. Anderson and two other employees into the vault and escaped with $200 in small bills which he took from the counter.

The man overlooked several thousand dollars, bank officials said.

CAR MEN GET RISE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 19.—Platform men of the Sacramento street railway lines were granted a wage increase of 4 cents an hour by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The minimum now is 51 cents and the maximum 60 cents. This increase is the second granted this year.

KING MOTOR COMPANY PLEADS FOR RECEIVER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DETROIT, Oct. 19.—Dissolution of the King Motor Company of Detroit and appointment of a receiver to take over the affairs of the corporation, was asked in a petition filed in the Wayne County Circuit Court today by directors of the concern.

The petition listed the company's assets at $1,835,772, and liabilities at $1,097,070.

WELCOME TO LOOK INTO LEAGUE FILES.

TREASURER OF ORGANIZATION DENIES NEGOTIATIONS WITH FOREIGNERS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Senate committee investigating campaign funds is welcome to any incriminating evidence it can find of negotiations with foreign governments in the files of the League to Enforce Peace, Herbert S. Houston, treasurer of that organization, declared tonight in a statement prompted by publication in St. Louis of the report of the investigator for the committee. The records of the organization had been voluntarily thrown open to committee investigators, Mr. Houston said, to show the sources of funds raised by the league during the campaign for the League of Nations covenant before the Senate.

"The committee, it appears, has insisted on going through our confidential files line by line," Mr. Houston continued. "I do not hesitate to say such tactics are of a kind with the whole opposition to the League covenant from beginning to end. Mr. Taft was right when he said the Senate Foreign Relations Committee was packed to beat the treaty and the covenant. This present investigation of the League to Enforce Peace, at least in so far as it is engineered by that arch bitter-ender, Senator Reed, seems to be part of the same campaign.

"Their highly imaginative attorney has us meet in conference with the German Chancellor and the British Prime Minister. I never saw or communicated with either one of them in my life. I did have an informal interview in Paris with Leon Bourgeois, chairman of the League of Nations Council, and although it never occurred to me as a matter of public interest, if seems to be looked upon as important by the committee's attorney."

CONSIDER CUT IN SOFT COAL PRICES.

OPERATORS WILL HOLD MEETING AT SUGGESTION OF ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Reduction in bituminous coal prices will be considered by mine owners in Cleveland, October 26, at a meeting called today by the National Coal Association at the suggestion of Atty.-Gen. Palmer.

Col. D. D. Wentz, president of the association, promised to place the suggestion before operators, and in order that it might be fully considered J. D. A. Morrow, vice-president of the association, urged all of the 7000 soft-coal operators of the country to attend.

"The Attorney-General," the announcement said, "has assured Col. Wentz that action to reduce high prices for bituminous coal and to eliminate profiteering, as construed under the Lever Act, if taken without infringing certain limitations which he will communicate to Col. Wents, and the necessary discussion thereon by the bituminous-coal operators attending the meeting, will not be in violation of the Sherman Act or any other law."

Brazil to Issue Currency.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 19.—The Chamber of Deputies approved a measure last night authorizing the government to issue paper money not exceeding 50,000 contos, which at the present rate of exchange is about $8,500,000. The measure is to assist national production through loans to producing States.

The Federal grand jury resumed consideration of a supposed illicit liquor conspiracy said by government officials to have been participated in by Harry Broiaski, prominent broker, and others.

Those involved with Mannix are John Poppiano, Jr., and Paul Vanucci, roadhouse proprietors, and Robert Jeffress, former liquor dealer.

WHISKY CURB RAIDED.

NEWARK (N. J.) Oct. 19.—Newark's alleged whisky curb was raided today and forty men arrested on a charge of loitering.

Several escaped in motor cars as the police arrived.

The curb was reported to have been frequented for months by men who, although with no apparent means of support, had automobiles at their disposal.

NETERER EXPLAINS RULING

SEATTLE, Oct. 19. — Federal Judge Neterer, who, in a decision yesterday held that persons tried in State courts for violation of the liquor laws may not again be tried in Federal courts, today amplified that decision by the statement that the city liquor laws are practically null and void under the application of the Federal statutes and that the city police dry squad is in effect operating without authority. Judge Neterer said that under Supreme Court findings only deputy sheriffs and Federal prohibition agents are authorized agents for the enforcement of the prohibition act.

OFFICERS ACCUSED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Federal warrants were issued today by U. S. Commissioner Lewis for Sergts. John B. Walsh and Policeman Frank McCahey of the Chicago police force in connection with the investigation into an alleged whisky ring. A warrant also was issued for Frank McGovern, a saloon-keeper. Walsh and McCahey were said by McGovern to have tried to obtain protection money from him.

BRITISH COLUMBIA TO VOTE.

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Oct. 19.—Voters throughout the Province tomorrow will express their choice between prohibition as it now exists and the sale of liquor under government control. Prohibitionists and moderationists completed their campaign tonight.

Election Over, Harding Named, Taft's Opinion.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—"The election is over. The people are just waiting to go through the technical act of voting," said former President William H. Taft today. "Senator Harding will be elected by a large majority.

"Unless Harding is elected there will be no League of Nations. If Cox were to be elected there would be a continual deadlock just as there was in the Wilson administration. Personally I was in favor of the League and I was disappointed when the President did not accept the League with reservations."

Mr. Taft was instantly recognized by railroad and hotel employees as his great bulk and genial smile pervaded the city. Three bell boys fought for the privilege of carrying his baggage and even the stoical hotel clerks warmed up and grinned as the ponderous guest bore down upon them to register.

DIVORCE SET ASIDE ON WOMAN'S DENIAL.

CINEMA ACTRESS HERE LOSES DECREE; CHARGES REFUTED BY "OTHER WOMAN."

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—The interlocutory decree of divorce of Mrs. Mabel Arnold, cinema actress, from Forrest Arnold, automobile man, was set aside yesterday by Judge Trabucco and they were returned to their former married status.

This action was take upon motion of Mrs. Georgia Arrell, who was named by Mrs. Arnold as being Arnold's affinity. Mrs. Arrell stated she desired to purge herself of the charges made by Mrs. Arnold, which she avers are false.

Mrs. Arrell's petition was submitted to the court by Louis Hoefler and opposed by R. Porter Ashe, attorney for Mrs. Arnold, who is sick in Los Angeles. Both Mr. Arnold and Harry J. Stafford, his attorney, were spectators of the proceedings, but took no part in them.

As a result of the setting aside of the decree, the case will have to be retried owing to the fact that Mrs. Arrell will take the stand and categorically deny all of Mrs. Arnold's charges. Unless the latter can bring sufficient evidence to impeach Mrs. Arrell's testimony, the entire status of the case will be changed.

Mr. Arnold was the plaintiff in the divorce action, charging his wife with the excessive use of alcohol; also that she and another woman accompanied two men on an automobile trip to Oregon when she was supposed to be a guest at a summer resort in Northern California.

Mrs. Arnold, in her cross-complaint, charged her husband with intimacy with Mrs. Arrell and on this testimony she was awarded the decree, custody of their 8-year-old son and $100 a month for the child's maintenance. Mrs. Arrell was in New York at the time of the trial and although Mrs. Arnold named her as co-respondent, she never served her with a copy of the papers.

Mrs. Arrell's husband took the witness stand at his own request during the trial and defended his wife's name, declaring Mr. Arnold to be his best friend and stating he had the utmost confidence in them both.

SWEET OBJECTS TO TALK BY HARDING.

DECLARES CANDIDATE GROSSLY MISSTATED FACTS REGARDING TRADE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Acting Secretary Sweet of the Department of Commerce, made public tonigh a letter he has addressed to Senator Harding, charging the Republican nominee with having made grossly erroneous statements concerning the department.

Mr. Sweet cited extracts from a speech made by Senator Harding at St. Louis, October 16, to the effect that the government had indulged in too much of meddling in Europe and too little of trade co-operation with Latin-America and that it had signally failed to extend to its industrial and commercial enterprises anything like the encouragement and support which has been given British industries by the British government.

"It may surprise you," Mr. Sweet said in his letter, "and it certainly will surprise those who heard or read your statements and place reliance on them to learn that our Latin-American trade at the beginning of the European war was considerably greater than that of Great Britain."

The Acting Secretary placed the total trade of the United States with Latin-America during 1911-13 at $2,361,088,000, and the trade of Great Britain at $1,839,556,000.

"In the year 1919, our exports to Latin-American countries amounted to $987,355,000," the letter continued. "Great Britain's exports amounted to $363,873,000."

Mr. Sweet said the present administration had inaugurated new methods and sent commercial attaches abroad.

SACRAMENTO OPPOSES INCREASED CAR FARES.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 19.—Presentation of a financial statement purporting to show that the Pacific Gas and Electric Company cannot continue profitably to operate street cars in Sacramento on the basis of a 5-cent fare was made today at the first of several hearings before State Railroad Commissioner Frank Devlin.

The city of Sacramento is opposing any increase.

SCORES REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN METHODS.

FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT COMPLAINS OF LACK OF NEWSPAPER PUBLICITY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DAYTON (O.) Oct. 19.—Republican campaign methods were severely condemned by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, in an address tonight.

As an example of what he termed the deliberately unfair attitude of certain Republican managers and of a section of the Republican press, he declared local Republican newspapers, as well as several others throughout the State and county, had intentionally given little space or none at all in their news columns to his speeches and those of Gov. Cox and had played up those of the opposition.

"They have overplayed their hand," he said, "in an attempt to help their candidate. They have made assertions which the average voter knows are clear and direct misrepresentations, and they have failed to print the other side of the question except meagerly or in distorted form."

"It is a veritable crime," he said, "that the League of Nations has been made the football of politics." He again declared that Gov. Cox and himself insisted on ratification of the League without any changes and added, "we are willing to have stated in the instrument of ratification itself that nothing contained therein shall in any way weaken or lessen our rights under the Constitution or the rights of our Congress to declare war and send our boys overseas."

SECRETARY DANIELS HITS HARDING STAND.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

JOPLIN (Mo.) Oct. 19.—Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, attacked Senator Harding's attitude toward the League of Nations in an address here tonight, declaring the Republican nominee's partisans believe he offers sufficient variety of League relishes to suit every taste.

Secretary Daniels asserted Senator Harding has a fresh assortment of views for every day in the week, subject to change without notice.

OLD INDIAN FIGHTER DEAD IN MONTANA.

HELENA (Mont.) Oct. 19.—John W. O'Neill, a survivor of the Custer campaign, died last night in Helena, aged 72. He was born in New York in 1848 and came to Montana in 1863. At the time of Custer's last stand he was among the first to reach the battlefield after the massacre.

AGED HUNTER GONE WEEK, STILL SOUGHT.

SEARCH MAY HAVE TO BE ABANDONED, HOWEVER, UNLESS STORM STOPS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ROSEBURG (Or.) Oct. 19.—Joseph Rohrer, the aged hunter who was lost one week ago in the Umpqua forests eleven miles above the Wolf Creek ranger station, is still missing.

Snow is falling and the search will have to be abandoned unless the storm subsides. Members of the searching party have had no dry clothes for several days, but continue to plunge through the wilds of the Wolf Creek district, in a desperate effort to locate the hunter.

Mrs. Rohrer is in this city in a state of collapse.

TELLS COLLEGE MEN OF LEAGUE.

Senator Hitchcock Speaks at Columbia University.

Declares Republican Party Forced Issue.

Article X Result of Monroe Doctrine, He Says.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Senator G. M. Hitchcock of Nebraska, who represented the administration in urging ratification of the Treaty of Versailles on the floor of the Senate, tonight discussed the League of Nations before the Cox-Roosevelt campaign committee of Columbia University.

Addressing a large audience in the college gymnasium, he said that the League became the issue of the present campaign because the Republicans forced it on the public for lack of a more genuine subject of party disagreement.

"The dinner pail," he said, "has never been so full as it is now, nor the commercial business of the country so prosperous as it has been for several years past."

This, he said, eliminated former issues of the "full dinner pail" and the tariff.

"Republicans, knowing these issues are dead, had to put them in cold storage," he declared.

CONDUCE TO PEACE.

The League of Nations, Senator Hitchcock asserted, is nothing more than a promise among nations to do things which conduce to peace rather than to war.

"There is no such thing as a nation being outvoted in the League," he declared. "Its fine features will do away with secret treaties and gradually accomplish the disarmament of the world."

He denied that Article X would obligate Americans to fight at the bidding of other nations, saying that the article "actually originated in this country at the time the Monroe Doctrine was drafted."

"The meaning and purpose of the League of Nations," the Senator said, "has been wilfully misrepresented by the Republican party managers.

"Were it not for the Democratic papers throughout the country," he added, "its exact meaning would be a one-sided Republican view." He expressed no fear of a national referendum provided the League is honestly and correctly presented.

Loud cheers greeted the Senator's mention of the name of President Wilson, whose statesmanship he commended.

WOMEN'S PARTY TO MEET.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Members of the National Women's party will end their annual convention in Washington, beginning February 15 and continuing for six days, Miss Alice Paul, national chairman, announced tonight. Approximately 500 delegates will be called, the statement said.

On the opening date, which is the one hundred and first anniversary of the birth of Susan B. Anthony, the convention will present to the nation busts of Miss Anthony, Lucretia Mott and Elizabeth Cady Stanton, which will be installed in the Capitol.

FIFTY THOUSAND CASH IS REFUSED AS BAIL.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 19.—Charles H. Rowan, under indictment for fraudulent use of the mails in an alleged get-rich-quick scheme, in which he advertised that fortunes could be made in deals through him in guinea pigs and rabbits, was refused bail of $50,000 by U. S. Judge F. E. Geiger when he tendered the amount in currency today.

STATE W.C.T.U. IS NOW IN CONVENTION.

MEMORIAL HELD FOR DR. GANDIER; LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR SPEAKS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

RICHMOND, Oct. 19.—The State W.C.T.U. formally opened its convention here this morning. A memorial service to Dr. D. M. Gandier, late superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, was part of the opening program. The reports of the corresponding and the recording secretaries, treasurer and auditor, were read. The treasurer's report showed receipts of $22,822, disbursements of $20,416, and a balance of $1682. Oakland was given State honors for having had the most largely attended district conference during the year.

A reception and banquet were held last night. Lieut.-Gov. Young spoke on the Harris Bill, and declared prohibition would not be in full effect until it was passed, as the present machinery was inadequate. A number of amendments to State, county and local constitutions were considered this afternoon.

SAYS CHARGE AGAINST DE VRIES IS PERJURY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Testimony that peddlers had paid John De Vries, former inspector of the State Board of Pharmacy, for drugs he had seized, was denied today by Henry W. Meyer, former assistant inspector.

Meyer said De Vries had accounted to the board and police for all drugs seized and had sold none. He declared the charge against De Vries is perjury.

Eastern Star Chapter Meets.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—The California Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star began its forty-eighth annual convention today with 1500 delegates present. Junior Past Grand Matron Mary Marshall and Junior Past Grand Patron D. Wilson Pierce of Los Angeles presided.

PANKHURST IN TROUBLE ONCE MORE.

Militant Sylvia Arrested Charged With Publishing Seditious Literature.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, was arrested today, charged with publishing seditious literature.

Sylvia Pankhurst, who was a militant agent of the suffragette movement before the war, but was little in evidence in the news after she was arrested and fined for holding a peace meeting in London, late in 1916, came into prominence again after the armistice, when she was arrested for her part in the May Day demonstrations of 1919. She was set free shortly afterwards, however.

She has been reported this year as taking considerable interest in the affairs of soviet Russia, and last April it was reported to the State Department in Washington that documents purporting to have been signed by her, promising assistance in spreading Bolshevik propaganda throughout the world were found in possession of Communist couriers arrested in Letvia.

DENIES ATTACK ON PRINCE OF SERBIA.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—An official dispatch from Belgrade, made public today by the Serbian Minister, said the recent report that an attempt had been made to blow up the train of Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia, near Sarajevo, was pure invention.

The report was given publicity by the Montenegrin Press Bureau.

ALIENS MAY NOW BUY BRITISH MINE STOCKS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Revocation has been ordered by the British government of the regulation prohibiting aliens from purchasing shares in British mines and oil fields, the State Department was advised today by American Consul-General Skinner in London.

By the general license of the Board of Trade, issued Sept. 1, 1919, wartime prohibited transactions between Britons and aliens were again permitted except as they might relate to mining or oil property in the United Kingdom, or to securities issued by companies controlling such properties in the United Kingdom.

It's Not a Crime To Be Thin, But—

it's really embarrassing to be so thin that people speak of you as being "skinny." After all, it's not necessary to be either thin, weak or anemic. Most any man or woman who wants to put on flesh, increase strength, endurance and vitality—can do it in a few weeks by getting a package of Blood-Iron Phosphate from the Sun Drug Company or any other good druggist, and taking as directed. This increases the red blood cells, strengthens the nervous system and thus helps to quickly overcome those troubles, such as thinness, anemia, nervousness, sleeplessness and physical weakness due to or accompanied by impoverished blood and weak nerves. Blood-Iron Phosphate costs only $1.50 for a three weeks' treatment, and is so genuinely good that the druggist of whom you buy it is authorized to refund the full price to you if you are dissatisfied. Better get Blood-Iron Phosphate and begin its use today.—[Advertisement.

Superfluous Hair, Roots And All, Quickly Go!
(Absolutely New Home Method)

For the first time in a hundred years a genuinely effective method of removing unsightly hairy growths has been discovered. The new phenetine process does not merely take off the hair-ends; it actually removes the roots! It does this quickly and harmlessly. It does not set anything like the depilatory, electrical, or other methods. Phenetine is non-odorous, non-poisonous, non-irritating. Get a stick of it from your druggist, follow the simple instructions, and have the satisfaction of seeing the roots themselves removed at last.—[Advertisement.

YAQUI IS NOW A GOOD INJUN.

Once Turbulent Redmen of Mexico Now Till Soil.

Government Has at Last Pacified Sonora Warriors.

Tucson "Citizen" Celebrates Fiftieth Anniversary.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

HERMOSILLO (Son.) Oct. 16.—Complete pacification, of the Yaquis remaining in Sonora, appears to have been accomplished by the State government, the Indians now being secured in the enjoyment and occupation of their ancestral lands in the Yaqui Valley, with inclusion of a number of purely Indian towns.

Possibly the crowning stroke of Mexican diplomacy was in the provision of special trains, without cost, to take the Yaquis from their towns to Magdalena on the occasion of the late feast of San Francisco Xavier, the Indians' patron saint. About 1000 availed themselves of the invitation. At Magdalena they were provided with food, and they were furnished with return transportation. A feeling of confidence thus was secured and there was renewal of friendly relations between the Indians and the Mexicans of central Sonora. In former years the Yaquis furnished the principal labor supply in the orchards and on the ranches around Hermosillo.

Gov. Borques now is planning establishment of schools in the Yaqui villages.

FOR AGRICULTURISTS.

Secretary of Agriculture Villareal has taken measures for establishment, within Sonora, of an agricultural chamber of commerce that is to work especially for the reclamation of the arid and irrigable areas of the State and for the advancement of agricultural methods. It is to have connection with a Federal commission through which there are to be loans to farming interests in the valleys of the west coast.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

TUCSON, Oct. 16.—The Tucson Citizen celebrated its fiftieth birthday recently by the issuance of one of the most ambitious special editions ever published by a Southwestern journal. It is of eighty-eight pages, covering nearly all of Arizona, all of the Mexican coast and even has a section devoted to the City of Mexico. The edition is full of pictures of great historic value, from the hitherto unpublished and copyrighted Buehmann collection of fifty years ago, showing the old pueblo as it was. There is vivid contrast in accompanying photographs of the Tucson of today. Accompanying is a chronological record from the files of the Citizen, furnishing a valuable Arizona history for the period covered.

PROJECT FOR BAY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

AJO, Oct. 16.—Bahia de Roca, (Rock Bay) appears to have been determined upon as the tidewater terminus of the proposed Ajo-Gulf of California railroad.

The bay is specified in a concession that has been given the New Cornelia Copper Company to build from the international line to the gulf, through Northwestern Sonora and Northeastern Lower California, for the bay is an indentation of the western gulf shore. Thus is indicated that a bridge will be provided across the mouth of the Colorado River, well within Mexican territory.

It now is proposed to also build a direct automobile road from Ajo to one of the two eastern ports named, and a survey of the route now is in progress, as reported to the Pima County Highway Commission. There is assurance that the Mexican end of the road will be built through the Altar district by the Mexican Federal government.

MEMBERSHIP GAINED BY PRESS ASSOCIATION

FOREIGN PAPER IS SELLING CHEAPER THAN DOMESTIC SUPPLY, IS REPORT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Fifty-five new members were voted into the Inland Daily Press Association today. The membership of the association now is 250.

The report of a committee appointed to investigate the newsprint situation was read by H. J. Pape of Waterbury, Ct., chairman, who stated that indications are promising of a softening market.

Imported paper, the supply of which from Sweden and Germany is increasing, can be sold for only 8 cents a pound, and is of slightly better quality than domestic grades selling at 12 cents, the report said.

ENGLISH BUILD MORE SHIPS THAN AMERICA.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Shipbuilding in the United States, which led that of England by 1,921,000 gross tons early this year, has fallen behind in the quarter ended September 30 by 1,959,000 gross tons, according to figures made public today by Lloyd's register of shipping.

The United States, however, the report said, continues to produce more than twice as much tonnage in oil tankers as all other countries combined. There are in progress of construction in this country twenty-nine tankers, with a gross tonnage of 545,302, as compared with thirty-five vessels of this type, representing 232,758 tons, in all other countries.

RED CROSS HELPING FAMINE-STRUCK CHINA

RELIEF WORK WELL UNDER WAY; AMERICANS PROVIDE PLANTING SEED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Red Cross relief work is well under way in the districts of China where famine exists, the State Department was advised today by the American Legation at Peking.

The control of Red Cross funds is under the direction of American civil and military engineers who have volunteered to help in meeting the problem in China. A consortium committee, under the leadership of Dr. Grey of the British Legation, has provided seed for planting and food for the starving inhabitants, efforts being specially directed toward feeding the women and children of the famine-stricken areas.

IMMIGRANTS OFFERED HUNDREDS OF JOBS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Hundreds of letters from manufacturers, coal operators, railway managers, farmers and other employers of labor were received at Ellis Island today offering jobs to immigrants.

The letters were sent as a result of the activities of the newly organized Bureau of Immigration Distribution, which is seeking to place immigrants in American industry.

Yankee Gets Heavy Sentence.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 19.—Guy Davis of Charleston, S. C., one of the Americans convicted of having stolen goods from the American organization for relief in the Near East, has been sentenced to four years' imprisonment at hard labor. Four others received sentences ranging from three months to two years, but with the option of paying fines. Charles Dolan and William Murray, two of the defendants, were acquitted.

SNOWFALL ADDS TO STATE WATER SUPPLY.

SOUTHLAND'S HEAVY PRECIPITATION FEATURE OF THIS WEEK'S STORM.

While the back ranges of the Sierra Madre Mountains in Southern California are lightly mantled with snow the fall in the past two days in the central and northern parts of the State has covered the peaks to a depth of thirty-four inches in places, giving promise of great relief to agriculturists who have suffered by a dry spell of four years' duration, the United States Weather Bureau announced at San Francisco yesterday. The fall was two feet thick at Summit, Sierra county, at 5 p.m. yesterday, with every indication that it would last at least twelve hours longer, the bureau reported. Four inches fell yesterday. The storm has reached Utah and Colorado.

The fall, with rains throughout the State, will have the effect of raising depressed water tables and making it possible for future rains to fill depleted streams and reservoirs, the bureau said. A characteristic of the storm was heavy rainfall in Southern California yesterday and last night. Two inches fell on Mt. Wilson in the twenty-four hours ending at 5 a.m. yesterday. Colder weather, with the possibility of frosts, is promised for the valleys tomorrow.

High winds, hail and snow marked the storm in the San Bernardino section yesterday. Last night there was six inches of snow at the crest of the mountains and eight inches in Bear Valley. General snowfall was reported in the hill regions in the afternoon. Rain and hail in the San Bernardino Valley were driven by a stiff, cold north wind. At Fontana the precipitation was 1.23 inches.

Following are official figures for the rain at various points:

| | Storm. | Season. | Last season. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Glendale | .36 | .42 | 2.75 |
| Santa Ana | .47 | .74 | 1.45 |
| Eagle Rock | .19 | .46 | 1.35 |

As a result of a ruling of U. S. District Judge Trippet that all confiscated liquor, except that needed as exhibits in pending cases, should be destroyed, a dozen barrels and kegs of wine were poured into the gutter in front of the Federal Building at noon yesterday while hundreds of thirsty ones looking on. Deputy U. S. Marshal Blakeley acted as chief high executioner.

SHOW GIRLS TO AID ORPHAN HOME DRIVE.

ORPHEUM PARTY TO CANVASS TERMINAL MARKET TODAY IN QUEST OF GIFTS.

To aid the big drive of the Los Angeles Orphans' home, now in progress, and to increase its store of goods, the women in charge of the headquarters, 721 South Olive street, have asked the girls at the Orpheum to make a visit to the terminal market this morning, there to gather in wholesale such gifts as may be offered.

And the girls have undertaken the task.

They will leave the Orpheum in automobiles at 10 o'clock. Along will go Neal Abel to announce the purpose of the visit. The party will go direct to the wholesale terminal in East Seventh street, and will spend all the time necessary thoroughly to canvass the market, from entrance to exit. No firm will be overlooked and no gift will be refused. There will be three cars along, but if the gifts fill them, there will be no hesitancy in commandeering any market truck that may be about. The one idea of the girls will be to "get the goods," and they will take anything from a bushel of apples to a ton of coal, from an avocado to a barrel of potatoes.

The Orphan's home is nonsectarian and is supported wholly by gifts. It has felt the rise in prices of everything keenly. Its purpose in this drive is to secure itself for the winter, and it is accepting any gifts that are made.

The Los Angeles Orphans' Home is at 815 El Centro street and visitors are always welcome. "We want you to see how the children live and are cared for in their daily lives" is what all the directors of the home say to the many friends who are constantly and generously befriending the children.

SUPREME COURT HEARS CITY BOND ARGUMENT.

VALIDITY OF POWER HANDLING AGREEMENT AND ELECTION BOTH QUESTIONED.

Validity of an "operating agreement" between the city and the Southern California Edison Company, providing for the furnishing of power to the Edison company, by the city for the purpose of preventing duplication, was argued yesterday before the State Supreme Court. The point to be decided is whether the city had the right to enter into such an agreement.

Mrs. Mary Rideout, said to be an employee of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, contested the election of 1919 on the ground that the power bonds involved could be carried only by a two-thirds majority of all votes cast, the city taking the position that two-thirds cast for the one question sufficed.

Another case submitted to the court yesterday involved the city election of that year, William Mead, a real estate man, charges that when the people voted in favor of a bond issue for power purposes there should have appeared on the ballot a separate issue for voters, distinct from that used by the State and county election.

The court handed down an opinion yesterday reversing the judgment of the Superior Court of San Diego county, in the suit brought by Blanche M. Whiteman against the city of San Diego to quiet title of the plaintiff to property against which liens had been created for the improvement of Ohio street, and also to enjoin the issuance of bonds for such assessment made upon plaintiff's adjoining land for the improvement of the street. The lower court had found for the city.

ON FRAUD INDICTMENT.

Realty Man Charged with Showing Good Land, Giving Locators Bad.

T. M. Anderson, a real estate man with an office at 235 South Hill street, faced a jury in U. S. District Judge Trippet's court yesterday on a grand jury indictment, charging fraud in connection with government land locations.

It is stated by agents of the Department of the Interior that about twenty-five different persons invested in the Anderson scheme. One witness testified yesterday that he gave the realty man a mortgage for $480 on land between here and the beach for locating him on 320 acres of land that afterwards proved not to be the property he had been shown, but a worthless tract in a sandstone ridge north of the supposed location.

A strenuous denial of fraud is made by Anderson, who asserts that the locaters knew exactly what they were to get when they made the entries at the El Centro Land Office. MUST

FITZGERALD WAS SUICIDE, VERDICT

Military Court Finds in Case of Hunger Striker.

Stop Irish Volunteers from Marching at Funeral.

Government to Proceed With Home Rule Bill.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CORK, Oct. 19.—The verdict rendered today by the military court of inquiry into the death of Michael Fitzgerald, the first of the hunger strikers to die in Cork jail, was that "deceased, of sound mind, deliberately caused his own existence to end, and did feloniously kill himself."

The governor of the jail testified that Fitzgerald took flo food for sixty-eight days. Dr. Pearson, one of the jail physicians, testified that death was due to the gradual cessation of the vital functions caused by prolonged abstinence from all forms of nourishment.

The condition of the other hunger strikers has become worse as the result of depression caused by the death of Fitzgerald.

Severe collapses were suffered by two of the strikers early today.

MILITARY GUARD COFFIN.

To prevent Irish volunteers from marching in the funeral procession of Fitzgerald when his body was removed today from the church here to Fermoy, a large military force surrounded the church and six lorry loads of soldiers and an armored car fell in behind the mourners' carriages following the coffin. Great indignation was expressed among the people.

DRAMATIC SCENE.

A dramatic scene was enacted in the church just before the removal of Fitzgerald's body. The requiem mass was being celebrated when an army officer with drawn revolver, accompanied by four soldiers with rifles, forced a way through the throng in the entrance, marched up to the alter rail and presented the officiating priest with a typewritten communication from Great Headquarters stating that the number of persons in the funeral procession must be limited to 100, none of whom would be allowed to march in military formation.

BODY REACHES FERMOY.

FERMOY (Ireland) Oct. 19.—The funeral party bringing the body of Michael Fitzgerald to Fermoy, his home town, arrived here late today. The coffin was escorted by a large crowd to the church from which the burial will take place tomorrow.

The priest of the parish church has been notified by the military that the number of persons attending the funeral must be limited.

BABY MURDER VICTIM; SOLDIER FATHER HELD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

COBOURG (Ont.) Oct. 19.—George Albert Hines, 3 years old, whose body was found yesterday in the woods near here, was murdered, according to the verdict of the Coroner's jury.

Albert Hines, shell-shocked Canadian soldier, and father of the boy, is in the Cobourg jail on a charge of attempted suicide pending a further investigation into the death of the child.

CASH POURS INTO BOURBON FUND.

Money Coming in at Rate of Close to Thirty Thousand Dollars a Day Now.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Anyone who has sold goods to the Democratic National Committee and not yet received payment may now set the worrying machine to work on something else. From being probably the world's most indigent political organization the Democratic National Committee is becoming modestly if not ostentatiously self-supporting.

Money is coming in at a rate close to $30,000 a day. It is coming in so fast and in so many envelopes that it takes twenty-five young women to handle it. Yesterday 7000 letters brought $33,461.02. The "matching the President" fund alone totals $27,000.

Italian Police Discover Plots of Anarchists.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MILAN (Italy) Oct. 19.—The police have gathered evidence demonstrating that two anarchists have been planning a series of terroristic attacks on different populaces here. About 130 anarchists have been arrested.

The Avanti, the radical organ, says today:

"The final clash approaches. Be morally and materially ready to employ force. Have the Red Guards arrest our newspapers and organizations. Let us answer arms with violence; an eye for an eye; a tooth for a tooth."

The radical leaders, Serrati and Gennri, have gone to Berlin to attend a Bolshevik meeting at which Mr. Zinoviev, the Russian bolshevik is to be presented, and at which it is said to be intended to arrange common action for a Communist revolution throughout Europe.

ELECTION BETS FEW; ODDS ASKED TOO HIGH.

LITTLE MONEY GOING UP IN EAST; DEMOCRATS WARY AS TO RESULT.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Apparently men who frequent the financial section of New York are pretty thoroughly convinced that the coming national election is not a betting proposition. There are plenty of Republicans willing to stake their money on the election of Senator Harding, but the supporters of Gov. Cox have too little confidence to make it interesting. The latter are now demanding odds of 7 or 8 to 5, and the Republicans think this is too top-heavy to be interesting.

So far not more than $150,000 has been placed, according to Darnell & Co., and most of this was wagered within a short while after the nominations were made and at odds of 2 to 1. Since the campaign has developed there have been few actual wagers, and most of these on pluralities.

MURDER OF STUDENT HAS POLICE BALKED.

ALL THEORIES ABANDONED; SLAIN YOUTH'S CHUM IS IN THE DARK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—The circumstances surrounding the death of Elmer C. Drewes, slain Dartmouth College senior, tonight remained as shrouded in mystery as when his body was found with a bullet through the temple, according to the police, who have abandoned all theories in the absence of any definite clew.

Charles Schloss, 21-year-old chum of Drewes, arrived today from New York, but could throw no light on the movements of his friend after he had left him in Atlantic City at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Schloss said Drewes seemed to have something on his mind at the time and seemed very quiet. Schloss told the authorities he does not believe a girl figured in the case.

DOWNTOWN HOLD-UPS.

Youthful Bandits in Stolen Auto Rob Oil Station and Man.

Three youthful bandits operating in a stolen automobile held up two men in the downtown district last night and escaped with $50. The first victim was B. Pickard of 133 South Fremont avenue, who operates the Standard Oil Company's station at East Ninth street and Santa Fe avenue. Entering his station, two of the bandits "covered" him with revolvers while the third took $40 from the cash register. They then fled. At West Third street and Bunker Hill avenue, the bandits robbed Edwin Lucas of $21 South Bunker Hill avenue, of $10 and a watch.

"STOP" MEANS STOP.

Ask Council to Change Traffic Law to Promote Safety.

Declaring that life and limb are endangered by autoists who speed up to pass street cars that are slowing down for a stop, the Council is to be asked today by its Public Safety Committee to amend the traffic regulations to make such action an offense against the law.

Under the present regulation, autoists must stop behind a standing car, but many of them in their eagerness to save a minute speed up when they see a car is about to come to a stop. The result is that many injuries from this cause have been reported lately.

Greeters to Meet.

At a meeting of charter No. 30, Greeters of Southern California, at noon tomorrow at 617 South Spring street, the subject of "How Shall a Hotel Man Advertise?" will be discussed by J. D. Minster, Willis M. Ames, John P. Dunn, A. L. Wright, C. W. Heyl and W. W. Whidman.

LIKES LIQUOR OF JAILED MAN.

Accused Brewmaster Handed Compliment by Camel Campaigner.

Gordon McLain may or may not be appreciative, but Prohibition Officer O'Leary is praising his liquor.

As McLain is in the County Jail, having been lodged there yesterday afternoon on a brewing charge by O'Leary, he may look upon the camel campaigner's compliment as sort of left-handed praise.

According to the story told U. S. Commissioner Long by O'Leary, when McLain and Mary Gordon, said to be his mother, were arraigned, he found three kettles of brandy in the making on the stove at the McLain home, 901 East Fifty-seventh street, when he called rather unexpectedly. He also found, he stated, a gallon of brandy, which he pronounced the best he had yet found in his crusade for the Saraha statute, 600 gallons of peach and corn mash mixed and a still.

McLain was held on $1000 bond. That of Mary Gordon was fixed at $500.

BONDS BRING PREMIUM.

Offer of a premium of $4515 on a block of $150,000 worth of school bonds of the Montebello school district won an award of the securities for the National City Company when bids were opened yesterday by the Board of Supervisors. The bonds pay 6 per cent.

SUSPEND PATROLMAN.

Patrolman Henry R. Boehm, who was arrested on a charge of assaulting Mrs. Marie Zeckendorn of 1407 Pleasant avenue, was yesterday ordered suspended by the Board of Police Commissioners.

The Cantilever Shoe

Two Feet of Happiness

It is a recognized medical fact (ask your doctor) that bad shoes hurt the feet, and the harm may extend to other parts of the body.

Foot-ache is often the precursor of backache, pains in the calves of the legs, diseases of the blood vessels of the lower limbs, headache, and in extreme cases trouble of the eyes and brain.

Many women can wear ordinary shoes with sharp toes and French heels and perhaps never suffer these harmful effects. But the majorit of women today are following the new style—sensibly shaped lasts, with toe room and comfort, medium heels.

A good-looking and properly shaped shoe like the Cantilever Shoe will permit you to dress becomingly and will add to your store of good health.

Cantilever Shoes will be a treat to your feet and above all are very stylish.

DENTON SHOT TO DEATH IN KITCHEN OF HOME.

New Evidence Points Way to Early Indictment and Arrest; Story Imputed to Mrs. Peete is Discredited.

J. C. Denton was murdered by being shot with a revolver while sitting at a table in the kitchen of his home, at 675 South Catalina street, some time before noon of June 2. The crime was a deliberate, premeditated slaying, with robbery as a motive. Immediately after the murder his body was dragged with a rope about the neck to the basement, where it was tied with ropes, wrapped in a quilt and covered with the dirt taken there for that purpose and with the oilcloth off the kitchen table.

This is the theory of the Denton murder mystery adopted by the investigating officials yesterday following the discovery by them of the last few links of evidence necessary to complete their case. It followed the sensational story imputed to Mrs. R. C. Peete, the central figure in the investigation, in which details of the supposed manner of the slaying of the wealthy mining man by the "mysterious Spanish woman" and a man accomplice were related to Detective Charles A. Jones, one of the officers on the case. This story the officers discredit because of a dozen grave discrepancies in it, but certain points in it, they declare, probably are literally true.

WILL INDICT.

An indictment charging murder in the first degree is expected to be returned as soon as the grand jury can hear the evidence now waiting to be presented to it. Chief Dep. Dist.-Atty. Doran and Raymond I. Turney, his assistant, said they feel confident the Denton murder will be solved beyond a doubt.

NEW EVIDENCE.

In support of the announcement that Denton was murdered by being shot in his own kitchen the following facts were brought to light yesterday:

A large clot of blod was found dried and matted under the linoleum in the kitchen, a few feet away from the door leading to the basement where the body was found September 22.

A revolver, with one exploded shell, was found by the police in the clothes closet on the second floor of the Denton house. This closet, the officers say, contained the clothes and personal belongings of Mrs. Peete. Her explanation was that after Denton had disappeared she moved her things into the closet to save space. The revolver, the police say, was Denton's property.

The oilcloth found wrapped around the body was identified by Mrs. Paul R. Aumont as being taken from the kitchen table.

Working on the theory that Denton was shot, and that the bullet is still in the body, the officials asked Dr. A. F. Wagner, county autopsy surgeon, to make an X-ray examination of the body. This will be done today.

The visit to the Denton house also gave the officials another item of evidence which they characterized as of great importance. They clothed this evidence with more secrecy than any of the other clews brought to light. It is understood that this evidence is conclusive.

The discovery of the blood clot under the linoleum came as the result of a trip to the house by Deputies Doran and Turney and Detectives Hickok, Jones and Cantu. A thorough examination of the premises failed to show any bullet holes, the officers say.

It also was learned by The Times last night that the authorities have found a man who will testify that he heard a shot in the Denton home on the morning of June 2. The identity of this witness is being carefully guarded.

The new story of the murder is said to have been told by Mrs. Peete to Detective Jones and one other person at the La Crescenta hotel last Saturday. Biarne Castberg, Mrs. Peete's lawyer, at the Athletic Club last night denied that his client had made such a statement, calling attention to the fact that she has previously said she saw Denton alive in July. He declared Mrs. Peete does not know who killed Denton and said he has nothing to say as to what she will do next. Mr. Castberg had an interview with his client at the La Crescenta hotel last Saturday.

THE STORY.

In this statement Mrs. Peete was reported as saying that the reason she had kept Mrs. Ida L. Gregory, her Denver friend, away from the Denton home until after the June 2 was that Denton had a quarrel with a Spanish woman whom he and she were harboring in the house; that at 4 o'clock in the morning she heard a shot in the room in which Denton and the woman were at the time; that she rushed into the room and, finding that Denton had shot the Spanish woman in the shoulder; that while she was trying to dress the wound Denton dressed and went out of the house; that later the Spanish woman telephoned to an unnamed man, who came out to the Denton house and, together with the Spanish woman, waited for Denton; that when Denton returned the woman and the unknown man killed him.

An essential part of the witness' story was that while dressing the wound for the Spanish woman she caused the bullet in her shoulder to fall out into the wash basin and from there into the plumbing trap under the basin.

A search for this bullet was made by the detectives but, according to their statement last night, it was not found in the trap of the wash basin or any other pipe fixture in the house.

A significant feature of the story is that no details of the actual slaying are given and that nothing concerning the identity of the man said to have figured in the crime was offered. Nothing touching on the actual disposal of the body or the reason why it was allowed to remain in the house for more than three months was given in the statement, investigators say. Further, why did not the witness immediately notify the authorities of the crime? She is said to have declared she wished to protect Denton's good name.

Another important point is the fact that if Denton was killed on June 2 by the Spanish woman and an unknown man, he could not have met Mrs. Peete downtown June 5 and June 9, the dates of the two checks for $750 to Mrs. Peete's credit and cashed by her, nor in the middle of July, when she said she saw Denton on the street without his right arm. In this connection it is also pointed out that if the story of the slaying, as credited to Mrs. Peete, is correctly reported, her statement to many witnesses that Mr. Denton had gone to Seattle and to Missouri, that he was married and that he was staying away for reasons best known to himself are a direct contradiction of her version of the slaying.

All efforts to get Mrs. Peete's version of the story as credited to her, or her explanations of the apparent discrepancies in it or in her earlier accounts of Denton's disappearance, were of no avail last night. "Mr. and Mrs. Peete expressed their wish not to answer any questions to reporters," was the reply to all callers at the La Crescenta Hotel last night.

CHRONOLOGY OF CASE.

Following is the remarkable chronology of the Denton murder case:

May 25—Mrs. Peete sees Denton's "for rent" ad in The Times.

May 26—She closes deal to rent his house.

May 29—Mrs. Gregory and daughter visit house.

May 30—Mrs. Peete goes with Denton and his relatives on beach picnic.

May 31—Mrs. Gregory told by Mrs. Peete not to come to house. Denton plans long trip East, beginning June 2.

BITTER TILT IN FLOWERS TRIAL.

Ex-President of Motor Club Admits He Shot a Man.

Convicted, Pardoned, States Fraud Case Defendant.

Prosecutor Questions Word; Torrid Scene Ensues.

The trial of J. M. Flowers, former president of the Automobile Club of America International, on a charge of obtaining money from Richard Rinker by false pretenses, developed a flurry in Judge Houser's court yesterday. Under the direct examination of Capt. Helms, his counsel, Mr. Flowers related his dealings with Mr. Rinker involving the sale of a half interest in a printing shop. Mr. Rinker asserts he paid $1000 in cash and personal property for the half interest, only to discover that Mr. Flowers did not own the interest he was disposing of.

Mr. Flowers declared that he had negotiated with J. W. Martin, owner of the printing shop, and had deeded a lot and was preparing to pay over $500 for the half interest. He believed that the negotiations were closed.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Clark, conducting the prosecution, sharply cross-examined Mr. Flowers. During the course of the examination, the transcript of the court reporter shows, Mr. Clark asked:

GUILTY OF SHOOTING.

"Have you ever been convicted of a felony?"

"Are you going to convict me of that here?"

"Have you been convicted of a felony?"

"Yes, sir; I was convicted of shooting a man that tried to shoot me; I was pardoned."

Capt. Helms, counsel for Mr. Flowers, asked the witness:

"Where were you convicted of a felony?"

"Nearly forty years ago in the State of Kansas."

"What was the felony for which you were convicted?"

"Assault with intent to kill."

"After the conviction of that felony——"

"I was, pardoned."

"Just a moment," interrupted Mr. Clark. "I move to strike that out as an absolutely untrue statement, and the witness knows it."

Capt. Helms objected vigorously to the statement of Mr. Clark and asked that the jury be instructed to disregard it.

"I am sick," said Mr. Flowers; "don't you aggravate me. You have intimidated me and you have assaulted my wife and me, and don't go any farther, because I can't stand it."

"You know that this statement was all absolutely false," said Mr. Clark.

QUESTION OF ARMS.

Judge Houser took a hand at this stage and said he did not want any more of this kind of conduct. He excused the jury temporarily, and turning to Mr. Flowers, he stated:

"I can't put up with this, Mr. Flowers. You insinuated that he assaulted you in some manner. Have you a pistol on your person?"

"No, sir," replied the witness.

"Have you any weapon upon your person at all?"

"No, sir."

"You are sure of that, are you?"

"Yes, sir."

"What did you mean, then, by your statement to him, intimating some assault on you?"

"I meant I would not allow him to call me a liar about a thing that was true; that's what I meant."

"That was the only thing you had in mind?"

"Yes, sir. Your Honor—"

Interrupting the witness, the court admonished Mr. Clark, saying:

"It will not do to state what the witness said was an untrue statement, as it is equivalent to calling a man a liar."

PROSECUTOR PATIENT.

Mr. Clark said the court was entitled to an apology, adding:

"I think Your Honor will admit I have been very patient with this defendant."

"It is possible that you have had to put up with a great deal."

The court added that they were there to get at the true state of facts. The jury was recalled, and instructed to disregard Mr. Clark's statement.

Capt. Helms asked Mr. Flowers if he was pardoned by the Governor of Kansas. Mr. Clark objected to this question and Mr. Flowers was asked:

"Have you a pardon from the Governor of Kansas?"

"I did have; I haven't it now," was the witness's reply.

He declared he destroyed it many years ago.

"It was a full and free pardon for having shot Morris R. Ford in a gun duel," he said.

A number of witnesses were called to testify to the truth, honesty and integrity of Mr. Flowers. Joe E. Palmer and Jesse C. Lowry had known him for a long time. Mr. Lowry had been employed by him and stated that he never worked for a better man. Other witnesses called by Capt. Helms in Mr. Flowers's behalf were F. C. Hoyt, T. R. Brown, J. F. Beach and H. M. Avery. It is expected that the testimony will close today.

Bank Official Remembers Giving Money to Man on Trial.

Charging that Joseph Decker, alias E. B. Chandler, accused of forgery of a letter of credit in order to get $12,500 from a local bank, had also obtained $500 by similar means from the Citizens Trust and Savings Bank, Orra Monnette, president of the institution, testified yesterday at Decker's hearing before Justice Brown. Mr. Monnette partly identified the defendant, as did other witnesses. The case was continued until the 27th inst. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hill is prosecuting the case.

Samuel M. Shortridge Speaking at His Front-Porch Meeting Yesterday.

REALTY BOARD TACKLES CITY'S HOME SHORTAGE.

Will Discuss Means to Further Building and to Encourage Employers to Aid in Housing Workers.

Aroused over the shortage of living quarters in Los Angeles, which is becoming more acute daily with the arrival of hundreds of tents, the governing board of the Realty Board will hold a special meeting tomorrow to consider the problem.

Although dwellings have been going up at the rate of more than 500 each month for the past half-year, building has not kept pace with the increase in homeseekers and the Realty Board intends applying its best thoughts and energy to ways and means of stimulating home building.

It is understood that at tomorrow's meeting an effort will be made to devise ways of taking care of second mortgages which might be given by prospective builders of homes. Investigations made by the Realty Board and Chamber of Commerce show that the difficulty in the placing of second mortgages has been one of the stumbling blocks in the path of home building here.

Tomorrow the members of the governing board will try to crystallize the willingness of the owners of Los Angeles industrial plants to help their employees into a definite program, the result of which will be the construction of many homes by the workers.

ONLY ONE WAY OPEN.

At present an employee with a few hundred dollars can negotiate a loan with a large establishment by which he is employed by giving a first mortgage on the house he intends building. His savings and the loan from his employers, however, make an insufficient total to see him through the construction of a permanent, respectable home. He needs more money and the only way to raise it is by means of a second mortgage.

Up to the present, difficulty has been experienced in placing second mortgages on houses still in dreamland. In perhaps a majority of cases it has been practically impossible to place them. After many months of considering the subject, men who have at heart the interest of Los Angeles and the workers attracted have realized they have been traveling in a circle and invariably coming back to the second-mortgage obstacle.

It is hoped that as a result of tomorrow's meeting the nucleus of an organization for handling second mortgages, and thus offering inducements and encouragement to home builders, will be formed not only as a money-making business, perhaps with some hazards, but as a civic proposition as well.

Consideration has been given this matter by the members of the City and Municipal Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce recently and it is understood they have made considerable progress in interesting industrial plant owners in lending the maximum amount, consistent with good business, to those of their employees who want to build homes.

NEWCOMERS IN GAME.

Local realtors and landlords are resenting the aspersions cast upon Los Angeles by complainants against rent profiteering in this city. Investigation has shown that most of the profiteering is being done by newcomers and not by the old established real estate firms or property owners who have lived here for many years. The assertion is made that tourists now coming to Los Angeles, and permanent residents of the city, are being made to suffer because of the activity of men and women who came here as tourists themselves within the past two years when the excessive rents first attracted attention.

The Realty Board has records of repeated resales of apartment-houses, flats and large residences used as rooming-houses. The most glaring instance of such pyramiding was in the case of one apartment-house which changed hands nine times within four recent months and practically every new purchaser added something on to the tenants' rent.

Many tourists who have been in Los Angeles less than a year are known to be deriving incomes ranging from $250 to $3000 a month on apartment-houses. Their system is to raise the rents until they cannot squeeze any more money from the tenants, sell the lease and furniture for twice as much as they paid and then purchase another lease on a furnished apartment-house and immediately raise the rents there.

The stigma, however, rests upon Los Angeles as a city, and local real estate men are being accused of rent gouging. They point to the fact that there are hundreds of instances in which rents on property owned by Los Angeles residents have remained practically stationary, and that in a majority of cases where rents have been increased improvements were made on the property or the supply of houses was so much smaller than the demand that a moderate increase was thoroughly justified.

The Housing Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce did a land office business yesterday and was able to find homes for a majority of the applicants. As on previous days recently, a number of persons who had been holding their apartments, rooms or houses for excessive rents, and therefore were not listed by the bureau, signified a willingness to take less money. While the number of homeseekers is still largely in excess of the number of available living quarters it seems to be evident that the newcomers positively will not pay what they regard as exorbitant rents and in some cases have announced their intention of returning home and taking their furniture East with them before submitting to disproportionate rental charges.

The new hotel for women, which will be conducted by the Council of Community Service at Playa del Rey, will be opened Saturday, and if registrations indicate that the housing problem is sufficiently acute to warrant the project, five or six other hotel units will be opened in sections in and near the heart of the city.

The Playa del Rey establishment will accommodate fifty women, and will supply room and board for $7 a week. A special commutation rate of 15 cents each way has been granted by the Pacific Electric Company. The venture is not a charity, but will be self-supporting, and is designed solely to help make the housing and rent situation less acute.

Accommodations will be for two persons in each room, but single beds will be furnished, and women who work in the city will be given lunches to bring with them without extra charge. The establishment will have a reception room, with a piano, and a room for dancing.

Registrations may be made at the headquarters of the Council of Community Service, Room 215, Coulter Building at 213 South Broadway, or by telephoning to the council over the City Hall exchange.

DANA SLEETH IS MISSING.

PORTLAND (Or.) Oct. 19.—Dana Sleeth, former editor of the Los Angeles Record, has mysteriously dropped from sight and a Coast-wide search which is being conducted has failed to develop any trace of him. Although the family and Portland police have been quietly investigating since his disappearance since it occurred three weeks ago no public announcement that he was missing was made until tonight.

Mr. Sleeth was last seen three weeks ago today when he was in Portland from his farm near Scappoose, Or. He was arrested for reckless driving, appeared at the police station the next morning and then dropped from sight. Five days later an automobile truck which he had been driving was found in a suburban garage, where Mr. Sleeth had left it for repairs.

Mrs. Sleeth and their daughter are now living with his mother, Mrs. Mattie Sleeth, in Portland.

"My son has been working hard on special editorial work for a syndicate of newspapers and it is possible that he had become temporarily unbalanced," said Mrs. Mattie Sleeth tonight.

PORCH GREETING UNIQUE TRIUMPH

Shortridge and Stephens Get Notable Reception.

Social and Business Leaders Crowd to Foltz Home.

Campaign Issues Outlined by Republican Orators.

In the presence of a notable group of Republicans at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, 153 South Normandie avenue, Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for the United States Senate, yesterday issued a call to the voters of California to elect Harding and Coolidge and a solid Republican delegation to Congress, that the nation for the next four years may overcome the halting uncertainty of the Democratic administration and move forward to a long period of prosperity under Republican leadership. The meeting, arranged on the front porch of the Foltz home, was unique in its bearing on the State and national campaigns. The crowd which assembled to greet Mr. Shortridge included many men and women prominent in the business and social life of Southern California.

Many of the audience heard the eloquent addresses of Mr. Shortridge, Gov. Stephens, who shared the honors of the occasion with the distinguished Republican Senatorial candidate; Edwin A. Meserve, Congressman Osborne, former Senator Frank P. Flint, Charles Van de Water, Republican candidate for Congress from the Ninth District; Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, president of the Republican Women's Study Club, and Mrs. Foltz.

SUPPORT PLEDGED.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Foltz, who called upon California's womanhood to help in the election of the Republican ticket and read a number of telegrams from prominent Republicans in other parts of the State pledging their support to Mr. Shortridge. Mr. Meserve, who presided, paid a high tribute to Mr. Shortridge as representing the best type of American character. He referred to Mrs. Foltz as a woman who, by her long fight for suffrage in California, is entitled to the respect of the nation.

Mr. Meserve's opening reference to "Not only can we today foresee an overwhelming victory for Harding and Coolidge in November," he declared, "but every sign on the political horizon points certainly to the election of Mr. Shortridge and the Republican candidates for the lower house of Congress.

"We must rid this country of its present one-man government. We must return to government of council and consideration. President Wilson has insisted on a government by one man—that man himself. He has invited neither counsel nor co-operation from any one else. In contrast to this, Senator Harding, whose election in my opinion is a foregone conclusion, has pledged himself to take the

PROPERTY LAW HIT AS UNJUST.

Chief of Hotel Men Opposes Proposition Thirteen.

Do Women Want to Take Half of Debt Burden, He Asks.

Separate Estate of Man Now Liable, Wife's Exempt.

Lee Holladay, president of the Hotel Men's Association, has written to the California Protective Property League to develop a phase of the community property law argument being advanced by the women who are advocating the adoption of this measure at the November election.

"You know," says Mr. Holladay, "this law gives the wife a right to will half of the community property to lineal descendants, a right which the proponents of the measure claim is justified by reason of the marital partnership.

"If that contention is sound, it follows that the wife must be willing to accept half of the burdens and responsibilities. For the purpose of the argument I propose to pass over the fact thatthe law compels the husband and father to maintain the home and support the family, an obligation which continues after the death of the wife, but which, at least in so far as it applies to support and maintainence, does not apply to the wife during life.

"Aside from that detail let us assume the case of a man and woman, each with a $10,000 separate estate at the time of marriage. Let us suppose further that during the course of a dozen years, community property has been accumulated to the value of $10,000 additional.

"A period of business depression comes along. Times are hard. The ends do not come together. Bills fall due and must be met by the husband. No obligation of any kind rests upon the wife or her property. Finally the crash comes and the business fails. The community property is liable for the obligations, which, let us say, exceed the assets by $10,000.

"In such a case, do you realize that every dollar of that man's separate estate is made automatically available for the benefit of the community creditors, and that not one dollar of the wife's separate estate may be touched for that or any other purpose?

"Not much of a fifty-fifty deal there, it seems to me, and I would like to inquire of the women who are so enthusiastic for the success of this proposition if they are willing to stand for a law which will wipe out their personal, separate estates to cover community obligations?

"The wife now gets her half of the community property in the event of the death of her husband, which is as it should be, and the records show that almost 100 per cent of the men who leave widows will them all of their separate estates as well, but the responsibility of financing and operating the community business, and the risk of loss of his entire property in the event of catastrophe, should entitle the husband to a right to dispose of his half; not a half, either, for out of it must come all the expenses of probate settlement."

"If the present law is not equitable, let us get one that is, but that one is not proposition No. 13. Not by a jugful. There is nothing equitable about that, and I hope it will be defeated by the combined votes of the men and the women of the State of California."

ARGUES GAS RISE WILL MEAN SAVING.

UTILITY WOULD BOOST RATES TO INDUSTRIES; DOMESTIC USERS NOT AFFECTED.

Declaring that it is enabling industrial consumers in the inland districts to save large sums of money, the Southern Counties Gas Company appeared before the State Railroad Commission yesterday for hearing of its application for permission to increase industrial gas rates between 35 and 40 per cent in the Monrovia, Pomona and Orange county districts.

The company explained that it is spending $121,000 for betterment of transmission facilities and declared that an increase in industrial rates will be necessary to take care of heavy operating expenses. It stressed the point that if the industrial consumers are compelled to generate their power with distillate, now worth 17 cents per gallon, it will cost $1.90 for the equivalent of 1000 cubic feet, whereas the company is now providing gas at an average cost of 44 cents per 1000 cubic feet.

Should the rate increase be granted it will not disturb domestic rates in these districts, but will increase the cost of gas for pumping plants, laundries, foundries, packing-houses, bakeries, restaurants, water works and all manufacturing enterprises.

PLAN ANOTHER ZONE.

This One is for Place Where Insane and Nervous are Treated.

A plan suggested yesterday by its health and sanitation committee to create a zone inside of which will be located all of the city's hospitals and sanitariums for the care and treatment of the insane and of patients suffering from mental and nervous diseases is to be considered by the Council.

The proposed zone is bounded by Figueroa, Pico and Alameda streets and Los Angeles River.

The committee has received protests from property owners in residential districts against the location of sanitariums for the insane in their neighborhoods, and a number of applications for hospitals have been rejected. The zone embraces a large part of the downtown and industrial districts.

Public presentation by Mayor Snyder of bronze medals of honor for valor and heroism will be made to four city firemen at the City Hall at 11 a.m. tomorrow. Four hundred members of the fire department and the Fire Department Band will take part in the ceremony on the steps of the City Hall.

The members of the department to receive the medals are Capt. E. A. Gripp of Engine Company No. 24; Lieut. H. J. Griffin of Engine Company No. 23; Fireman R. E. Tuttle of Engine Company No. 19, and Fireman Mario Scarabosio of the harbor district.

100 Imported Beaded Bags at $24.75

(War Tax $1.73)

—Bullock's has never, heretofore, had the fortune to find such beautiful beaded bags to sell at $24.75—plus war tax of $1.73.

—The beads used are the small, fine ones, and every bead has been knitted into the bags, some of which are little, and some great bags, gay with roses, forget-me-nots and other posies.

—There are not more than two of a style—that is, if the designs are the same in several bags, the color combinations are different.

—There are very delicately colored bags, white bags with splashes of color in their designs; bags in dark colors with glinting metal beads to give "accents" of prettiness.

—Each bag is finished with crochet top, in the drawing cord style.

—Verily, these bags are worth far more than their price for Wednesday, and it is only because a New York importer was overstocked, and because Bullock's was there, just on time, that the bags are here for your choosing.

—Many of the bags are unlined so that one can see their substantial craftsmanship.

—To be shown for the first time Wednesday. (Note the window display.)

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

For Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt are honor guests today at a luncheon presided over by Mrs. Edwin T. Earl at the California Club. Plates are arranged for a dozen guests around a board beautifully adorned with mixed autumn flowers. Mr. Vanderbilt and his charming little bride, who was Miss Littleton of Tennessee, expect to leave Los Angeles on Friday. They were guests of Mrs. Earl at the premier performance of "Way Down East" on Monday evening. Miss Eleanor MacGowan and Guy Earl also were in the party.

For Admiral Williams.

Vice-Admiral Clarence Williams is to be complimented at a dinner party given on Saturday evening by Mrs. Madison W. Stewart, who is to entertain a company of sixteen.

Musical and Supper Party.

The musical and supper party presided over last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Chester T. Hoag at their home on Hollywood Boulevard was a pleasing event. There was a company of seventy-five. Hugh A. Kelso, pianist, played and Mrs. Alexander Pantages gave some violin selections. R. D. Shepherd, the tragedienne, gave Shakespearean interpretations and W. J. Dodd entertained with humorous readings. The house was elaborately adorned with baskets of dahlias, delphinium, roses and other autumn flowers.

Bridge Luncheon.

Mrs. West Hughes is today a hostess at a luncheon followed by bridge for two tables.

For New Orleans Matron.

An attractive New Orleans matron, Mrs. Louis Abbott, is the motif for a tea being given this afternoon by Miss Mignon Hamilton of 671 South Ardmore avenue, Mrs. Ruth Hamilton is assisting her daughter.

The guests are Mmes. Edward E. Eisenhauer, Jr., E. G. Howard, H. H. Brown, Hosmer A. Johnson, John Daley, Everett James, Laurence Karlson and E. B. Smith, and Misses Harriet Woolwine, Elsie Wright, Carmen Joice, Eleanor Cole, Mary Miles Minter, Elizabeth Darville, Nanette Francisco, Kathrine Wigmore, Marie Collison, Dorothy Cooke, Ellen Andrews, Katherine Pauly, Margaret Malchien, Edith Micheaux and Helen Dake.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Buchanan were hosts at dinner last evening, entertaining a company including Dr. and Mrs. John Hooe Iden, Capt. Willard, Capt. Moffatt, Mrs. Edwin T. Earl, Mrs. Irving Wright and Mr. and Mrs. William K. Thompson. The table was centered with a bowl of pink roses and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Buchanan, who is considered one of the most beautiful young matrons in Los Angeles society, is planning a trip to New York shortly to stay several weeks with her parents.

Miss Strickler.

Miss Katherine Strickler was hostess at a luncheon at the California Club on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Dunn are to preside at a dinner and bridge party on Saturday evening, October 30. There are to be fourteen guests.

Bridge Dinner.

A bridge dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hacker of 1 Chester Place for a company of eighteen.

Motor Parties.

A number of Los Angeles folk motoring to Santa Barbara included Mrs. Flora A. Lewis, George M. Lewis, De Witt A. Lewis, Mrs. Mary A. Morgan, Miss Phalba Morgan and J. P. Morgan. E. L. Scott also was in a party including Mrs. M. Eastin, Miss M. Eastin and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Von Stroheim. They are all at the Ambassador Hotel.

For Miss Phelan.

Miss Mary Phelan of San Francisco, sister of U. S. Senator Phelan, is today honor guest at a tea at which Miss Mary Foy is entertaining at the Mary Louise Tea Room.

Back from Texas.

After a visit in Galveston, Houston and San Antonio, Tex., where she was much entertained, Mrs. Emma Porter Makinson has returned home. She attended the Confederate Veterans' reunion in Houston.

Personals.

Miss Mary Forve, who is visiting friends in San Francisco, is expected home the end of the week.

Miss Alma Zodiac, a fascinating New Orleans girl, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home yesterday.

BEAT THE DRUG GAME
OF
No Exercise—No Diet.
No Artificial Means.

I can convince even the skeptical that my anatomical method for permanently correcting constipation is a certain success. I speak from an experience of over twenty years.

Men, women and children, many of them afflicted for years, using first one thing, then another, always seeking help, only receiving but temporary relief, have adopted my method, and within ten days Nature began to reassert herself, and in 30 days they were natural and regular in this all-important duty, having discarded all drugs, depending entirely upon Nature for elimination.

To you who suffer from this annoying disease-producing condition, if you will call at my office I will show you undeniable proof that you can permanently correct your trouble. My method appeals to all intelligent people—and it is that class of people who appreciate and understand the danger of artificially-produced elimination. They know that one drug leads to another more drastic.

Call today and become enlightened to the end that you will enjoy better health and remove what must be a constant worry from your mind. Milton H. Berry, Physical Educator, 401 Merritt Bldg., Eighth and Broadway.

Wife Departs When Husband Rejects Sect.

When things reached a climax in the home of Henry L. and Jesse D. Cunningham of Long Beach, due to the religious fervor of Mrs. Cunningham, as Mr. Cunningham declared in divorce proceedings before Judge Crail yesterday, she told her husband he would have to decide.

"She told me if I wanted to be with her, I would have to lay everything at the altar," Mr. Cunningham testified.

Mrs. Cunningham, the preacher and another woman did seige to Mr. Cunningham, but he declined to join their religious sect. Mrs. Cunningham left her husband and went to live with the brethren and sisters.

One day Mr. Cunningham met his wife and tried to persuade her to enter his automobile. Then he tried force and she caused his arrest for assault and battery. Judge Crail gave him a decree.

POLICEMEN MUST PAY MAN FOR HIS ARREST.

DAMAGE SUIT WON BY STORY OF ACQUITTAL AND BAD TREATMENT IN JAIL.

Henry J. Ludebank, private detective and deputy Sheriff, who was arrested by Sergt. Lloyd Hollowell on April 23 on a charge of disturbing the peace, was awarded judgment of $650 against Sergt. Hollowell and officers J. W. Moulton and W. D. Porter, by a jury in Judge McCormick's court yesterday.

Mr. Ludebank charged that the cell in which he was placed was dirty; that he was refused the use of a telephone and was not allowed to wash his face and hands. When the case was called in Police Court, he was found not guilty.

The defendants, who were represented by Deputy City Attorney Mealy, Guy Eddie and L. P. Green, declared that Mr. Ludebank acted in a loud and boisterous manner and that his actions aroused suspicion. It was asserted he voluntarily accompanied Sergt. Hollowell to the police station. The jury awarded $150 actual and $500 exemplary damages.

WENT WITH OTHER GIRL

Young Wife Thought Husband Playing Pool, but He was Dancing.

Irene B. Zollner and Elmer P. Zollner, a young couple, both worked at the same store. They quarreled because she had to work so hard. When they took their recreation, he went to a pool hall and she attended a cinema theater. One day she went to the pool hall and discovered that her husband had gone to a dance hall with another girl.

Mrs. Zollner gave this testimony in Judge Crail's court yesterday, where she sought a divorce. Her mother testified her daughter never thought first of herself. When the breach came between husband and wife, "the light went out of my daughter's eyes," she said.

Mr. Zollner's mother tried to reconcile the couple, and failed. Judge Crail took the case under submission. The husband, he said, had failed to show his wife the proper attention.

BURBANK CHAMBER OPPOSES ANNEXATION.

Unanimous opposition to the proposal to annex to Los Angeles is voiced in resolutions adopted last night by the Burbank Chamber of Commerce. Opposition to the proposal as being ill advised at this time was expressed by Charles Monroe, James J. Jeffries, Charles W. Anderson and Capt. Walter C. Fisher. A committee, with Capt. Fisher as chairman, was appointed to organize to defeat the proposal at the Burbank election on November 16.

TWO RECKLESS MEN CONVICTED.

One Guilty Autoist Remanded to Jail and Other Fined One Hundred Dollars.

Charged with having driven an automobile at fifty-one miles an hour on Stephenson avenue on October 14, Alfred Hayes was found guilty before Police Judge Chambers yesterday and ordered to jail to await sentence at 2 p.m. today. Hayes was arrested by Motorcycle Officer Rogers after a chase of several blocks.

Marion Plummer, 63 years of age, was fined $100 by Police Judge Chesebro after having been found guilty of reckless driving. The testimony showed he cut a corner at Fifty-third and Figueroa streets on August 14 and also caused a collision with another automobile driven by N. W. Boston. Plummer paid the fine, but gave notice of appeal through his attorney.

Science and Human Skill Combine

THE equipment of the HOLSUM Bakery shows the wonderful progress which Mechanical Science has made in baking machinery during the past few years. In the making of HOLSUM Bread the most modern machines combine with science and human skill to produce HOLSUM Bread, "the perfect balanced ration."

These machines are kept scrupulously clean through a thorough scrubbing every day. The cleanliness of both the materials and machines which make HOLSUM Bread is reflected in the bakers themselves. Shower baths and clean clothes are part of their daily preparation for their work.

The High-speed Mixer

The High-speed Mixer is one of the many interesting machines in the HOLSUM Bakery. This "mixer" beats the dough under high speed and a good deal of pressure, to properly saturate the flour and distribute the materials evenly in the dough. Hand kneading and many mechanical mixers now used cannot accomplish these purposes. The HOLSUM Bakery's scientifically constructed bread mixer insures proper saturating and mixing and assures a completely digestible loaf.

The Fermenting Room

Fermenting of dough follows mixing. This process, especially, demands expert knowledge. If the fermenting is too slow, a small, heavy loaf will result. If over-fermenting occurs, the loaf will be sour and crumbly. In the fermenting room of the HOLSUM Bakery both temperature and humidity are under perfect control during the entire five-hour fermenting period, so that under or over-fermenting are impossible. The temperature of each dough is taken at regular intervals.

Hands Do Not Touch It

HOLSUM Bread is divided into loaves and these loaves rounded by machine, without contact of human hands. This assures bread of the utmost cleanliness and of standard weight. The moulding machine moulds forty-two to forty-eight loaves per minute. When the pieces of dough come from this machine they are ready for the pans.

Into the Giant Baking Ovens

Bread cannot be properly baked in a kitchen oven or other small ovens. Only the oven that can secure and maintain a heat of 550 degrees can bake bread as it should be baked, and insure its perfect digestibility. From thirty minutes to thirty-five minutes is required to properly bake bread. Too slow baking causes the bread to settle. Too rapid baking leaves the center of the loaf underdone. HOLSUM ovens, like all other machinery used in making HOLSUM Bread, are modern and efficient.

When you buy HOLSUM you are sure of getting bread that is well-baked, appetizing and digestible. HOLSUM Bread is made according to the highest dictates of food science. HOLSUM Bread is of Supreme Quality, Fine Flavor, and Maximum Food Value.

BREAD AND MEAT.

Boston is complaining because sandwiches are sold in some hotels and restaurants at a profit of 299 per cent. They are lucky at not being milked for the full 400 per cent.

WOMAN JURORS.

We are sorry Judge Monroe does not see it that way, but we feel constrained to support Attorney Hatton's contention that it is more important that a housewife be exempt from jury service than a notary public.

HIS CAPACITY.

Nobody said that Atty.-Gen. Palmer had personal knowledge of the withdrawal of forty barrels of whisky from bond during the San Francisco convention. Mr. Palmer is a big man, but he could never get away with forty barrels of whisky.

THE MANGER.

The fact is again emphasized that Los Angeles might have other transcontinental railway lines if a union terminal were established. The arrangements we have now were fine for the original city of 100,000 inhabitants on which they were predicated, but distressingly inadequate for the metropolis of a million souls we will be before the greater terminal could be accomplished.

MOVING HOOCH.

The Supreme Court of the United States declines to review the case of parties convicted in Arizona of transporting booze in the family buss wagon. So the law must stand for the time being. If a man wants to move his bottle of cocktail he will have to do it by hand and in the dead of night in order to get away with it. If he tries to carry a pint of beer in his Lizzie the prohibition official can shoot him down as he would a wild rabbit.

BLANKET BALLOTS.

The election ballot in some States will be even more massive than the paper blanket which will be served to California voters. In Illinois there are eleven different party tickets in the field for either national or State offices and each of them requires a column about three inches in width. So here they have a sheet a yard wide before they get through with their Presidents and Governors. If they should have an ordinary bunch of initiatives and referendums the full ballot would make even a Sunday Times look thin. The man from Mars wants to know what's the sense in having eleven different parties represented on the final ballot when everybody knows the contest is between two? Why not expect the voters to determine between these two and secure a popular choice?

NO FIREBRANDS.

The Executive Committee of the Swiss Federation of Socialist Groups, by a vote of forty-nine to twelve, rejected all association with Lenine, Trotzky or the Moscow Third Internationale. The sober Socialists of Europe are realising that, while their philosophy is an engaging thing to talk about, it goes to pieces and becomes as straw the moment it achieves responsibility or authority. All the fine things about equality and the distribution of labor which Lenine and Trotzky wrote about in their student days have had to be thrown to the scrap heap. The Russian Socialist now has to work twelve hours a day and perhaps spend the other twelve in fighting for bread. The only equality is that furnished by the possession of sword or pistol. The Socialists say that they could succeed and demonstrate the virtues of their system if the rest of the world would help. But the rest of the world is too sensible to engage in unnecessary experimentation. It will not help because it realises that peace and progress can be had without revolution.

MONKEYS AND MONARCHS.

How the sons of the mighty have fallen and what a pitiable figure royalty cuts in the world today!

The King of Greece is at the point of death from the bite of a pet monkey. The ex-Kaiser is a wood-sawyer. Charles of Austria, with six others who once sat on thrones, is taking the air in Switzerland and hoping that his remittances will come through on time. The Sultan is a prisoner in his own harem. The blood of the Czar smears the walls of a Siberian hovel. George of England is still allowed a few harmless duties to perform and on state occasions is handed a typewritten copy of what he is to mumble on the throne from which the thunderous words of Richard Coeur de Lion or of Henry VIII once made all Europe tremble.

In all the world only one truly regal spirit wears the purple, and he is still a king by virtue of his courage and his ability and his power of leadership. Albert of Belgium, son of a man who was far more a business man than a monarch, is the one grand exception to the spectacle of the reduction of the sons of the great. He alone of all the crowned of Europe sat down at the peace table as an equal with the uncrowned masters of the world, and he alone still gives the once-inspiring title of King the power to thrill and quicken.

Czars kicked about and spat upon; sultans imprisoned with and despised by their own women; kings the playmates of monkeys—how rapidly fate takes vengeance on those who try to live on the memory of what their fathers did!

IT'S A POOR YEAR FOR GOBLINS.

Once every four years it used to be the fashion to dress up the goblins and parade them through long avenues flanked by column rules and accompanied by the loud ballyhooing of Messrs. Printer's Ink and Buncomb. These fantastically attired wraiths created a most peculiar effect upon business and, as the procession passed the well-known given point, every financier, every merchant, every stock trader and the general public were expected to fall on their faces in fear and trembling.

Until this year it has been fashionable for business, big business, little business and middle-sized business, to curl up in a heap for three or four months preceding a general election. The stock market, beginning in midsummer and continuing until the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, looked like something the cat dragged in. Folks even stopped building houses because of some unnamed fear of disaster to befall for audacious flying in the face of providence and a Presidential election.

After the election and the quadrennial saving of the country these goblin fearers took up the threads where they dropped them when somebody shouted "Boo!" and everything went along as before, only more so. Nobody ever found out what the process of picking out a new head and Board of Directors for the Corporation of the United States had to do with precipitating a near panic and a practical suspension of business, but facts were facts, and the goblins had their day.

This year things are different. All precedents have been overturned. Up to this present the impending election has had about as much effect on general business conditions as a pint of water in a creamery. One may travel the busy marts of trade from foggy morn to electric-lighted eve without so much as hearing the election mentioned. A Times reporter, clinging fast to tradition, endeavored to reestablish the old-time side show. "What effect is the election having on business?" he asked a selected group of leaders. The usual reply was, "What election?"

As a result business has continued good. The old superstition has been scrapped, and, strange as it may seem, nothing has happened except that the dead period has been eliminated, or at least greatly shortened. September made new records, and October will be a repeater. The rule of the goblins is played out, and it is to be hoped the old fear will never be revived.

Between today and the casting of the ballots there will be a slowing down in the speculative market, but this is without significance because the speculative market beyond a certain point depends largely for its fluctuations upon goolins, and it would not do to permit all the ghosts to be laid. This attitude, however, is professional and will have little or no bearing upon general business.

As a matter of fact this is Southern California's busy day. Two thousand visitors, many of whom will become homeseekers, are arriving every twenty-four hours, and house hunting is rapidly becoming the great outdoor sport of the community. Our stores are crowded and our banks have no time to spare from establishing new deposit windows to pay any attention to goblins. Our crops are grand. Agencies report fewer failures than a year ago. Good bonds sell like waffles in December, and preferred stocks are rampant.

FOR FIFTY CENTS A DAY.

A dispute over 50 cents a day has landed Great Britain in its present position where a tie-up of industry is threatened and much suffering is certain. The coal miners, whose pay has been raised since the beginning of the war by 172 per cent, gave up their jobs and plunged millions into misery because a rise of two shillings a day was refused. At the present rate of exchange that two shillings isn't even worth 50 cents in this country. Before the war the miners were poorly paid, the average day's wage being only $1.55. The men were enabled, because of the imperative need for fuel, to demand successive increases during the world conflict and afterward. Only a few months ago they threatened to do what they have now done, throw down their tools and abandon the mines, unless they received an advance. Wages were boosted 20 per cent last April, making the average day's pay $4.70. That is low enough, considering the high cost of living, but the question is, were the miners justified in their extreme action? There can be only one answer. The end sought does not justify the means. Whether the strike is quickly ended or not, thousands of other workers must suffer and hundreds of thousands of women and children will be adversely affected. The United Kingdom expects to see a repetition of what happened in the spring of 1912, when there was a coal strike of six weeks' duration. Big industries were forced to shut down; food became so scarce in some parts of the country that relief stations had to be established, and there was acute distress throughout the isles. While the miners were well aware that repetition of the paralysis and suffering experienced in 1912 might be expected in 1920 they cared more for their 50 cents a day than for the well-being of the British Isles in general.

THE "OLD ROMAN."

Now, at the very end of the season, with the White Sox running neck-and-neck for the pennant, the beloved star pitcher, Cicotte, and seven other of Mr. Comiskey's greatest players have dragged the name of baseball into black ignominy. It was Mr. Comiskey, the man and the sportsman, who smothered his love for his "boys" to proclaim his greater love for the game by handing them over to the Cook county grand jury and suspending them indefinitely from the team.

Mr. Comiskey may lose the pennant; he may never succeed in grouping another world's championship team; his heart may be broken by the miserable actions of his men; but he will have the comfort of the great sympathy and affection of baseball devotees throughout the country. In exposing the knaves who have stained baseball's bright 'scutcheon, he took the only course which can possibly save baseball from everlasting disrepute in America.—[Louisville Courier-Journal.

The real test of women in politics is whether they will descend to become a part of the baser aspects of political strife and thus increase the difficulties, or whether they will hold fast to those qualities which have brought them honor and reverence.

THE RENT HOG AND THE BUSINESS MAN.

The rent hog has waxed so fat that he can no longer be ignored by substantial business interests. What was in its milder phases merely a vexation to the casual renter has become in its excesses a real menace to the happiness and stability of a large portion of our population and, therefore, a problem of vital concern to all who are interested in the permanent welfare of Los Angeles.

On the eve of our tremendous industrial awakening, in which, in addition to being the pleasure center of America, Los Angeles is also becoming one of the foremost manufacturing cities of the nation, the housing situation assumes an importance which cannot safely be disregarded. As the first city in this country in point of freedom from union dictatorship Los Angeles makes a powerful appeal to the harried manufacturer of the East. In its climate it offers another unrivaled inducement. The climatic appeal is particularly strong to the business man of broad outlook who knows that the environment in which the worker, of whatever grade, is most contented is the one in which he is most productive. But the rent hog now threatens to undermine that appeal by jarring the contentment of the workers already here and by frightening other thousands of workers out of the immediate realization of the dream, now so general throughout the country, of living and working in Southern California.

Nothing would show blinder folly at this time than for Los Angeles to allow herself to gain a nation-wide reputation as the city without enough homes. Similarly, nothing would be more shortsighted than for employers to allow their employees to become dissatisfied and upset through exorbitant rents and the constant threat of being forced to pay more or move out.

There is no longer the necessity for asking if there has been and still is rent profiteering in Los Angeles. That is clear to all of us, and it is becoming clear to people at a distance through the publicity which jealous detractors are only too glad to give to our shortage of houses and to the resultant high rents.

The problem is the plain one of finding a remedy. There is, after all has been said, only one remedy for a house shortage—and that is houses and houses and still more houses until supply gets within speaking distance of demand.

Denouncing the rent hog is a pleasant sport and widely indulged in. But, unfortunately, it has the opposite of the desired effect. "He has something we want desperately and can't get," wails the house seeker, with a flood of abuse thrown in. The landlord then says to himself: "The demand is even greater than I had thought. I am asking too little. I must get more." Then rents go up again and with them lamentations and protests.

The housing problem, moreover, has passed beyond the scope of an individual investment question. It has become a civic question of upholding our reputation for hospitality and of protecting our industrial future. When more than 2000 people a day are pouring into our city it is above all things important that we guarantee them and those who are planning to follow them a place to live at a reasonable charge.

It is just as important now to have enough homes available for the inrushing thousands as it was years ago for this section to spread throughout the nation the glad tidings of the land of sunshine.

The same breadth of vision which impelled the leaders in this community to secure the aqueduct, the harbor and our unrivaled system of roads must now direct the energies of the community toward taking immediate steps to make permanent the fruits of that growth which was only possible through natural resources AIDED by progressive and courageous leadership. Houses are just as important now that we are coming into our own as the other and earlier factors were when we were struggling toward our goal.

There is another phase of the question which is worthy of more consideration than it has received. Unless a broader and more adequate policy is adopted toward the question of rents all classes of real estate owners may be confronted when the Legislature meets in January with the menace of wild-eyed legislation to combat the rent profiteer. There is no limit to what might come out of such agitation if it once got headway in a State which is the most prolific in the Union in freak legislative proposals. New York's Legislature went into the throes of a special session on this matter and brought forth a law which does not solve the problem at all, but which will nevertheless do great damage to property-holders in that State for years to come.

The housing question is not a political but an economic one, and the sensible course for the business man is to recognize that fact now and to take immediate steps toward solving the problem sanely and satisfactorily, instead of turning it over to the inflammable brain of the agitator.

Every large business concern in the community should come forward at once and at least look after its own employees. Houses should be built for employees on a long-term payment basis and at a modest interest rate, so as to stimulate all toward immediately owning their own homes without causing any loss to the firm. In other words, generous credit and attractive terms should be offered every man or woman who is working for a strong firm. There is no community in the United States in which such an offer would be more eagerly accepted by the employees. Likewise, there is no community in which the employer would be more protected in having his money secured by a mortgage on the lot and the improvements on it. Such a policy, if widely adopted, would make a community of happy workers and would at the same time leave the rental properties of the city in a position to meet the steadily growing demands of the tourist who has not yet arranged to secure a home here.

Civic pride and a vision for the immediate present and for the towering future should urge such a course. A realization of the importance of solving the housing problem sanely now rather than to allow it to drift into the mouths of agitators should make all property owners wake up to what is at stake. Finally, and above all, hard-headed common sense and the simplest understanding of human nature should make every business man eager to foster in his employees that feeling of pride and responsibility which goes with owning a home in the land of a man's desire.

ON THE AMERICAN SCREEN — By Gale

They can't stop it!

THE WAIL OF THE FAILURE.

Mr. Cox's charges would be more exciting if he would only prove one or two of them now and then.

Two weeks ago he announced that there was a conspiracy to raise $30,000,000 to bribe the voters and steal the Presidency from him.

A charge of that kind demanded evidence to establish it. Mr. Cox didn't furnish any, and the voters were inconsiderate enough not to take his unsupported word for it.

Now he insists that there is another conspiracy to buy up newspapers wholesale all over the country and turn them against him.

This charge would be interesting if Mr. Cox would name some of the newspapers. But he doesn't. He doesn't even supply information on which to base an investigation.

In almost every speech Mr. Cox says darkly that there is a conspiracy against him—either a newspaper conspiracy or a conspiracy of capitalists.

And here we see how futile has been his campaign and how hopeless he is of its success.

For since the beginning of the world every failure, every beaten aspirant for place or position has cried "conspiracy" when he discovered he was about to lose.

The business man who goes to the wall charges a conspiracy among his competitors. The inefficient clerk attributes his discharge to a conspiracy of jealous superiors.

Surely Mr. Cox does not believe that the cry of "conspiracy" will be taken as an evidence of his fitness for the greatest office in the world.

It is and always has been an evidence of unfitness.—[New York Tribune.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

THE SPEED FIENDS.

In vain I stand protesting to speed fiends as they pass; they seem to think I'm jesting and give their boats more gas. The coroner is busy, he's checking up the dead, run down by truck or Lizzie or auto painted red. The coroner is weary, he toils by day and night; his task is sad and dreary and there's no end in sight. The village cops are chasing the fiends o'er hill and dale and after bitter racing they put a few in jail. And then they're fined so lightly they think it all a joke and leave the courtroom brightly and make their autos smoke. Through highways residential, through traffic's busy marts, with ardor pestilential they run their deadly carts. They wing the fleeing baker, they maim the frightened clerk, and now the undertaker gets in his grewsome work. The doctor's nerves are busted, so many victims yelp, the coroner's disgusted and wildly calls for help. And still the crazy motors go rushing through the town and slay the adult voters and mow the children down. And when I stand protesting that speed fiends scorn my rhyme and jauntily go questing for some one they can climb.

Acknowledging the Corn.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

How easy it is to make mistakes—I mean form wrong impressions.

Here I had been thinking that the vital issues before the American people were the League of Nations and the tariff, when along comes my Congressman with a mass of information about the selection and raising of Indian corn for seed and for domestic uses!

Our Representative has had the government go to great expense to compile and publish this information which is now brought to my door with his compliments. Two years ago, when I thought the issue was whether I should break into the war myself or merely continue my career of profiteering, the Congressman came to my place with a copious pamphlet on how to raise bees by mental suggestion. Just when I was wondering whether there was a chance to get an armistice before I added my rheumatism to the collection of tragedies in France my Congressman butts in with an infallible recipe for telling a queen bee! What do I want to tell a queen bee for, anyhow? When I want to tell a queen anything I am just as liable to do it over the phone as not. I do not have to be drilled.

Anyhow, I do not pay my Congressman $7500 to tell me how to get the idle prattle of the orchard to the ears of some vagrant queen.

This man Randall is always doing some fool thing of this kind. Instead of telling me how he expects to vote on advancing the tariff on Sicilian lemons or Manchurian beans he sends me the report of the high commission on the various methods of treating stone bruises by silent prayer. Instead of making an effort to construe Article X in accordance with the Monroe Doctrine he will send me a vast pamphlet on the relations of phlebotomy to the edible fleas of Angostura.

One would almost think he was trying to cloud the issue or divert attention. If I ask him how he figures that a Democratic Prohibitionist should make a good Republican he sends me a government publication telling me how to spray a eucalyptus grove with an atomizer.

Isn't he the artful dodger, though?

Now when I am all worked up over the excesses of a national administration and wondering whether the League can be made elastic enough to admit Mexico my Congressman seeks to palliate me with a recipe for corn muffins! He takes me by the hand and tells me that a comparatively insignificant kernel of corn consists of three parts—the skin, the germ and the endosperm. It is the endosperm that contains 84 per cent of the sugar and starch of the grain. Also we are advised that the natives of Jamaica can mix cornmeal with salt fish and lard and make a very dainty and delectable dish—a sort of a cross between boned turkey and goulash, as it were. Now we know where the Jamaicans get their ginger.

All this might be highly interesting and very important at any other time, but what has it got to do with extending the operations of the Federal reserve or augmenting the Pacific Fleet?

This man Randall is hedging.

Likewise I am inclined to the belief that he is a whited sepulcher. What does a professional prohibitionist want in circulating literature to encourage the use of cornmeal? People are finding out, all right. I can take this man Randall down into my cellar and show him how, by the use of a bucket of cornmeal, a cake of yeast and a handful of raisins, he can brew him a Scotch highball that will make him see things on the roof.

I have a diploma from the Keeley Institute that shows that I can do things with cornmeal that my government does not wot of. When a man can take a plug hat full of cornmeal and prune juice, stir it up till it tastes just like a Manhattan cocktail, he doesn't need any bone-head Congressman fumbling at the door with a Bartender's Guide.

As a professional prohibitionist this man Randall might be in better business than going around showing people what to do with their cornmeal. If he sampled the brew at every place he could get all lit up without spending a cent. That is the favorite sport of some prohibitionists I have met.

Why should the government fuss up in this business, anyhow? It doesn't get the revenue out of it any more. Why should the administration be urging people to use more cornmeal when its most natural and popular mission is to make the stuff that is said to steal their brains?

Is this man Randall trying to get the whisky vote by disguising himself as a cornmeal vender? He is said to have come away from Fresno with a pocket full of raisins. Are the halos of all our angels made of straw?

Is Congressman Randall offering cornmeal as a substitute for the great covenant? What does he mean, anyhow? Or is he just a small-bore politician who uses the government as his press agent?

NOT LOOKING FOR DEMOTION.

The hero-apostolic mold of some of our missionaries was shown when one of our widely-known American board men, at the ship's dining table on the voyage to Turkey, in the days of the massacres, remarked that the United States government had repeatedly offered him the consulship in one of the chief Turkish cities, at a salary which to any mission worker would be princely. A young business man sitting opposite said, in tones of amazement, "Why in the world did you not accept such a chance?" "Well," was the quiet reply, "I decline to step down from an ambassadorship to a consulship." — [Congregationalist and Advance.

An Unfortunate Query.

An English story tells of a merchant finding his clerk on the floor looking dazed and battered.

"What's happened?" he inquired.

"An Irishman came in for an ever coat and I asked him if he wanted an ulster," replied the vanquished one.—[Boston Transcript.

The American's Creed
For You and Me
NOBLESSE OBLIGE
By John Strong.
TWO WORDS.

They embrace what "Citizen U. S. A." stands for. They embrace the American soul "stands for." They embrace the entire scheme of you and I ought to live. They brace all that makes for human progress.

"Noblesse Oblige" is an ancient-membered foundation-thought. I think "Noblesse Oblige" to me every question of conduct our ask. It's an infallible guide for and me.

Caught in the foaming rapids complex age, in the swish and of conflicting doctrines; smothered under a mountain of printed that crowd us to confusion; a buoy to tie to, a breath to the vision: concentrate on Noblesse Oblige.

Noblesse Oblige fits every U. S. A., at every point of with every personal and problem. It is America's slogan. It is every citizen's obligation. "It covers the field" blesse Oblige.

Apex
Electric Suction Cleaners and Rotapex Electric Washers

The Apex Electrical Distributing Co. of Cleveland, Ohio, are sole distributors for the Rotapex Electric Washers and Apex Electric Suction Sweepers.

The Pacific Coast demand for these appliances has increased so rapidly that two months ago Mr. J. R. Fullerton was sent out to Los Angeles to act as its Western District Manager. The territory covered by Mr. Fullerton embraces everything west of Denver.

Important features embodied in the Rotapex Washing Machine are—reversible wringer, exclusive safety devices, and water-tight bearings. The "Rotapex" is of sturdy construction and easy to operate.

The Apex Suction Cleaner has a divided nozzle, insuring uniform cleaning across the entire 19-inch opening. The inclined nozzle enables one to clean under things as well as around them—both exclusive features.

In equipping his offices with standardized furniture, Mr. Fullerton found in the Weber Showcase and Fixture Co. an organization that combines the highest degree of service with the highest quality of merchandise.

We will be more than glad to consult with you with reference to your office requirements.

Cuticura Soap IS IDEAL For the Hands

Letters from a Young Salesman in New Territory.

Pecos, Texas.
Oct. 5, 1920.

Dear Bert:—

Had a fine trip out here so far. Met some nice fellows also, one by the name of Glacier that used to have a store up Fresno way. And, would you believe it, he is a great booster for the GRAYCO SOFT COLLAR. Before a bunch of fellows in the Pullman wash room he said, with collar in hand, "Believe me, boys, before long people will be askin' for and wearing 'GRAYCO SOFT COLLARS' instead of just Soft Collars."

Will write you before the next town or as soon as some friend of ours puts over another good point on our GRAYCO SOFT COLLARS.

Yours truly,
HARRY.

Miss Souders Now Well and Happy.

Hadn't Enjoyed Good Health in Two Years.

Her Father Also Greatly Helped By Tanlac.

"That is the medicine that helped me so much back in Pennsylvania three years ago, Edith, and I'm going to get you a bottle for your stomach trouble,' my father said to me."

The above statement was made recently by Miss Edith Souders, a popular telephone operator, living at 619 East Washington Street, Los Angeles, Cal., in telling how she got started using the medicine. Continuing, Miss Edith said:

"For nearly two years I had an awful time with my stomach; it gave me severe pain and annoyed me greatly. Many times I was so nauseated and bloated up from the gas on my stomach I was nearly wild. I tried faithfully to overcome my troubles and used lots of medicines.

"When father got Tanlac for me I began taking it and got better fast. In just a little while the nausea and gas and bloating were gone, and I was so glad to tell the girls what had helped me so much. I kept right on taking it till I had used seven bottles, and now I am perfectly well and ever so much stronger, and am enjoying life immensely."

"It was a great day when father bought Tanlac for me, and I want everybody to know what a grand medicine it is, and so nice to take."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Stores.—[Advertisement.

Pasadena Official Says Church Accusation Wrong.

Crown City Resident Has New Plan of Government.

Application for Injunction Starts Fight.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Oct. 19.—Denial that any evil was attached to the community dances held under municipal patronage in recent months, or that "denizens of the underworld plied their traffic" at these affairs, as charged by the First Methodist Church, were made by Commissioner John J. Hamilton at the meeting today of the City Commission.

The occasion was the formal filing with the commission of the resolutions adopted about a week ago by the Methodists. These resolutions, denouncing the dances, were reported at that time.

The Commission declined to take any action abolishing the dances, merely placing the resolution of the Methodists "on file."

In his defense of the dances Commissioner J. J. Hamilton expressed the opinion that if the objecting Methodists had themselves been present at these dances they would have been convinced there was no moral danger in them.

Commissioner W. H. Reeves said they were a good thing; he added that the facilities of Brookside Park should be thrown open to the people on Sunday.

"I believe the motives of those who organized the dances were as pure as those who protest against them," said Commissioner M. H. Salisbury.

The community dances were conducted at city-owned Tournament Park, with the approval and cooperation of the municipality, by the Pasadena branch of the Drama League. The committee in charge included some of the most prominent women in Pasadena.

WOULD ABOLISH POLITICS.

E. W. Knowlton, wealthy retired manufacturer, who resides at 395 South Grand avenue, has started a movement to abolish politics in the United States. He has attracted a number of friends to his plan and they propose to extend the movement.

Mr. Knowlton's substitute for politics is to abolish the office of President of the United States, Vice-President, Congress and so on, and substitute a national board of directors comprised of a representative from each State. The titular head of the government would be the chairman of this board, but he would have no more power than any other member. The board of directors would conduct the country.

"This would eliminate the national political parties and the expense of campaigns, would make a more economical government, would eliminate 'one-man power' and other evils," says Mr. Knowlton.

COMMISSIONERS TO FIGHT.

The Pasadena City Commissioners will contest the action brought in the Superior Court yesterday by C. W. Leighton, who seeks to restrain them from voting city funds for the special municipal railway bond election. The order of the court to the Commissioners to show cause why the injunction should not be granted was served on them today by Constable J. C. Sesey. The Commissioners immediately instructed City Attorney J. H. Howard to represent them in the case and to contest the plea of Leighton.

The action brought by Leighton is a new development in the warm campaign over the municipal railway question. The Commission has called an election on the bond issue for November 2, the general election day.

WILL SINK WELL.

The city of Pasadena will sink a new well near the Villa-street reservoir in an effort to add to the city's water supply. Bids for the sinking of the well will be asked.

NEWSPAPER WOMEN ON LONG JOURNEY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Oct. 19. — Mrs. Thomas Murray and Miss Ellen Ellis, two newspaper women of Buffalo, N. Y. who are touring the United States in a car they have prepared for camping, were in Redlands yesterday. They had just visited the big government hospital at Arrowhead.

They have been in the road for seven months and had stopped at hotels only twice. They have talked with all sorts of people, with workingmen and wealthy men, and they say that there is no doubt but that Harding will be elected.

The young women have made long stops at certain places and expect to spend months in Southern California.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 19.—A Chamber of Commerce membership drive is under way here and today more than 150 new members were secured, bringing the total membership of the chamber to 650. The goal is 1000 members, which is expected to be reached by Saturday night. More than fifty business men are making the canvass under direction of Membership Chairman John A. McFadden and Secretary S. J. Metzgar.

TEXAS VISITOR LANDS BIGGEST SEA MONSTER

SWORDFISH WEIGHS ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY POUNDS. STOLEN LOOT IN GARAGE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, Oct. 19.—Following a fierce struggle lasting nearly four hours, Ralph G. Lambar, a visitor in Long Beach from Austin, Tex., landed a swordfish tipping the scales at 190 pounds in the channel this afternoon.

The huge fish was ten feet long and is one of the largest of that species ever brought to gaff off this city. The vicious sea creature was caught on light tackle and only skillful maneuvering by Mr. Lambar made possible its capture. The monster was played by the fisherman until it tired and was then brought alongside the boat and killed.

The swordfish was a marlin specie, so called because its sword resembles that of a marlin spike. The sword on the fish landed by Mr. Lambar, who will have the creature mounted, measured twenty inches.

JUVENILE COURT.

Judge Sidney N. Reeve of the Superior Court appointed Attorney Clyde Doyle and Justice S. H. Underwood to act as referees in the Long Beach branch of the Juvenile Court of the county at a special meeting of the Long Beach Bar Association held this afternoon. The new branch of the court will become operative here in ten days. The office of Justice S. H. Underwood will be used as temporary headquarters.

FINDS STOLEN PROPERTY.

F. E. Wakeman, 1947 East First street, turned over to the police today about $200 worth of jewelry and other property, apparently stolen and hidden in his garage. The investigating officers report that indications are the garage had been made a headquarters for thieves who have been unusually active here the past few weeks.

BIG TRANSACTION.

Power Companies at San Diego Sell for $1,100,000.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 19.—A transaction whereby the San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric Company is to buy the power house of the San Diego Electric Railway Company for $1,000,000 and the heating plant of the United Light, Fuel and Power Company for $100,000 has been closed, subject to approval of the State Railroad Commission, it was announced today.

Application for permission to buy was filed with the Railroad Commission by the gas and electric company today. Application for permission to sell also is to be made to the Railroad Commission by the street railway company and the power company, it was said.

H. H. Jones, president and manager of the San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric Company, stated today that the deal is for the power plants alone, and the company has no intention of operating the cars of the railway system. The gas and electric company is to furnish the street railway company with power to operate the cars, he said.

W. Clayton, vice-president and managing director of the San Diego Electric Railway Company, confirmed the deal pending before the State Railroad Commission.

FINE FOR LAUNDRYMEN.

Pomona Holds Open House; Leave for Riverside.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POMONA, Oct. 19.—The delegation of 527 laundrymen and women, members of the Laundrymen's National Association on their way home for the annual convention at San Francisco, arrived in Pomona in automobiles from Los Angeles this afternoon and were shown the beauties of this city from the famous Ganesha Park hills. After a ride over the park hills, the visitors were taken to the Greek Theater, where an informal reception was held.

Long tables loaded with oranges, grapes and huge bowls of punch were prepared for the visitors. A. E. Tate, president of the Chamber of Commerce, welcomed them in behalf of the city and C. P. Bayer, secretary of the local chamber, also made an address. From this city they went to Riverside to be guests at dinner at the Mission Inn.

REPUBLICANS BUSY.

Saturday Gala Day of Campaign in Orange County.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA Oct. 19.—Saturday will be a busy day for the Republicans of Orange county with nearly a dozen addresses scheduled for Gov. Stephens and Samuel Shortridge, ending with a big torchlight parade in Santa Ana Saturday night. During the day meetings will be held at San Juan Capistrano, Tustin, Anaheim, Fullerton, Orange and Santa Ana.

REDLANDS DOCTOR LEARNS NEW MEAHOD.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Oct. 19.—Dr. C. L. Curtiss, president of the San Bernardino County Medical society and of the Redlands Rotary Club, has gone to Colorado Springs to take the six weeks course in the standardization of the treatment of tuberculosis under the direction of Dr. Gerald Webb.

"Wonders have been accomplished through the standardization of the treatment of the disease" says Dr. Curtiss in writing to the Rotary club here.

Elderly People Need Tonic In Medicine Chest

To relieve chronic constipation, always keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin handy.

NEARLY all people as they advance in age suffer from chronic constipation. Many, however, are indifferent to the laxative they use, on the theory that "they are all alike." That is a great mistake.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, for example, is a mild, gentle liquid laxative, and it does not lose its effect with repeated use. It so trains the bowel muscles that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with.

A sixty-cent bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last many months. The prescription was written thirty years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, a well-known family doctor, who is himself now in his 82nd year and can appreciate what chronic constipation must mean to elderly people; how it brings on headaches, colds, loss of appetite and sleep, heaviness and a general dull feeling.

Every home that has an elderly man or woman should be provided with a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought at drug stores last year. It is a truly wonderful constipation remedy.

HURLING 'EM AT GEORGES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Challenges from every direction are still being hurled at Georges Carpentier. The latest to cast a defi is Harry Wills, the giant negro heavyweight, who toppled over big Fred Fulton, a short time ago. Wills is most anxious to try conclusions with Georges, but it is not likely that the Frenchman will take the challenge very seriously. From every angle the French champion is being bombarded with aspirants who would like to tackle him.

Paddy Mullins, who pilots the affairs of Mike O'Dowd, insists that he is sincere in having his man have it out with Carpentier. Mullins realizes that Mike would be compelled to concede a severe handicap in poundage to the Frenchman, but that does not alter his opinion that Mike would just about take the foreigner's measure.

In fights here tonight Tonny Peters defeated Johnny Duffy, six rounds; Danny Lode defeated Eddie Mirman, six rounds; Panama Joe Gans knocked out "K. O." Lew Williams in four rounds; Tillie "Kid" Herman vs. Marty Cross (Herman disqualified in first round for fouling.)

Harry Mansell, English bantamweight and Pal Moore will probably be matched in the near future at Louisville or Memphis. Mansell is one of the best little fellows England has sent over here. A match with Joe Burman or Jack Sharkey at East Chicago is what Mansell wants just to show local fans that he is a second Jimmy Wilde.

Jimmy Hanlon, lightweight boxer, will leave the hospital this week as he has about recovered from an operation. After a three months' rest Jimmy will start training again.

tackle by trade. The Blue and White backfield had a crimp taken in it when the C.I.F. ruled that Armstrong was ineligible.

Pasadena's best bet is Center Horrell, who lives up to the family name for fight and ability in all branches of the game.

The Poly gang ought to triumph over the little chaps who are fighting for the honor of Jefferson. Coach Tipton of Jefferson freely admits that the best he can hope for in the result column is a low score for his aggregation. His team is outweighed many pounds to the man by every other eleven in the league.

was "fixed" so that he could get in on the easy picking.

Anger not only emphatically denies this, but has retained the law firm of Loeb, Walker and Loeb, to institute proceedings for libel.

TO TAKE ACTION.

"I have instructed my counsel to take whatever action is deemed best, and will abide by their decision," said Anger. "I want my name cleared completely of this scandal, and will spare no expense to accomplish this."

In view of the charges made by Borton and the sweeping denials of some of the players mentioned, it is patent that somebody is not telling a straight story, and the result of this is rumors of perjury and action to follow any proof that this has been committed.

Frank W. Stafford, Deputy District Attorney, says that his office is not unmindful of this phase of the situation.

MUST BE CLEAN.

Indications are that Coast baseball men, like those in the East, will insist that the investigation be prosecuted in such a way as to clear baseball of all suspicion. They seem fully alive to the fact that unless the game is now purged of all questionable practice, regardless of the immediate sacrifice which it will entail, baseball will be outlawed by public opinion, if not, indeed, by statute.

FISHING FLEETS IN ANNUAL RACE.

GLOUCESTER (Mass.) Oct. 19.—Two schooners, one representing the American and the other the Canadian fishing fleets, will meet annually in a series of races to determine the sailing supremacy of the North Atlantic. This decision was announced tonight after representatives of the Canadian Royal Yacht Squadron and a local fishermen's committee had completed arrangements to make the forthcoming contest between the Gloucester schooner Esperanto and the Halifax challenger Delawanna the first of the series.

It was decided today that the Delawanna and the Esperanto should sail two races off Halifax on October 30 and November 1 over a forty-mile triangular course. If a third is necessary, it will be to windward and leeward, wind conditions permitting. The course must be covered in nine hours to constitute a race.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.—[Advertisement.

game is at stake. The door of welcome is wide open."

A POSSIBILITY.

Probability of a baseball war was freely discussed by baseball men today, many of them called to testify before the grand jury investigating the baseball scandal. President B. B. Johnson of the American League, refused to be interviewed, but friends asserted an attempt was being made to oust him from the American League presidency. Men who were not favorable to Johnson said his apparent opposition to reorganization was simply a continuation of his opposition to the club owners who sided against him last winter.

Some baseball men professed to see the solution of the problem in the meeting of minor league officials at Kansas City, November 9, saying that the side the minors favored would win, for the other parties would be unable to obtain ball players and would be "starved out."

STICK TOGETHER.

The eleven owners who attended yesterday's conference, however, have signed an agreement that they will stick together and form a twelve-club league if the other five American League clubs and President Johnson do not join them in reorganization plans. An ultimatum was issued giving the five clubs until November 1 to make known their decision. The eleven owners will not announce their policy until November 8, however, when another meeting will be held here before presenting the matter to the minor league meeting the next day at Kansas City.

Long black hair found in soup. Is traced to mystery woman in the kitchen.

Grand jury probe won't be complete success, though, until somebody starts mysterious talk about a master mind.

Almost any distorted intellect will do for this purpose.

Man with master mind usually doesn't think any straighter than a corkscrew.

He is believed to be the guy who invented the double criss-cross in baseball.

That's what they're shooting at in the East, the higher-up with the superintellect.

The plunger who can't dive straight must be exterminated.

Don't bother with the pikers. They are not worth a BB bullet. Couldn't hit a vital spot, anyway. Roll of fat under the hat and a dill pickle where the heart should be.

Conflicting stories are being told the grand jury, which means that somebody is fibbing. But grand juries don't call it by that name.

Ways and means should be found of keeping world's series players from comingling with the gamblers.

Make 'em sleep in a barracks or in the barn on the eve of battle. Or, if it comes to the worst, lock them in jail, for here they will be incommunicado.

Far better to put a ball team in jail for ten days before a series than ten years after a series.

TRACK MAN DIES AFTER SHORT RUN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Waldo Colvin, whose home is in Marshalltown, Iowa, a student at the University of Chicago, dropped dead this morning after finishing a short run on the track.

He was a track athlete at high school and at Grinnel College, Iowa, and a freshman at the university here. Being a first-year man, he was not eligible for the Maroon track team but was keeping himself in condition by daily workouts. He was pledged to the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

This morning he had jogged around the track as usual, and was on his way to the shower baths in the gymnasium when he toppled over lifeless.

PASTEBOARDS READY.

Tickets for the Occidental-U.S.C. football struggle to be held on Bovard Field next Saturday went on sale yesterday at the local sporting goods houses, Manager Hank Bruce of U.S.C. announced.

There will be special rooting sections for the student bodies of both institutions, but other parts will be roped off for the use of the populace which doesn't care to be caught in the din.

ST. MARY'S GAME WITH OXY IS OFF.

The Occidental-St. Mary's football game, scheduled for Patterson field October 30, has been called off, Manager Bill Work of Occidental announced yesterday, because the northern team, after several disastrous defeats, has disbanded for the season.

St. Mary's, it will be recalled, permitted Coach Russ Wilson to slip from the fold this year, and hired Billy Hollander, U. C. basketball mentor, to do the gridiron teaching. Mr. Hollander's efforts were somewhat fruitless, Stanford walloping the Catholics 41 to 0, and California snowing them under by the horrible count of 127 to 0. Mr. Hollander is said to have been asked to resign, and the team then disbanded.

Work is thinking of asking the strong Olympic Club team to take the vacant date.

Science Proves the Danger of Bleeding Gums

Medical science proves that unhealthy gums cause many ailments. People suffering from Pyorrhea (a disease of the gums) often suffer from other ills, such as rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders, or weakened vital organs. These ills have been traced in many cases to the Pyorrhea germs which breed in pockets about the teeth.

Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea. It begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germs.

Guard your health and your teeth. Keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and make daily use of Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. 35c and 60c tubes. All druggists.

ESSICK SOON PLUGGED GAP.

Got Busy When Borton Was Thrown from Club.

Clyde Wares Lucky to Finish in First Division.

McDonald and Griggs Injuries Killed Angels' Hopes.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

Vernon's activity in the managerial line, when danger threatened its pennant aspirations, played a big part in the Tigers repeating on the flag.

The Borton scandal deprived them undoubtedly of the best first sacker in the league, but Bill Essick got busy and quickly plugged the gap.

The Bengals then proceeded on the even tenor of their way and their final success was regarded by the majority of shrewd fans as a foregone conclusion.

A REAL BOMB.

The real bombshell that exploded in the camp of prediction and probability was the finishing of Seattle in second place. The cause of this lies on the surface. Courtesy of fortune realized Clyde Wares's fervid ambition.

The Rainier leader drew unto himself a few malcontents from the Sacramento team and was unexpectedly successful in making these Bolsheviks play harmoniously. But even with this big asset as his trump card, he could hardly have finished in the first division had Los Angeles, San Francisco and Salt Lake gone through the season with teams comparatively intact.

WERE NOT SURE.

The far northerners were not secure of the runner-up position until last Sunday's games had been finished. So little did Red Killefer think of second-fiddle honors that he left five of his players here when he went to the capital to play Sacramento.

The Angels' bunting hopes went glimmering when Griggs and McDonald were incapacitated for play through injuries. These injuries were of such a nature as practically to render these excellent men useless to the club for the remainder of the season. Both players were hitting in the .300 column at the time.

WRECKED STAFF.

Charley Graham practically lost all chances for the rag when he virtually wrecked his pitching staff by casting out Seaton and Smith. It was a bitter blow to San Francisco fans, but it was the only thing to do. Later on, the defection of Koerner absolutely put the team beyond even a remote thought of copping first honors.

Salt Lake was given a mortal blow through the Borton scandal. At the time of the disruption, Maggert and Rumler were playing the best ball of their career and were bruising the old pill in such a way as to call forth the admiring despair of their opponents. From the day of the enforced retirement of these two swell players the Mormons began to retrograde and were easy pickings for all teams.

YIPS PERK UP.

The sensation of the league's last few weeks was the work of Bill Rodgers's Senators. They just made life miserable for everybody and almost tore the heart out of Walter McCredie by pushing him into the pit just before the sound of taps.

Portland started the season with a plethora of juvenile snap and pep, but the jazz soon died a natural death, and as water is known to seek its level it was not long ere the kindergarten simmered down gradually into the second division.

Oakland was flashy by fits and starts. One day like champions the next like semipros. They had pretty good bingling material, but the projectors were not overburdened with effectiveness and one cannot steer clear of eddies and whirlpools without a rudder.

GIANT PLAYERS IN VIEW.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The New York National League club today released Albert J. White, infielder, to the Oakland (Cal.) Coast League club under option.

A Home Recipe for Gray Hair

Gray, streaked or faded hair can be immediately made black, brown or light brown, whichever shade you desire, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home:

Merely get a box of Orlex powder at any drug store. It costs very little and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in 2 oz. of distilled or rain water and comb it through the hair. Full directions for use and a $100.00 gold bond comes in each box, guaranteeing the user that Orlex powder does not contain silver, lead, zinc, sulphur, mercury, aniline, coal tar products or their derivatives.

It is safe, does not rub off, is not sticky or gummy and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger.—[Advertisement.

GUISTO TO GET CUT OF SERIES.

Tris Speaker believes in placing a premium on patriotism, or at least seeing that it is amply rewarded.

Louie Guisto did his bit in the Argonne and elsewhere. He was severely gassed. Even as late as last spring he felt the after-effects of this experience in the form of occasional attacks of vertigo. Because of this he hardly felt that he could stand the faster pace in the majors. He told Speaker of this and Tris agreed that it would be better for him to remain on the Coast another year.

But when it came to cutting up the world's series money, Speaker didn't forget that Guisto is the property of Cleveland and that but for injuries received in the war he would have been at first base for the Indians in their winning fight.

And he has declared Guisto in on a share of the winnings.

PITCHING AVERAGES

BABE RUTH GETS ANOTHER RECORD.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Chalk up another record to the credit of Babe Ruth. According to statistics compiled by Ernest J. Lanigan, who delves deeply into the dope each year for performances not covered in the usual list of records, Ruth drew a grand total of 150 passes during the 1920 campaign or thirty-two more than any other American League player ever drew in a single season. Ruth was hit three times during the year making a total of 153 trips to first base without hitting. The great number of compliments aries unquestionably prevented Babe from setting up an American League record for runs batted in. He sent 126 over the plate during the season, only eight below the record mark of 144, set up by Ty Cobb in 1911.

Ruth drew one or more passes in each of 101 games. He walked four times in two different games, got three passes in eleven contests and in twenty-four games he was twice favored.

SHOOTERS EXPECT MUCH COMPETITION.

With the wearing off of the opening of the duck and quail seasons, local trapshooting devotees are now looking forward to a great time next Sunday at the Los Angeles Gun Club, when Secretary Fred H. Teeple puts on a special fifty-target handicap shoot with trophies up for the high guns.

One or two added events may be put on, declares Teeple, if enough contending shooters are in the ground and request for more action.

LOCAL BILLIARD PLAYER DOWNED

Ricketts Scores Easy Victory Over Mike Long.

Fast Play Staged in National Championships.

Woods-Stafford Tilt Looked on as Crucial One.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—W. D. Ricketts of Flint, Mich., making his first appearance in a national pocket billiard championship scored an easy win over Matt Long of Los Angeles in the opening afternoon game at the Strauss Auditorium. Long was short on points and was swamped to the tune of 125 to 26. Ricketts's ability could not be judged by this game, but he scored a high run of thirty-one, the best up to that time in the tournament. Long was unable to reach double figures, a weak display. The scores:

Ricketts, 125; high run, 31; innings, 23.

PINCH HITTER.

Owing to a misunderstanding as to starting time James McCoy was not on hand for the second game and young Erwin Rudolph of Sayre, Pa., took his place against Bart Rhines, the veteran from Akron, O. The latter played finely, not making a miss in his first seventy balls. Runs of eleven, thirty-one and eighteen enabled him to lead, 79 to 32, in ten innings. Rudolph picked up later and the finishing innings had several good openings. The scores:

Rudolph, 86; high run, 33; innings, 27.

RAM FOR HIM!

Charles Seeback of Torrington, Ct., outplayed the veteran James McCoy of Richmond, Va., 125 to 100, in the first-night games in thirty innings. The Nutmeg State representative led, 43 to 42, in ten innings and then after a period of safety play he added runs of thirteen and twenty-four, giving him a lead of 96 to 65. McCoy later reduced this lead to seven points, but was unable to gain further. The scores:

McCoy, 100; high run, 19; innings, 29.

Seeback, 125; high run, 24; innings, 30.

The final game between Arthur Woods of Minneapolis and Clarence Safford was looked upon as one of the crucial battles, as both are picked to finish near the top.

BIG TICKET SALE CRACKS RECORDS.

TREMENDOUS DEMAND FOR THE THANKSGIVING DAY PASTEBOARDS.

Secretary A. M. Young of the Los Angeles Speedway Association reports that the ticket sale for the Thanksgiving Day 250-mile race, which opened Monday, was by far the biggest day's business in the history of the track, greatly exceeding the best day's business previous to any other event. Quite a number of requests yesterday came from people who asked for a lease on certain boxes, desiring to have the same box reserved for them at all events at the Speedway.

The intense interest in the race this year, according to Mr. Young, is undoubtedly due to the strenuous nature of the contest for the 1920 Speedway championship. Four of the drivers who will contest for the $35,000 prize money given to the winners of the race are in addition striving for the 1920 Speedway title, having secured a commanding lead over all other contestants through consistent winning in the other speed events of the year. The tickets are on sale at the B. H. Dyas Company and the Automobile Club of Southern California.

MEUSEL'S BALL CLUB IS MOVING OUT WEST.

Irish Meusel's barnstorming aggregation of big leaguers will arrive here November 1, it was announced yesterday by Joe Pirrone, and play a series of games with the White Sox baseball team (colored.)

On Meusel's team are Schmidt (Pittsburg,) catcher; Speed Martin (Cubs,) pitcher; Spec Meadows (Phillies,) pitcher; Hubbell (Phillies,) pitcher; Paullette (Phillies,) first base; Cutshaw (Pittsburg,) second base; Rawlings (Phillies,) shortstop; Boskel (Boston,) third base; Irish Meusel (Phillies,) left field; Bob Meusel (Yanks,) right field; Stengel (Phillies,) center field.

MARCH FIELD MEN TO TACKLE NAVY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 19.—That March Field's football team will represent the Army in the game to be played against the eleven of the All-Pacific Fleet on Armistice Day, at Paddock Field, Pasadena, became a certainty tonight. A committee from Pasadena was here this evening and signed up the contract with Capt. Peabody, manager of the aviation team which is being coached by Capt. A. W. Smith for the contest for the service championship.

The team will be sent against the Sherman Institute squad in a practice game tomorrow afternoon on the March Field gridiron.

GUST ITCHING FOR BULL.

Gust Pappas, who modestly claims the middleweightwrestling championship of the world, eased into town yesterday loudly paging Bull Montana. It seems that Bull's fame as a wrecking crew has spread to many fields. When Pappas received the word that Montana was getting good he hopped a Pullman and rushed to the Coast to end our handsome movie hero's career once and forever.

Gust wants to meet Bull anywhere, under any conditions, with or without brass knuckles, and bury your own dead. He has heard that Bull doesn't claim any wrestling titles and insists that he is one of the reasons for it. A bout between the two ought to have wonderful possibilities in the rough and tumble line.

Pappas weighs about 170 pounds these days and is in very good condition. He has been wrestling around the East for the past several years and has not visited the Coast since 1914. At that time he met Sam Clapham here and gave the young man an awful battle. The bout was declared a draw after two and a half hours of strenuous going. He put Tony Ajax on the skids here during the same season.

STANFORD DISPLEASED WITH TEAM'S WORK.

FRESHMEN PLAYED POORLY AGAINST DAVIS FARMERS. MUST IMPROVE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 19.—Both varsity and freshmen football teams must show a distinct improvement over their ragged playing of last Saturday, if they expect to win many games this season. The freshmen lost to the Davis Farmers by the score of 13 to 7 on the Stanford turf, but only played real football for about ten minutes during the second quarter. The rest of the game was marred by poor interference, poorer punting, and an absolute inability to make decent tackles.

If the Stanford freshmen defeat the University of Southern California Babes here next week they must develop at least a hundred per cent greater efficiency as a football machine. Coach Duffy Seay has only had the squad together for about two weeks and there is plenty of good material, but with the team "as is," the U.S.C. frosh certainly have the advantage next Saturday.

BIG ADVANCE HERE IN MOTORBOATING.

That Southern California is fast becoming the center of yachting and motorboating was indicated last week when Dr. Albert Solland, well known yachtman, declared that the Newport Harbor Yatch Club has closed its membership list.

"The club started a little over two years ago" said Dr. Solland "and at that time I believe we had two cat boats, a punt and about thirty members. Recently we closed the membership list with 300 strong and now have a waiting list of sixteen."

22 Years' Motor Building has produced the incomparable power plant for

R & V Knight Six

HERE is the R. & V. Knight six motor, the only Knight six made in America—a motor which combines the smooth, silent, flexible power of the sleeve-valve principle with the recognized advantages of six-cylinder construction.

It is the climax of a generation devoted to the building of superior motors and motor cars. In this motor the R & V Knight has a power plant steeled to hardest tests. Vibration is virtually eliminated.

There is a smooth, steady flow of power which only a Knight Six can deliver—and a reserve so mighty that it is all the wheels can take, even in hardest driving. In design, in those distinctive touches that lift a car from the commonplace, the R & V Knight leaves nothing to be desired. The chassis is as fine as the motor, and the body rivals them both.

DONOVAN TO STAR.

SIGNED FOR IRVING WILDAT FEATURE PLAY.

By Grace Kingsley.

A new star has just risen on the film horizon. Namely Jack Donovan, who has been signed to play the featured role in Irving Willat's second W. W. Hodkinson production, a version of Lincoln's "Partners of the Tide." Betty Francisco is leading woman. She will be remembered for her excellent work in William Desmond's picture, "A Broadway Cowboy."

The way Willat happened to engage Donovan as his star is interesting.

One might say Donovan won the role by main strength. Willat saw him in a picture with Bessie Love and in some other films. Donovan not only showed fine acting ability, but he also proved himself a husky lad by putting up some big scraps.

The star role of "Partners of the Tide" is that of a young diver, who has several fights, the principal one undersea. His opponent is a young giant.

When the book was presented to Willat for reading, he wondered where he could find just the right young actor, and there "dissolved in" before his memory's eye the picture of Jack Donovan. He sent for Donovan, found he was open for a picture engagement, and at once offered him a contract.

Work on the picture began last Saturday. The company went to San Francisco to make some of the scenes. They returned yesterday and will go to San Pedro and Catalina in a day or two for the undersea stuff.

Oh, yes, and they do say that Jack growth on his manly chest. didn't have to mascara the hirsute

Molly in Coogan Film.

Some people have one pet ambition and some another, and there's no accounting for tastes, but it seems that Molly Malone has just succeeded in gaining her professional heart's desire. This was nothing less than the privilege of playing in pictures opposite that handsome devil, Wheeler Oakman.

Yesterday Miss Malone affixed her signature to the dotted line of a contract under the terms of which she would appear as leading woman in "Peck's Bad Boy," in which tiny Jackie Coogan is star and Wheeler Oakman leading man.

Of course, Mr. Oakman is really a First National luminary and is merely being loaned to the Irving Lesser company, making the "Bad Boy" stories, pending the building of his studio and the obtaining of suitable story material for him.

Miss Malone is a Goldwyn player and has been loaned by that organization. Her latest feature was "Just Out of College," not yet released.

Work on the Peck stories was commenced yesterday under direction of Nate Watt, Bernard McCulville having just finished preparing the first story.

Instead of showing the bad boy in the light that the author did, Mr. McConville has arranged the portrayal as a real, honest-to-goodness American kid, who gets into many scrapes, none of too serious a nature.

The features are being made at the Louis B. Mayer studios. In the cast of the first picture are Josephine Adair, William V. Mong, Herbert Standing, Robert Badger, Mrs. Griffith and A. J. Menjou.

Brenon for Norma Talmadge.

Herbert Brenon has been engaged to direct Norma Talmadge. Miss Talmadge at present is in Jamaica, filming her current picture

Author Comes Home.

William E. Keefe, author of a series of comedies for the American Lifeograph Company, with studios in Portland, Or., has returned to his old stamping ground.

The comedies have been sold in New York and will shortly be released here.

There are three seasons in Portland, says Keefe, June, July and rain.

Sennett Denies.

Rumors that Mack Sennett is to abandon the two-reel comedy are met with emphatic denial from the comedy king himself.

"We are going to make fewer two-reel comedies," said Mr. Sennett yesterday; "that much is true. We are also going to continue five-reel comedies. We have no disposition to abandon the field in which, it may be said without egotism, the name of this organization has become identified throughout the world.

"Two-reel comedies are in greater demand than ever. It is merely in the matter of merit that the exhibitors and public have become more critical. On this account we have planned fewer two-reel comedies than we made per annum in the past, but those few shall be better."

Sylvia Breamer Soon.

They just can't stay away, it seems. Sylvia Breamer, who left California after the completion of Sidney Franklin's "Parrott and Company," is soon to return to the Coast to start work on Mr. Franklin's second independent production for First National.

Mary Pickford Flits.

Mary Pickford, with her director, Frances Marion, and a company of thirty, have left for Carmel-by-the-Sea to finish the exteriors of Miss Pickford's forthcoming production.

An entire village has been erected on the rocks near Carmel especially for this production. The company will be gone about a fortnight.

Fortune-Telling Note.

Marcus Loew and Sid Grauman are seen hobnobbing quite frequently around the Alexandria. There are whispers that the two are to combine their talents in making the new Loew theater at Seventh and Broadway a success.

Vanderbilt Visits Studios.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., is making the rounds of the picture studios these days, and visited Goldwyn's yesterday. He was entertained by Abraham Lehr, western manager.

Young Vanderbilt will visit the Ince studio today.

No, he isn't writing an article entitled "My Impressions of the Movies." Neither does he want to become an actor.

William Farnum Bulletin.

Three months of William Farnum's six months' vacation have elapsed. For six years Farnum planned a vacation and every year he was disappointed, so he determined to make up for lost time.

Mr. Farnum spent a few weeks at his home in Sag Harbor, L. I., and then boarded his new yacht and sailed away to Bucksport, Me., the home of his childhood.

Mr. Farnum owns a farm in Bucksport, but seldom sees it. Now he is planning to sail to Florida for what he calls some real fishing. He will be back with his grease paint under his arm at the Fox studio promptly January 1.

Couldn't Repeat.

An odd incident varied the professional happenings of the scenes of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" yesterday. Rex Ingram, director, found among the extras a serious-faced French girl who immediately attracted his attention. On inquiry he learned that she was Louise Rippert, a recent arrival in Hollywood's picture colony.

Just the type for one of the refugees before the advancing armies, thought Ingram. So he led her out to the public square of the village constructed upon Metro's ranch location in the Hollywood foothills and began to explain to her the requirements of the role he had selected for her. A moment later the girl's face paled and she turned her back upon the scene.

"I—I can't do it!" she exclaimed. "I've been through exactly this thing before—in just this spot. I couldn't live through that again for world."

Later, it was found that the girl had passed through almost identically the same scene when the Marne country was evacuated by the French civilians preparatory to the decisive battle of the war.

The Rippert girl, with other members of her family, fled before the advancing Germans while her home village—an exact reproduction of which has been erected here—was under bombardment.

"TICKLE ME" IS TICKLING SHOW.

If you haven't been there for a long time, it will probably tickle you.

"Tickle Me," this week's show at the Burbank, may even tickle you if you are one of the regular patrons. In spite of the fact that you saw all the girls last week.

We are living an era of the stage's history when the stage in many places seems to figure only as a starting place. The Burbank is a good example. There you find a runway around the orchestra pit for the chorus to vamp us on. Another extends down the aisle—still for the chorus. And not content with that, from the middle of this last runway they operate a one-(wo)man elevator—for Irene Brooks.

Then, up along the sides of the upper boxes, they've built a couple of short runways for a few of the chorus. And up above that—but why go further? Enough that they even put the dear girls on the ceiling.

The show is no better than it ever has been except that it boasts a larger company. The music is just as snappy, the jokes of the same vintage, the plot just as conspicuous by its absence.

Enhancing Films With Golden Youth.

In Popular Features.

Ruth Golden has a leading role in "Blue-Streak McCoy," at the Symphony, and Billie Cotton, clever child actress, is in "Earthbound," at Miller's.

DESERT ISLAND LURES AT CLUNE'S.

How do you like desert islands? They're fascinating, aren't they? Especially when the heroine and the hero are all alone—or think they are—and aren't on speaking terms—and then the madman attacks the heroine and the hero comes to the rescue, and they find a boat and forgive each other and sail back home. Doesn't it make you want to go out and hunt up a desert isle of your own?

"Marooned Hearts" at Clune's Broadway, gives us again the selfish heroine who cannot see that a doctor is more essential in the operating room of a hospital saving someone's life than at her side tasting the joys of a little picnic for two. But then, as she knew he was going to propose, perhaps she had some excuse.

Conway Tearle, as the young and rising Dr. Paul Carrington, lends his convincing acting to a play that is rather far-fetched. Watching him handle the business of star-in-chief you'll forget that desert islands aren't located for her. A moment later the girl's face paled and she turned her back upon the scene.

Zena Keefe is the selfish young lady who follows her hero to the tropical islands where he had gone to experiment with his pet theory after she had ruined his career in the big city.

There's a nice fight on a small boat between two villains. There's another fight on the shore in the dead of night between the main villain and the hero, and there is a fire on the yacht, so you'll find all the excitement you care for in "Marooned Hearts."

"RAGTIME DINING CAR" ACT IS HIT.

The offering at the New Pantages this week is one of the best vaudeville entertainments that has been given since the new theater was opened. Howard and Fielding, assisted by Oscar Lee, furnish the most attractive and amusing act, billed as "A Ragtime Dining Car." The singing of these three men is excellent, their jokes are new and the harmonious crying of the three comedians evokes a big laugh. One of the men when asked where he lived said "I have no more home than the League of Nations."

Gus and Esther Elmore in "Circus Days" do a lot of clever singing, and Gus's make-up as a wind man out-caves the cave man. Miss Elmore is a pretty dancer. She has very attractive mannerisms. Her song, "I Want a Wild Man," makes a hit.

Olga Stech, who is making her first appearance in vaudeville here this week, sang a group of numbers which were well received by the audience. Jarrow, the humorous trickster who originated the lemon trick, was applauded.

Lovers of syncopated music will like the Steed Syncopated Septette, who, with Bae Bell and Ralph Hertzein in "Spicy Syncopations" do some very clever work. The show was opened by Mack and Williams, whose feature is dancing up and down a stairway.

The seventh episode of "The Lost City," and a Fox comedy drama, with Shirley Mason as the leading woman, completed the bill.

MAY STAGE "SHANEWIS."

PLAN FOR GIVING OF CADMAN OPERA IS LAUNCHED.

By Edwin Shallert.

Charles Wakefield Cadman, the musical composer, is plated these day over prospects for the presentation of his opera, "Shanewis," here early in the year.

It seems that a movement has been started among the musical organizations, and individuals to stage the Indian opera, which had its premiere at the Metropolitan in New York, or a series of performances, running possibly a week. Another opera or a ballet will be given in conjunction with "Shanewis."

A cast of prominent principals will appear here and the orchestra will be assembled from the resident players.

There is a strongly evinced desire to hear Mr. Cadman's opera here, because of its success in the East, and the fact that the composer has been a resident of the city for several years.

Lasky Studios to Hum.

The air at the Famous Players-Lasky studios will soon be filled with the camera's hum, for the organization has an impressive schedule of work outlined for the early fall.

Among the features that will shortly be under way are "The Daughter of a Magnate," by Frank Spearman, with Wallace Reid starred, Margaret Loomis as leading woman and Frank Urson directing; "The Dollar-a-Year Man," featuring Roscoe Arbuckle, with Lila Lee as the feminine lead and James Cruze megaphoning; a new Cecil De Mille picture, the name and nature of which is being kept secret; a new Thomas Meighan film, with Tom Forman directing, and a new George Melford production from an original story by Hector Turnbull, scenarized by Mary O'Connor.

William De Mille has already started photographing the action of "What Every Woman Knows," with Conrad Nagel and Lois Wilson in the leads.

The two Realart companies which lease from Famous Players-Lasky, will also have new pictures under way shortly.

Miss Paige Aunt.

Jean Paige, Vitagraph star, is now an aunt. A wire from her brother in Illinois yesterday told of the birth of a daughter in his family.

This is the first time Miss Paige has felt the additional responsibility of auntship in her young career.

Comedy Troupe to Cross.

Sending a comedy troupe abroad is a new venture in filmdom. But it apparently promises a lot of bright ideas in fun-film making if one may judge by the project of the Special Pictures Corporation.

This organization announces its intention of sending a complete comedy troupe to Europe within the next thirty days. Neely Edwards will be in charge of production, and Reggie Morris is to direct.

Two reel comedies will be made in England and France, old English farces being used as the foundation for the work in Britain and Parisian forces in France.

Native players will be used to supplement the work of the principals who will go abroad.

"Earthbound" Pleases.

The popularity of "Earthbound" now showing at Miller's Theater seems to be undimished. The spiritual appeal of the story is finding a wide audience, and the excellence of the acting, with the unusual technical feats, command great favor. This feature is to be followed by D. W. Griffith's "The Love Flower."

Lasky Soon to Return.

Jesse L. Lasky, first vice-president of Famous Players-Lasky, is expected to return to Los Angeles in a month or six weeks.

Tony is Decorated.

Antonio Moreno is wearing a full beard these days. He acquired the chin adornment on a fishing trip to Catalina, which he took in company with T. Roy Barnes, the actor, and "Steve" Brodie, the local manufacturer. Tony had his face photographed upon his return to the studio. He will, however, say goodby to the whiskers prior to starting his first feature next week.

Strong-Arm Austin.

William Austin of the Morosco stock company is looking for a lost Ford. The Lizzie was not his own property. Instead he was driving it for a friend. The back stage gossip at the Morosco has the story this way:

Bill was attempting to crank the little bus. He twisted it too vigorously and the machine flew off the crank and disappeared over a high office building.

Conjunction of Planets.

Byron Morgan, author of "The Roaring Road," "Excuse My Dust" and "What's Your Hurry?" the three automobile stories in which Wallie Reid starred, has purchased a new home in Hollywood. And it's a coincidence that Mr. Morgan's home is directly opposite that of Mr. Reid.

Julia Again in Cast.

Julia Ring, sister of Blanche and Frances, is again to head the cast of "Up in Mabel's Room," which comes to the Mason shortly. Miss Ring played this role upon the visit of the farce last season.

Others in the play are Seger Midgley, James Norval, Josephine Saxe, Harry Bradley, Grace Fielding.

Bebe Daniels's Film Soon.

Bebe Daniels's first Realart starring picture, "You Never Can Tell," is to show on the screen at Clune's Broadway next week. This comedy is founded on the Saturday Evening Post story of the same name by Grace Lovell Bryan.

Miss Daniels is well known from her appearance in comedy and later in feature plays. Her principal previous success was in Cecil De Mille's picture, "Why Change Your Wife?"

Light Opera Star Films.

Grace Van Studdiford, whose last Los Angeles appearance was in the first company playing "Maytime," is to appear on the screen next week in support of Norma Talmadge. The Talmadge feature is "The Branded Woman," which is to show at the Kinema Theater.

Will Show "Leopard Woman."

The J. Parker Read production of "The Leopard Woman," which is to be released on the Associated Producers' program, has been signed up for showing shortly at Talmadge's Broadway Theater. Mr. Tally has also secured for presentation "The Marriage of William Ashe" and "Her Soul and Body." Metro releases.

Signs with Metro.

Wesley Ruggles, director of "The Leopard Woman," has just signed with Metro Pictures Corporation to make a special picture at Lake. This picture is as a Wesley Ruggles production is stated.

"'Way Down East' surpasses anything the master has ever done. . . . The great Griffith of yesterday has been outGriffithed by the greater Griffith of today . . . it tugs at the heartstrings, but goes deeper, to the soul . . . and a way down east blizzard that makes the blood tingle in your warm veins. . . . It wins sympathy and clasps you tightly with suspense . . . with a dramatic tensity never equalled . . . a crashing, smashing, awe-engendering climax, fearful yet magnificent in beauty and splendor.—(Guy Price in The Herald.)

as to its beauty

"'Way Down East' is a beautiful vision . . . with soft landscapes of Corot, the humanity of Millet in every reel . . . with mounting suspense . . . life itself seems to breathe from the silver sheet . . . for art and reality vie with sheer beauty to charm the eye."—(Florence Lawrence in The Examiner.)

and being unusual

"A new wealth of pictorial beauty to shine before bedazzled eyes . . . it is a triumphant phase of Griffith's genius as an innovator . . . with a magnificent kaleidoscope of spring, summer and winter effects, never before manifest in such lavish actuality . . . the landscapes are like Corot paintings, and he has fired his human portraits with the flaming colors of Zuloaga. Other directors have to bow to his genius. . . . By far Griffith's greatest achievement and its wealth of pictorial beauty will become screen history."—(Edwin Schallert in The Times.)

"The audience is lifted to a plane of unaffected excitement by one of the greatest pieces of harrowing realism ever thrown athwart the silver sheet . . . for Griffith is the leader of the craft . . . so sensationally dramatic, even the most sapient member of the picture guild must have clenched his fists and held his breath as Griffith rolled up the scenes to a tremendous crest. . . . All in a way no one else has rivalled . . . in contrast landscapes, sunsets, rivers and lakes and groves flit across the screen in a succession of splendor . . . and there is Griffith's unchallenged genius in handling masses of people."—(Monroe Lathrop in The Express.)

whiff of lilacs

"Unparalleled acting, exceptional photography and impressive spectacularism thrilled the audience . . . Griffith has breathed new life into the drama in a way that fires the emotions . . . the pastoral beauty brought the whiff of lilac and appleblossom into the theater . . . and never in the history of the screen such gripping scenes"—(May Markson in The Record.)

PARK TOUR PARTY ARRIVES

Motorists on Long Pilgrimage in Cause of Good Roads Are Guests Here.

Headed for the Grand Canyon on the last lap of an unusual journey, a party of sixteen motorists who represent the Park-to-Park Highway Association on a tour of all national parks, reached this city last night. The party is stopping at the Hotel Clark. This forenoon it will be taken for a visit to the motion-picture studios and tonight it will take dinner at the Clark, with officials of the Chamber of Commerce and the Automobile Club of Southern California. In the party is Maj. E. H. Pershing of New York, a cousin of Gen. Pershing.

The object of this tour is to preach all along the road the gospel of good roads with links hooking together all the national parks. The party has stopped in dozens of cities along the route, meeting with automobile clubs and chambers of commerce to urge automobilists to support all State highway measures and press Congress to appropriate monly with which to link up the parks. The tour is being conducted under the direction of O. Van Wyck, representing Stephen Mather, superintendent of the national park system.

The motorists started at Denver, going first to Rocky Mountain National Park, then to the Yellowstone, Glacier, Mt. Rainier, Crater Lake, Lassen Peak, Yosemite and Sequoia parks. From here they will go to the Grand Canyon and Mesa Verde, and thence to Denver, at the end of a 5590-mile journey.

There are seven cars in the train, with a White truck carrying the baggage and supplies. In the party are Milton Lusk and Rodney Davis of Cleveland, Maj. and Mrs. Pershing of New York; Col. A. L. Westgard and O. Van Wyck of Washington, D. C.; Gus Holmes of Cody, Wyo.; Scott Leavitt of Great Falls, Mont.; A. G. Lucier of Cody; Mr. and Mrs. A. Shaver of Shoshone, Wyo.; Harry Burhans of Denver; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sands of Okmulgee, Okla.; and Mrs. Lewiston and Dan Nee of San Francisco, the latter representing the California Automobile Club.

Maj. Pershing said last night that California has the best roads of any State the party has toured, but that her connections with the Yosemite and Sequoia parks could easily be improved. He states that the party was able to drive in and out of all the parks save Glacier National, where the travelers had to ship their cars fifty miles by rail. He declares that travel to the parks has been very heavy this year and that it will greatly increase when roads are improved so that a party trekking across the country by automobile can take in all the national playgrounds in a single trip.

DANSANT IN PARK.

First Affair in Westlake Pavilion to be Given Tonight.

An innovation in the amusement life of the Los Angeles parks will be noted tonight when the first dansant will be given in the new pavilion in Westlake Park. Hereafter dances will be held every afternoon and evening during the winter months. Permission was granted to hold the dances at the last meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners, at which time Mrs. Sloan Orcutt, president of the board, voiced the hope that winter dancing at Westlake Park would grow into a permanent institution.

Mayor Snyder and other city officials have been invited to attend the opening of the season tonight. Mrs. Sloan Orcutt and Mrs. W. H. Cline, wife of Commissioner Cline, will be patronesses.

Shortridge Promises Monrovia Throng to Help State With Tariff.

entire people into his confidence. And this is how it must be if we are to go forward as a nation enjoying internal prosperity and commanding the respect of the world."

SHORTRIDGE ON ISSUES.

Mr. Shortridge, who was given a hearty greeting, spoke to fine advantage. He touched on the tariff on an outstanding issue in the present campaign, defined his position on the League of Nations, and particularly emphasized the need of stopping the immigration of Japanese and other Asiatic peoples into California, reiterating the things he said in this regard in his statement given out here Monday. He predicted an overwhelming victory for the Republican ticket at the coming election and urged his auditors to work for the election of a solid G.O.P. delegation to Congress from California.

Mr. Shortridge also reiterated his former pledges to work for tariff protection for California.

"The tariff issue is vital to our citrus fruit growers," he said. "It is needed by the grape growers, the raisin and fig industry, the walnut growers, bean growers and wool producers. No tariff relief can be hoped for from a Democratic administration.

"I favor the extension of our highway system and approve the policy of the Federal and State governments in providing for the construction of permanent highways, and shall do all in my power to aid in the development of irrigation, reclamation, flood control and water power projects so necessary in the upbuilding of our State, as well as to the development of our harbors and inland waterways and aerial mail service."

Ly to the need of giving "President Gov. Stephens referred particularHarding," as he called him, a working majority of Republicans in the next Congress. This, he declared, is vital to the success of the next four years.

"To keep the political sky clear," he asserted, "we must on November 2 elect Harding and Coolidge along with Shortridge, Osborne and Van de Water. If we do this our duty will be well done."

Former Senator Flint, who strongly urged the election of Mr. Shortridge and the Republican Congressional candidates, also emphasized the urgent call for a protective tariff for California's industries.

Following this meeting, Mr. Shortridge and Gov. Stephens were taken to Monrovia, where they were guests at a dinner in their honor given by the Monrovia Republican Club, and later to Pasadena, where they addressed two meetings. They leave today for the Imperial Valley to fill several important speaking engagements. They will wind up the Republican campaign in Southern California at a rally at Trinity Auditorium here on the night of October 29.

At the Monrovia meeting, held in the Colonial Theater, Mr. Shortridge, Gov. Stephens, Mr. Van de Water and Congressman Osborne were the chief speakers. A. G. Wessling, president of the local Republican organization and a personal friend of Senator Harding, presided. Mr. Shortridge devoted his address there principally to the tariff issue, declaring that "California will not and cannot grow under the blight and frost of Democratic free trade, but by intelligent legislation, directed through a Republican administration with a Republican President and a Republican Senate, we can become the greatest agricultural, manufacturing and commercial commonwealth in this great nation of ours."

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Los Angeles Banker Talks to National Convention; Muslin in Big Drop.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

Bankers of America are in national convention. The first sessions were held yesterday in Washington. The attendance is larger and more representative, the speakers of wider international prominence, and the subjects of greater significance than ever before.

Los Angeles is deeply interested in the convention because the problems which are to be considered are, many of them, vital to this community; because she has sent some of her ablest financiers to the meeting; because two of them are scheduled for important addresses, and because a determined effort is to be made to bring the 1921 convention to this city.

L. E. Loeberry, former State Senator, and vice-president of the security bank and Trust Company, of which institution he is also trust officer, was one of the first speakers addressing the trust company section on the question of the cooperation of state vice-presidents of the section.

"This is a subject," said the Los Angeles banker, "which should be thoroughly explained to those not familiar with the form of organization. The trust company section of the American Bankers' Association is represented in each State by a vice-president who represents it in all State matters. It is the function of this vice-president to carry to the trust companies in his State all official messages from the parent body, and in turn make a full report of affairs and conditions within his State affecting trust companies."

The speaker pointed out the need for reorganization and revitalization of the work of these vice-presidents, developing ways of co-operation with each other and with the central organization. He told his audience that there is a mine of information available which, so far, has not been made accessible to the various trust companies throughout the country.

In conclusion, he proposed that the State vice-presidents should disseminate this information, correlate the work of trust companies throughout the country, work out standardized charges and offer constructive suggestions for the building up of the trust business nationally, raise it to an ethical plane, remove the causes of friction with the bar, better serve the public, consolidate the defenses against unjust and hostile attack from any source, to the end that trust companies will become better instrumentalities for the discharge of fiduciary functions.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS.

Balanced production, better blue-sky legislation, tax revision, greater foreign trade interest, less industrial unrest, were stressed by Richard E. Hawes of St. Louis, president of the American Bankers' Association, in opening the forty-sixth annual convention of the bankers yesterday.

Lack of production has never been the real serious handicap that the public was led to believe, according to Hawes:

"While there is some disposition to complain about the reduced unit, or physical production of goods, yet there is good reason to believe that this is not as great as is commonly supposed, and certainly does not constitute one of our chief difficulties. Indeed, careful analysis seems to show that the per capita production of goods has, since 1914, somewhat increased. It reached a high level in 1916, and although there has been a decrease since that date, it is yet somewhat above the 1914 level and shows indications of improving.

"Our real difficulty has been on unbalanced production. The war demanded the diversion of productive forces into certain restricted channels and we have not yet been able to realign these forces.

WILD CAT MENACE.

"Increased production is not clearly so much a cause for concern as is more economical consumption. The orgy of foolish extravagance and speculative consumption which has prevailed in the United States, and is yet too largely evident, must cease if we are to obtain a permanently strong position.

"A campaign to educate the people against worthless stocks, to safeguard and render useful every dollar of capital available, is a duty charged to the bankers. Closer relations must be encouraged with customers and frank advice given against reckless speculation, but at the same time the customer should be given to understand that the banker is not averse to his making proper and sound investment of his savings. The Liberty Bond holder has been a great field for the glib stock salesman. The people must be encouraged to retain them as the safest investment they can make. Millions yearly can be saved to legitimate and vitally necessary reconstruction work through discouragement in the purchase of so-called wild cat developments. The menace was never more apparent; the need for dollars thus squandered never greater."

MUSLIN TAKES DROP.

One of the most significant price drops Trade Talk has encountered during the present movement is that announced from the offices of Cooper, Coate & Casey, yesterday, on bleached muslins, cambrics and nainsooks. For instance, it is pointed out by M. G. Cooper, president, that the quotations on what is known as CCC 4-4 bleached was 33 cents per yard until the promulgation of the new price list, which is for November delivery, and quotes the revised price at 16½ cents, with proportionate reduction in other grades. This, of course, refers to the wholesale market, but so radical a price readjustment should find early reflection in the retail stores.

NEW H. & H. CASHIER.

The Home and Hibernian Bank has a new cashier. He is J. W. Klint, whose rise in the local banking world has been rapid. About two years ago Mr. Klint took charge of the American branch of the Home Savings Bank, and greatly developed the business of that branch and increased the efficiency of the personnel. The new cashier was reared on a farm near Oelwein, Iowa, and has had a varied experience in the financial and business world. He was one of the organizers of the Iowa Savings Bank of Oelwein and later became president of that institution.

ELLIOT AND HORNE.

Elliot and Horne, who recently removed from the mezzanine floor of the Citizens' National Bank Building to the eleventh floor of the same building in order to provide larger quarters for the bond department of the bank, yesterday announced that about March 1 of next year they will move to the new Stock Exchange Building, now in course of construction. Until the new building is completed, however, the firm will continue to occupy its present quarters in the Citizens' National Bank Building.

CALIFORNIA OIL.

Some idea of the enormous demand made upon the petroleum industry of California may be gained by a comparison of the current month's figures prepared by the Independent Oil Producers' Agency.

Notwithstanding the fact that the production of 9,176,533 barrels, produced during September, 1920, is one of the largest ever recorded, there was a shortage for the month of 374,600 barrels.

Production during September was 14,365 barrels in excess of the August daily production of 295,853 barrels. This excess represents an increase of 141,039 barrels over the total August production of 8,935,449 barrels.

Shipments during September totaled 9,401,138 barrels, 546,827 barrels less than the August shipments of 9,947,975 barrels. This decrease in shipments is accounted for by one extra day's shipments during August, so that the September daily shipments of 313,371 barrels is but 7531 barrels less than the daily shipments made during August of 320,902 barrels.

Stocks on hand January 1, 1920, totaled 27,804,391 barrels and have decreased 7,215,174 barrels to date, leaving a balance on hand October 1, 1920, of but 20,589,217 barrels.

Fifty-three wells were completed during September with an initial daily output of 20,000 barrels, a decrease of two completions and 200 barrels initial daily output.

Seventy-three new rigs were erected, eleven wells abandoned and 424 wells drilling during this period.

Producing wells during the month totaled 5396, an increase of twenty-six over the preceding month.

LOS ANGELES STOCKS.

The market yesterday continued to be quite individualized. Volume was good and prices steady. The Oatmans were in good shape, Tom Reed selling from an opening of $1.37½ to closing sales at $1.45, a strength which was also reflected in the other leaders in that district, notably United Eastern, $2.75, and United American, 27½ cents. In the bank and industrial list a block of Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank registered $300; Goodyear, preferred, was around $82; Los Angeles Investment, 90 cents. Oils showed little deviation from prices established Monday. Liberty bonds were strong. The trading was largely confined to the old familiar list-

Bond Market

By C. F. SEIDEL,

Manager, Bond Department, Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bldg.

Securities just placed on the bond market by the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company make the operations of this concern of particular interest at this time.

Organized in April, 1917, actual construction of the present modern shipyard was begun on the twenty-first day of the following month. Sixty-nine acres of marshy swamp on Smith's Island, in the west basin of Los Angeles Harbor at San Pedro, were quickly converted into terra firma and a shipbuilding and repair plant emerged, under the pressure of war, as though by magic.

The keel of Hull No. 1 was laid in Building Slip No. 1 on July 23, 1917, and there have been launched to date twenty-eight hulls of 8800 D.W.T. capacity, of which twenty-seven have been turned over to the Emergency Fleet Corporation. Hull No. 28, which was recently launched, will be ready for delivery the next few weeks.

With the exception of Hull No. 12, the West Arvada, which was sunk in September, 1919, off the coast of Holland, by coming in contact with submerged German mines, all the above ships are doing splendid service and proving their seaworthiness in different parts of the world. The company has received excellent reports both officially and unofficially of the remarkable service which these ships are giving, proving the excellence both of workmanship and material which have been put into them. The Angeles, for instance, recently established a record of an average of 12.5 knots between Darron, Manchuria, and Portland, Ore., a distance of 5290 miles.

At the present time, Hulls 29, 30, 31 and 32 are on Slips 1, 2, 3 and 4. Upon the completion of the four ships now on the ways, the keels will be laid for Hulls 33, 34 and 35. When these latter vessels are completed, the plant will have turned out more than 320,000 deadweight tonnage.

One of the most important assets of this plant is the climatic conditions, which guarantee over 300 working days in the year, the variation in climate being so small that there is neither extreme heat nor cold, nor is there in the winter season enough rain to cause any appreciable suspension of work on that account.

Also it has always been the practice of the company to keep its stock of steel, lumber and all other necessary material at such a point that all work can be executed without delay for lack of material.

The management of the company is as follows: President, Fred L. Baker; Vice-President and General Manager, S. L. Naphtaly; Assistant to General Manager, James Reed; Comptroller, F. G. Phillips; Works Manager, John Murray; Secretary, E. M. Leaf.

The securities issued by the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, which are now available at the Bond Department of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank are in the shape of a $1,250,000 issue of 8% Serial Gold Bonds. The security for the issue is a first lien on all property of the company of every name and nature, both personal and real. Inventory and appraisal of the company's properties including buildings, plants and machinery, amounts to $3,844,823.44, which with the value of the 12,000-ton floating dry dock, brings the total to $4,844,823.44. In addition there are net quick assets of in excess of $3,000,000. The net earnings for the past three years were $5,543,803.39, before allowance for depreciation, which the company's engineer estimates at $884,171.

The twenty-seven ships delivered in the last two years, of a gross tonnage of 237,600, aggregated over $42,000,000. Contracts on hand for eight large vessels, aggregate approximately $15,000,000, in addition to the remodeling of the Steamship Yale at a maximum figure of $550,000. The estimated net earnings for dry dock operations during the next three years are placed at $270,000, while the net earnings on ship repair work for the next three years are estimated at $430,000.

The bonds are in denominations of $1000 and $500, and are tax exempt in California. The normal Federal income tax of not to exceed 4 per cent will be paid by the company. The bonds are subject to call on any interest payment date at 103 and interest. Interest and principal are payable semi-annually, September 1 and March 1. Beginning September 1 1921, the bonds mature in $100,000 amounts up to and including September 1, 1929, and $380,000 on September 1, 1930. The price on all maturities is 100 and accrued interest, yielding 8 per cent.

These bonds offer a splendid investment opportunity!

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The stock market was on a more stable basis today, although the aimless drift of prices during the early periods continued to reflect economic readjustments at home and abroad.

Later the coal strike in Egypt and in consequent demonstrations of unemployed, caused further weakness in foreign exchange, the rate for British demand bills falling almost to $3.40 for the pound sterling.

A significant sidelight on domestic industrial conditions was seen in the sweeping wage contraction for September, pay rolls in several lines of cotton and kindred manufacture showing declines of 25 to almost 40 per cent.

Encouragement was found in the investment situation, however, several new domestic and foreign flotations being oversubscribed.

Withdrawals through the local Federal Reserve Bank of some $30,000,000 of treasury funds had no visible effect on the money market. Call money was plentiful at 7 per cent and even 6 per cent before the close.

Oils, shippings, tractions and sugars furnished much of the day's limited momentum. Utilities were bought on a favorable legal decision in Philadelphia relating to higher fares, while sugars were responsive to measures now under way to relieve acute conditions in Cuba. The few noteworthy gains at the firm close included United Fruit, Mexican Petroleum, Nickel Plate, Sears Roebuck, Reading and Retail Stores. Sales amounted to 385,000 shares.

Bonds were active and irregular during the early trading, Liberty issues yielding with the prominent rails and industrials, but some of the lost ground was recovered in the final dealings. Total sales, (par value) $13,200,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

FINANCIAL AND TRADE REVIEW.

MONTEBELLO BONDS SOLD.

The $150,000 issue of Montebello school district 6 per cent bonds were sold yesterday by the Board of Supervisors to the National City Company, which offered the highest premium, $4515. Other bidders on the issue were as follows: Citizens' National Bank, $3757; R. H. Moulton & Co., $3715; Torrance Marshall Company, $3606; Blyth, Witter & Co., $3535; Drake, Riley & Thomas, $3408; Security Trust and Savings Bank, $3125; Blankenhorn-Hunter-Dulin Company, $3110; E. H. Rollins & Sons, $2865; William R. Staats & Co., $2658; Baer, Brown & Parsons, $2617; Stephens & Co., $2013; Home and Hibernian Bank, $2007; Bank of Italy, $1625; Carstens & Earles, $1255.25.

TREASURY NOTES ALLOTTED.

Total subscriptions to the last issue of treasury certificates maturing March 15, 1921, amounted to $185,076,500, Secretary Houston announced. The amount offered was $100,000,000 or thereabouts and the total amount of subscriptions allotted was $124,252,500.

FOOD PRICE DECLINE.

That the price decline is about to be reflected in the food market, which thus far it has pretty well succeeded in detouring, is indicated by various straws which show the trend of the wind and find reflection in the current issue of the Grocers' Journal.

"Remember," says this trade organ, "the toboggan is on its way, merrily dashing downhill, loaded with some of the leading staples in the retail grocers' stocks. How soon it will reach bottom no one can tell, but the drop is swift and sure. It is up to you, Mr. Retail Grocer to be careful. . . . Remember, almost every package in stock is now declining a few cents, and the aggregate amounts to a considerable loss daily. So sit tight, buy sparingly, and sell at the old price until your stocks are exhausted."

PROHIBITION AND CHEESE.

Eastern cheese factories report a marked falling off in demand since prohibition. The saloon with its free lunch was a heavy consumer of cheese, and the market does not appear to have sought other channels.

BOND MARKET STRONG.

Mr. Joseph Curtis Tyler, manager of the bond department of Carstens & Earles, Inc., of Seattle, is in the city on a trip of inspection through the Southwest, where his firm has many large interests. Mr. Tyler is very optimistic for the immediate future of the bond market on the Pacific Coast.

"All along the Coast the reports from our different offices are most gratifying. Our Los Angeles office, which covers Southern California, advises us that they anticipate heavy bank buying as soon as the peak of local financing is past. Money stringency has prevented general bank buying nation wide which has been a large factor in the adjustment of bond prices to their present level. Far-sighted investors are now grasping the opportunity to acquire holdings of good bonds at low prices. We think the recovery of prices will come with a steady, sure stride. Already the municipal market on the Atlantic seaboard is showing marked improvement and

PRICES IN GRAIN HIT THE GRADE.

Numerous Sharp Rallies, but Finish Well Toward Low Point.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Grain prices were on the down grade in a great part of the day. There were numerous sharp rallies of short duration but the finish was well toward the low point with severe losses. Lack of confidence on the part of buyers coupled with an extremely pessimistic feeling regarding economic conditions in this country and Europe was the basis for the selling. It was at times a case of finding buyers except at prices of cost of production or any other conditions.

Corn declined to the lowest price in four years and finished with losses of 2¾@4¼ cents, October leading. Wheat lost 3¼@4 cents, oats 1¾ cents, rye 1@2¼ cents, barley 2¼ cents.

Depressing factors in wheat included larger arrivalances of country holdings in districts in the Southwest, one house reporting overseas as large as 8 millions. Heavy pressure from elevator interests and speculators, combined with poor support other than by shorts and claims of a poor export demand also counted against the price.

A bid business in corn and oats prices were down to new low levels with a break of 3¼@6¼ cents, with the close on a rally of ¾@1 cent from the low point on heavy covering.

Oats were under pressure with prices the lowest of the season for December. Cash prices were off sharply in all markets with losses ranging from 4 3/4@11¼ cent.

STRONGER UNDERTONE DEVELOPS FOR BARLEY

Although there was very little buying activity during the session on the local grain exchange yesterday, a strong tone developed in the movements of cash and basis, and closing prices were higher all along the line. A sharp advance was made in transit barley, which was in good demand. Other scarcer shipments were mostly 50 cents per ton higher, the future market showing a corresponding harder advance of 50 cents per ton, and the December shipment 75 cents per ton. Feed barley also stronger, the transit article showing up 50 cents per ton during the day. Corn of Sunday sold cheaper hands at $2.30 per cental, Milo remained quotationally unchanged at the head of the market for the day, but the November delivery moved up $1 per ton over the quotations of the previous day.

Recovery Made on New York Cotton Market.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Recovery of more than a cent a pound in the cotton market was shown during early trading hours here today. December contracts which yesterday sold down to 18.75 cents, on the opening advanced to 18.96 cents owing to the unexpectedly strong showing of Liverpool and less active selling by southern interests. Unofficial reports from the Southwest said holding of spot cotton was more determined.

Prices then were reported on the early advance which carried December up to 19.06 cents and January to 18.75 cents, or 106@120 points net higher. The demand from the interior of cotton there were reactions during the middle of the day with January selling off to 18.53 cents, or about 50 points from the best.

There was renewed covering and the market strengthened in the afternoon with December 70 points net higher.

The PRINCIPLES of PROFITABLE INVESTMENT
This bound book of 64 pages will help any man or woman to choose investments more wisely. It explains the fundamentals of investing, yet it is not "heavy" or tiresome—on the contrary it is intensely interesting. It will give you a "close-up" view of the stock market and explain how to make a substantial profit in listed stocks and bonds. Also the method of gaining control of corporations. Write for this book of Profitable Investment. It will be mailed to you upon request.

FLEET TO MAKE PANAMA CRUISE

Will Meet Atlantic Fighters There in January.

South American Ports to See Vessels in February.

Gunnery Training is Ordered for Rest of Month.

Both divisions of the Pacific Fleet will leave their base at Los Angeles Harbor early in January for a cruise to Panama Bay, where they will rendezvous with the Atlantic Fleet, and then cruise on down the western coast of South America as far as Valparaiso, Chile, according to a schedule of employment for the battleship force which was issued yesterday by Admiral Rodman, commander of the fleet. Return will be made to the base here on March 8.

The new schedule, which covers the period from the 12th inst. to June 30, 1921, calls for gunnery training, machine overhaul and routine from now until November. Early next month the Sixth Division of the fleet will sail for San Francisco and Puget Sound points. The men of the Sixth Division will have shore leave and holiday liberty at San Francisco, and those of the Eighth Division will be here during the Christmas season.

The New Mexico, the flagship, will be detached from the rest of the fleet from November 12 to 25, and during that period will carry Admiral Rodman and members of the Congress Committee on Naval Bases to various points on the coast of this State.

MAKES LEAGUE PLEA.

Sons of Revoluton Observe Yorktown Day, Listen to Talk.

Leading nations of the world, those who believe the United States the most progressive country in the world, and who marvel at the wealth and strength of this nation, cannot understand why America has not joined the League of Nations, Leslie B. Henry yesterday told the Sons of the Revolution at the luncheon meeting held at 741 South Broadway in commemoration of the battle of Yorktown.

U. S. District Judge Bledsoe was the toastmaster and introduced the speaker. Besides Mr. Henry's address Burt I. Chase sang, accompanied by Albert F. Stepan at the piano. The luncheon was arranged by Edward Alonzo Talbot, John Newton Russell, Jr., Hubert Lewright Eaton, Elmer Dascomb Stacy, Richard William Kirkley and George Albert Mesick.

NOW SOUTH PASADENA WANTS IN.

Special Committee Sees Service Board to Talk Over Water Costs.

County Officers to Receive Public There Wednesday.

Institution Established to Check the White Plague.

Olive View Sanatorium for the care and cure of patients suffering from tuberculosis will be opened November 1 for receiving patients, Supervisor Dodge announced yesterday.

Next Wednesday afternoon the Board of Supervisors will hold an open reception at the institution, and invites the public, and especially physicians and social service workers, to visit the buildings and grounds and inspect the equipment now installed.

Olive View Sanatorium was started three years ago, when 454 acres of ground near Sylmar were purchased from John T. Wilson for $12,100. This ground lies in the foothills of the San Fernando Valley at an elevation of some 1500 feet—an altitude that is particularly good for the recuperation of those suffering from tuberculosis.

Since the purchase of the property, two ward buildings, a large administration building, a service building and two large structures for housing employees and nurses have been constructed, and besides this, the grounds have been laid out and a large part of the hillside has been planted to shade trees.

While the improvements installed are few, it is the intention to gradually establish a large institution that will house perhaps 500 patients. The present unit will take care of 100 ambulatory patients, and it is the intention to take care only of those who are assured of recovery and such as are able, in a sense, to look after themselves. Hospital patients and bed patients will continue to be cared for at the County Hospital until additional units are provided at the new institution.

Provision is made for the care of both men and women, and there are enough patients now applying for admission to fill the institution.

So far the Supervisors have spent $250,000 on this sanatorium. It will be run in connection with the County Hospital and will be under the direct administration of Superintendent of Charities Martin, while Supervisor Bean will represent the board in an administrative capacity.

The Supervisors express the wish that a large number of citizens will visit and inspect the location next Wednesday.

CALLS WIFE DRAWBACK.

Cinema Star Tells Her She's Too Old; She Gets Divorce, Alimony.

"I am a cave man. Why should I live with you when I can get young and pretty women? I'm still young and good looking, and the pretty women fall for me."

Those were the words of Jack Richardson, cinema actor, to his wife, Emma C. L. Richardson, according to her testimony in her divorce suit, which was heard yesterday by Judge Crail.

Furthermore, Mr. Richardson told his wife that she was too old; that since he had become a cinema star she was a real drawback to him and that he no longer needed her, she said. Mrs. Richardson also testified that her husband saw much of many other women.

The actor's wife was granted a divorce and the judge approved the agreement which Mr. Richardson had made to pay his wife $75 a week alimony. Mrs. Richardson, several years ago, acted in the local studios, and was known as "Calamity Ann." Her husband did not appear in court.

GIRL HURLS CHILD INTO PARK LAKE.

Boy Angers Her by Stone-Throwing, She Says; Believed to be Deranged.

Enraged because several small boys pelted her with stones, Elizabeth Lowe, 15 years of age, late yesterday afternoon threw Danny Lewis, 5 years of age, of 1540 Temple street, into the lake in Echo Park. The child was rescued by men who heard his cries for help and the girl was taken into custody by officers from the Juvenile Bureau.

She was questioned at Central Police Station. Elizabeth told the officers that she threw Danny into the lake, but declared that she did not intend to allow him to drown. She stated that he had thrown stones at her and attempted to drive her from the park. Danny denied the stone throwing.

Lieutenant of Police Nickelson in command of the juvenile bureau, after questioning the girl, ordered her held in Juvenile Hall. He stated his belief that she is deranged.

BARBECUE SATURDAY.

Harbor District Chamber Hosts to Celebrate Highway Opening.

Opening of the new "mountains-to-sea boulevard," which greatly shortens the distance from the harbor district to Hollywood and foothill towns, will be celebrated Saturday afternoon by a program and Spanish barbecue, at which the associated chambers of commerce of the harbor section will be hosts.

The affair will be held on the mesa of the Palos Verdes Hills, south of Harbor City and Lomita. From 1 to 2 o'clock there will be a band concert. The speaking program will last from 2 to 3, coupled with an entertainment by cinema stars, and from 3 to 5 o'clock the barbecue will be served to the guests.

The new highway, which cost $160,000 and traverses a donated right of way worth $50,000, cuts the distance from the harbor district to Hollywood by about seven miles.

The Chamber of Commerce of Harbor City yesterday protested to The Times against a typographical error in this paper's account of the Cabrillo Day celebration, in which the name of the town was not capitalized, giving the impression that merely the harbor section was referred to. The error was purely a mechanical one. Harbor City's two floats, bearing school children, were among the attractive features of the Cabrillo Day parade last Saturday.

FARM DOESN'T PAY.

As Result Tillage for Prisoners Is Ended by Commission's Order.

As a result of the recommendation of Acting Chief Murray, the Griffith Park farm for prisoners is to be abandoned, the Board of Police Commissioners having adopted a resolution to this effect yesterday. The acting captain and several patrolmen who have been stationed there will be transferred to other parts of the city.

From fifteen to twenty prisoners have heretofore been sent there to work on the farm, but Acting Chief Murray believes that the returns from the farm do not justify the expense.

Society Brand Clothes

FOR YOUNG MEN AND MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

©A.D.&C.1920

Looking at the suit that you ought to buy—and buying the suit you ought to have looked at

That happens to a lot of men. Don't let it happen to you this fall.

Here's what they do.

They go into a good store and ask for a good suit of clothes and try it on. So far, so good. That's the only way to get good clothes.

Then they go somewhere else and try on a suit a little lower in price. That old dollar gets in front of their eyes and after that they can't see anything but price. Pretty soon they aren't looking at anything but price marks. The suit they finally buy is one they literally haven't looked at.

No man ever looked his best in a suit of clothes that he bought because it was a few dollars cheaper than the one he wanted.

It is on that theory that we ask you to look at Society Brand Clothes.

The Duty of Credit

Every seed that is planted, every hour of labor that is expended on production of raw materials represents effort to increase the resources of the world. Between production and final application to mankind's needs of the fruits of this effort there may be an interval of months.

The highest duty of credit is to finance this element of time in the processes of production and distribution.

The great resources of the National Bank of Commerce in New York are utilized to provide credit for production, industry and commerce.
